In Classic Style . . .

Kimball High School has maintained its tradition of excellence throughout the years. But this year we did it "In Classic Style." The Kimball Knights excelled in all endeavors, especially in academics and athletics.

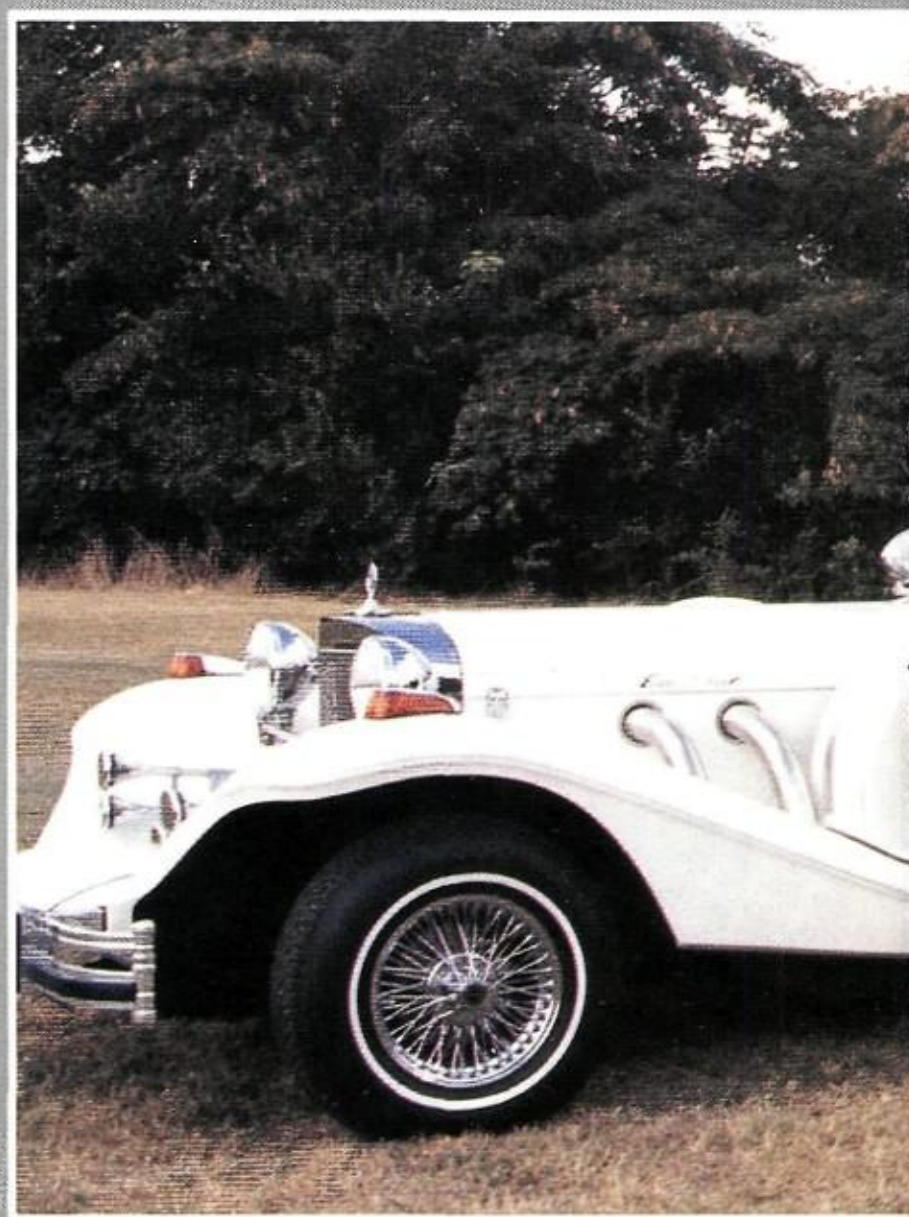

This year the Knights sought the best, and they found it in themselves. Not only did Kimball prove itself on the football field by winning the district title, but the Knights proved themselves in the classroom with higher standardized test scores and improved grades.

Although the state legislature provided us with additional changes, this did not stunt Kimball's prosperous development.

With a new facelift and more renovations planned, Kimball has already been given positive support for continuing its classic style. In spite of several obstacles at the beginning of the year, Kimball students made a complete turnaround.

Low attendance at early pep assemblies deadened school spirit, but by the last football pep assembly, Kimball's spirit improved one hundred percent. This was evident in the outstanding school spirit exhibited by the traditional spirit chains. School spirit has always played a key role in developing Kimball's character.

Excellence

A change in the Student Council occurred this year. The Student Council received a new name. This group of student leaders are now known as P-SAC (Principal's Student Advisory Committee). This new name did not affect the many useful activities that this select group of students have always contributed to Kimball.

The discipline management system that was implemented proved to be a great help this year. The system helped keep the school in order as enrollment and student makeup changed throughout the year.

Perhaps the biggest comeback this year was the revival of an active school government. Student government again has been a major part of Kimball's tradition.

Special assemblies with guest speakers were another step towards encouraging and motivating students. Students were challenged to do their best in all areas.

Kimball proved it is still a "winner." The school received a grant from the Carnegie Foundation for the "Power Writing" Program, and numerous awards were won throughout the year by various students.

The continuation of high standards as well as the return of past activities played a key role in putting Kimball in a class by itself.

The EXCALIBUR staff would like to present the 1986 EXCALIBUR to all of those who helped to revitalize Kimball and help continue outstanding traditions . . . "In Classic Style."

Student Life

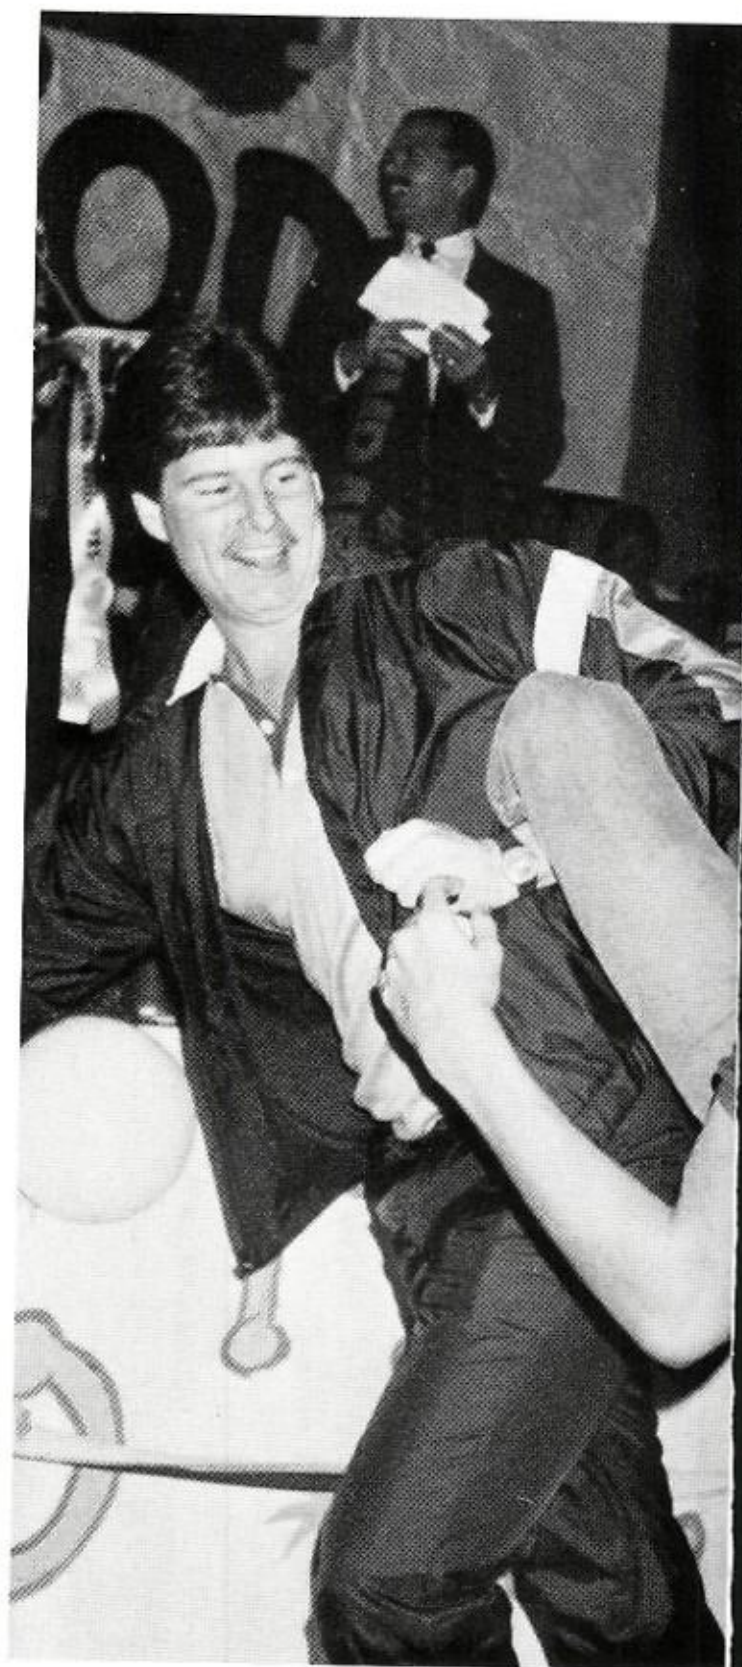

A major part of Kimball High School involves student life. Students have always been the heart and nucleus of any school.

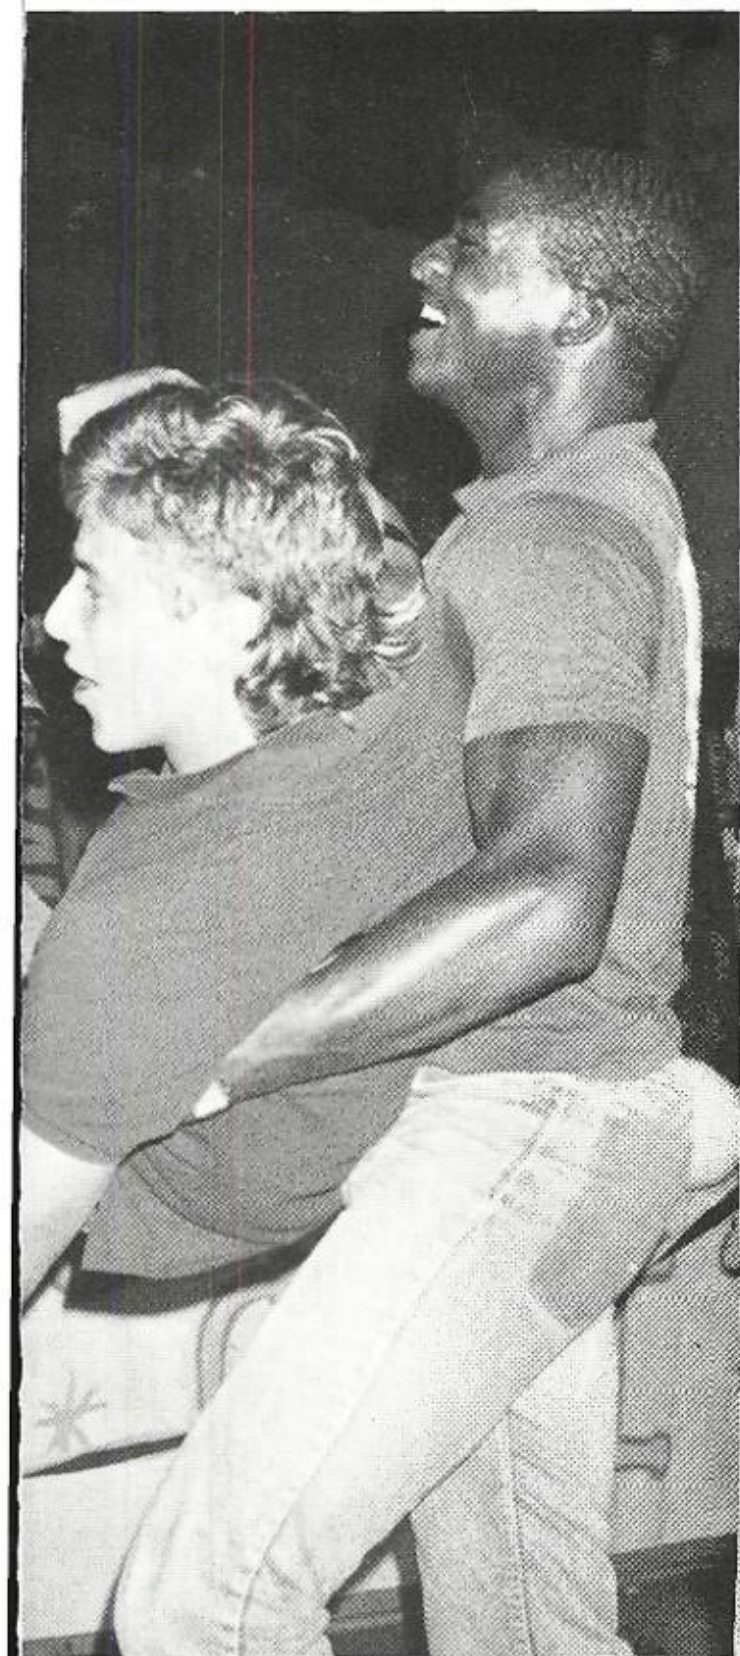

The Kimball Knights enjoyed themselves at many activities this year. Pep assemblies, both before and during school, were the spirit boosters in helping the Knights to the playoffs.

Although the Homecoming dance was cancelled, other Homecoming activities allowed students to exhibit the classical Homecoming style with traditional mums and flowers.

Dances, such as the Military Ball, provided fun and entertainment for all those who attended them. Students also spent time on stage productions with a major production of "To Be Young, Gifted, and Black."

Naturally, this year provided many opportunities for the students of Kimball to get together with their friends and enjoy school-related activities.

"A Company of Wayward Saints"

"A Company of Wayward Saints" was this year's University Interscholastic League play. The Kimball UIL cast performed at Carter High on March 15 and did an April performance on campus, before competing for State awards in Austin.

The play is a comedy with a serious message, according to Ms. Brenda Prothro, drama instructor. It is about a group of actors performing together. She said, "The actors discover that being head-strong, stubborn and prideful is not the way to succeed. They find that they need to work together."

Hard work and dedication are no strangers to the UIL cast, and as before it paid off.

Thespian Society inducts new members

This year 12 new members were inducted into the Thespian Society. These students were selected because of their meritorious work in the theater.

Old members held a candle initiation in which old thespians initiated two new members each. Each new member received a corsage as a memory of the occasion.

Afterwards, both old and new members celebrated the event at Caruso's Restaurant in north Dallas.

"To Be Young, Gifted and Black" proves to be a crowd-pleaser as the fall play

The play "To Be Young, Gifted, and Black" was the season opener for the Kimball Drama Department this year.

It was a play based on the life of Lorraine Hansberry, the talented playwright who wrote about characters universal to us all.

The use of no stage props allowed the audience to make its own interpretations by listening to the actors and actresses performing on stage.

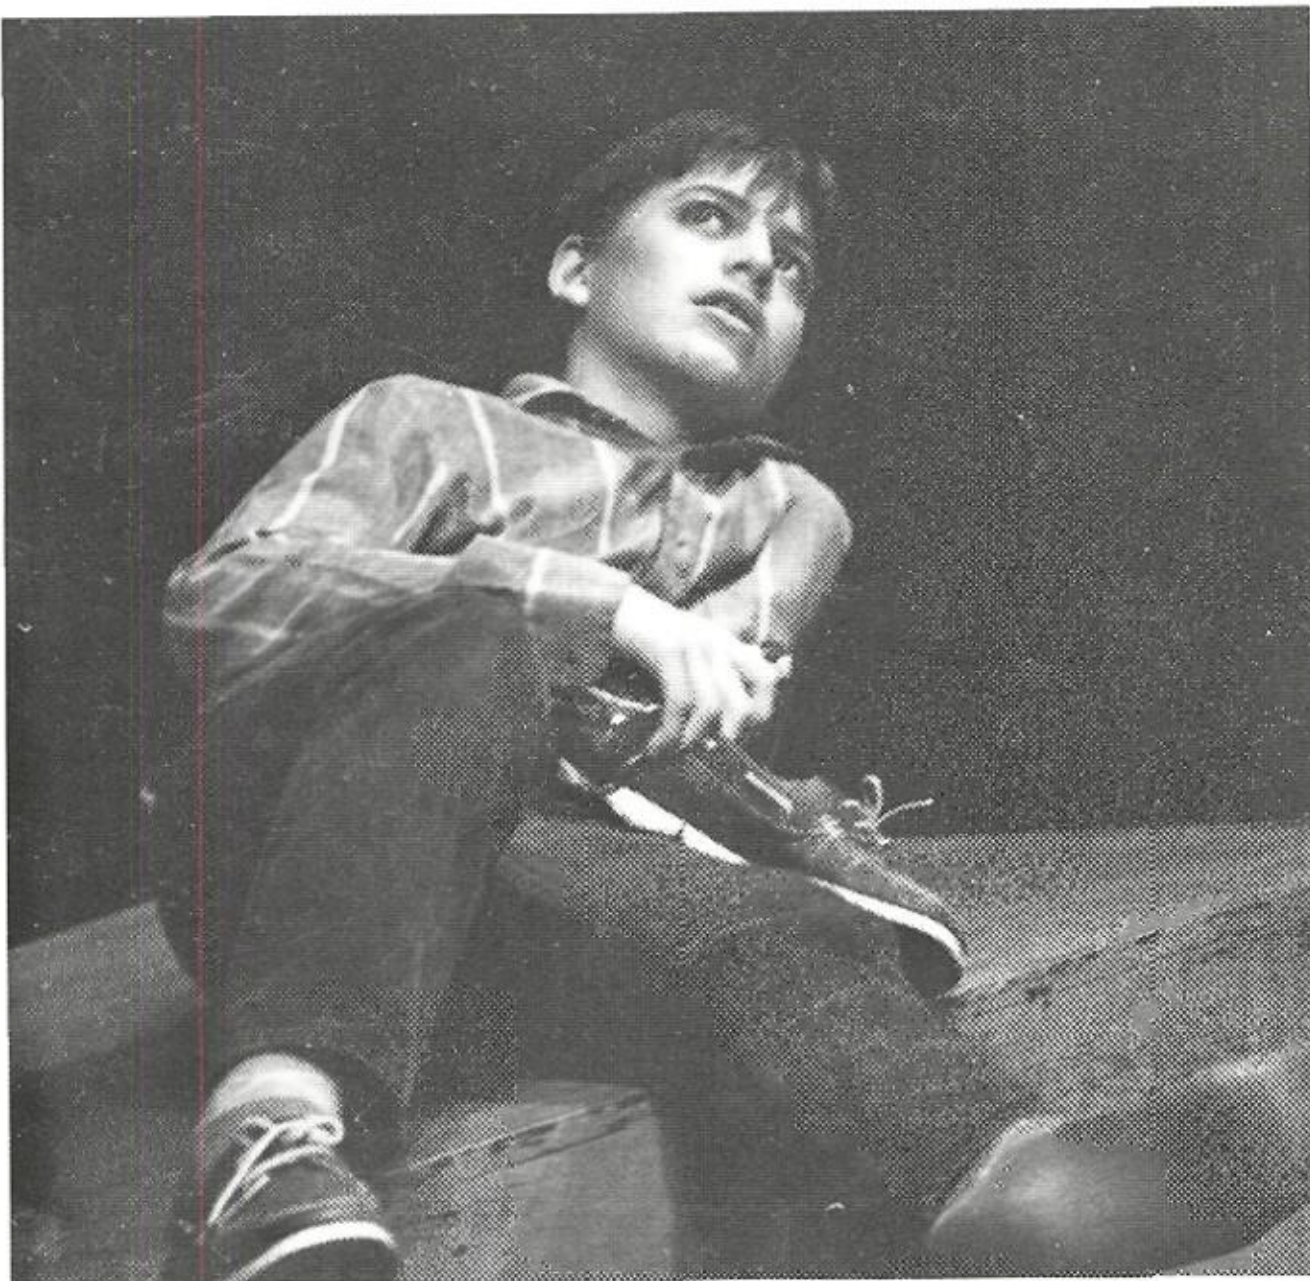

The cast and crew worked long hours, including after school rehearsals, in order to display their best performances. Because of this extra effort, the results were outstanding.

Student Director April Whitfield summed the entire play activities with the comment, "We all gained knowledge and benefited from the experience of putting on this type of play, while having fun doing it."

Motivation Assemblies prove helpful

Special assemblies were held throughout the year to help motivate students to do their best in their endeavors.

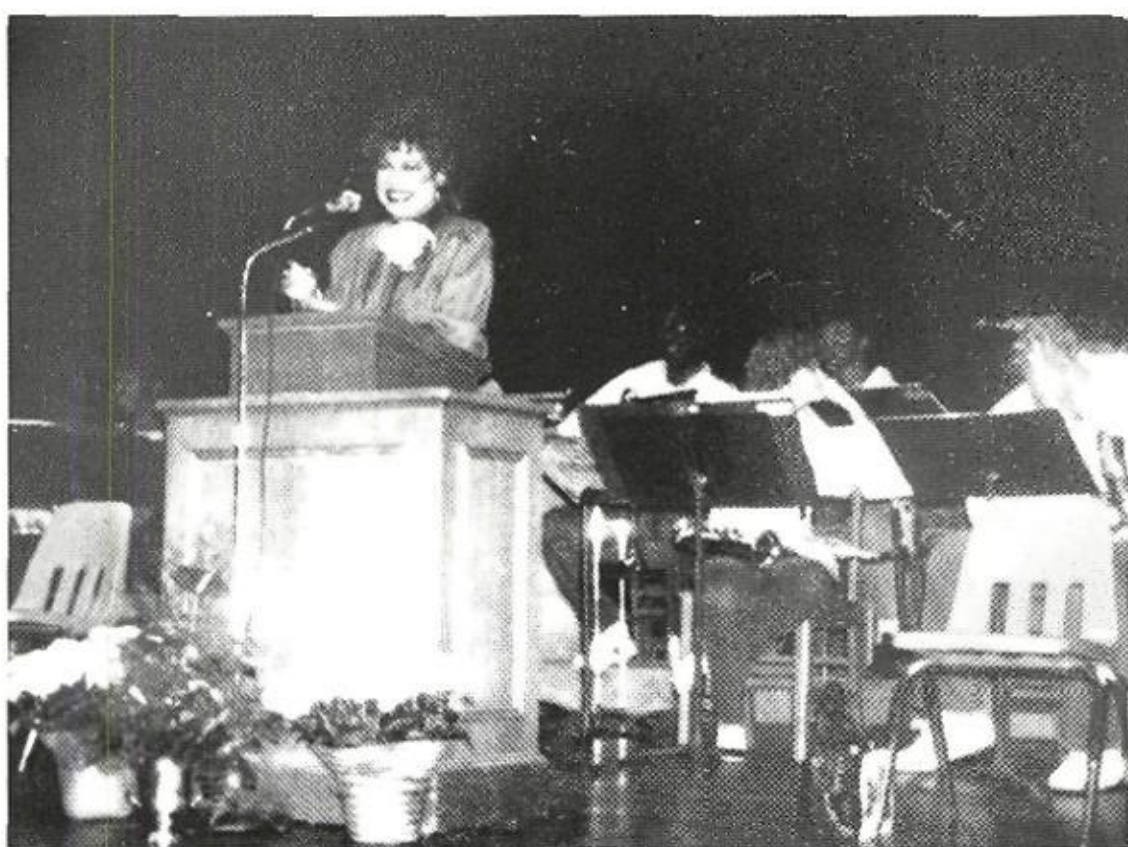

The speaker that generated the most excitement was Jermaine Jackson, the famous recording star and former member of the Jackson Five.

Jackson encouraged students to work hard and to set goals.

Clarice Tinsley, anchorperson on Channel 4, also visited. She spoke during February, National Black History Month.

Other speakers included "Mean Joe" Green, a local businessman and former professional football player; and Ron Chapman, a local radio personality.

Organizations

Organizations are an integral part of Kimball because they allow students to enjoy the company of other students who have similar interests.

Organizations have always played an important part in the development of Kimball. They furnish various means of bringing students together as well as provide fun and learning experiences.

Kimball has many organizations including professional clubs, foreign language clubs, outdoor organizations, and award winning cheerleaders and drill team. The organizations at Kimball are arranged to suit the needs of everyone.

To fund their activities organizations sponsor a variety of activities, ranging from candy sales to dances.

Varsity Cheerleaders continue tradition of excellence

As Kimball's classic style continued, so did the outstanding spirit of the Varsity Cheerleaders. With a new sponsor, Ms. Mary Georgevich, the cheerleaders were anxious to get started on the new season.

Early morning and late afternoon practices allowed the cheerleaders to learn new cheers as well as perfect old ones. This made them eager to perform their cheers at pep assemblies and football games as soon as the season began.

Not only did they boost school spirit with cheers, but the Varsity Cheerleaders showed creativity in their colorful signs and banners.

Of course, the cheerleaders did not go without being rewarded for their fantastic efforts. During the summer, the cheerleaders attended a camp with NCA cheerleaders held at NTSU.

While at the camp, they won two superior ribbons, two excellent ribbons, one superior ribbon for the mascot, and the spirit stick.

The cheerleaders also won a superior ribbon at the Regional Competition held at Adamson High School.

Throughout the years, the Kimball cheerleaders have been an important part of the school's history. This year merely continued the tradition.

Ms. Georgevich said she enjoyed being sponsor for the cheerleaders. "Being the cheerleader sponsor is a very important part of my life. The cheerleaders are like family," she said. Ms. Georgevich had this to say in regard to the Varsity Cheerleaders, "I have been very proud of the Varsity squad. They worked together to overcome any obstacle placed in their paths. They always managed to show a unified squad to the fans — they were the epitome of the Kimball spirit."

JV Cheerleaders Help Boost Knight Spirit

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders proved to be an enormous asset for the cheerleading organization at Kimball. They helped promote enthusiasm for the Freshman and JV teams with their support and dedication.

They not only cheered at the Freshman and JV games, but they also joined with the Varsity Cheerleaders to perform at the pep assemblies and Varsity Football games.

Their efforts this year did not go unrecognized. The cheerleaders participated in the Maverick Competition at Reunion Arena. As a result to their super performance, the cheerleaders were rewarded with an excellent rating.

"The JV squad always has lots of energy," said Ms. Georgevich. "They are always willing to do more than their share of work. They have cheered at Freshman, JV, and Varsity games. Their energy is unlimited."

Knight Criers promote spirit

The Kimbal Knight Criers helped boost spirit throughout the year. Because the group was smaller than previous pep squads at Kimball, the girls put forth even more effort and cheered twice as loud.

This hardworking group of spirit boosters helped perform cheers from the stands during the football and basketball games. During the pep assemblies, the Knight Criers sat in their own section of the auditorium and helped cheer with the cheerleaders on stage. This helped to stimulate the students' enthusiasm for the football teams.

Ms. Rushing, the Knight Criers sponsor, had this to say about the 1985-86 pep squad. "I am proud of the outstanding efforts exhibited by these girls throughout the entire year and am looking forward to more membership in the future."

"Troubs" razzle and dazzle all year

The Troubadears, one of the most prestigious organizations at Kimball, enjoyed another exciting year. This success, of course, did not come without a lot of hard work and numerous hours of practice.

By starting in the summer with the Troub officers attending a camp at SMU, the members were given a head start on the year. The officers learned new routines which they presented to the rest of the Troubs during their own summer camp held at school. During the camp, the Troubs spent up to four hours a day practicing their new routines for the pep assemblies and football games.

In addition to providing entertainment at school activities, the Troubs also performed at SMU basketball games as well as marched in SMU's Homecoming Parade.

All of these super performances were the result of strong dedication and cooperation. Numerous honors were given to the Troubs for their performances.

While the officers attended the summer camp, they received several honors. They won a division I rating and were chosen as "Most Admired Team of the Day." The Troubs were also one of ten drill teams to receive an outstanding creative night award.

Captain Melissa French and Lieutenant Angela Elledge were honored by being selected to Who's Who in American Drill Teams.

On January 11, the Troubs participated in the Dallas Maverick Competition and earned a division I rating.

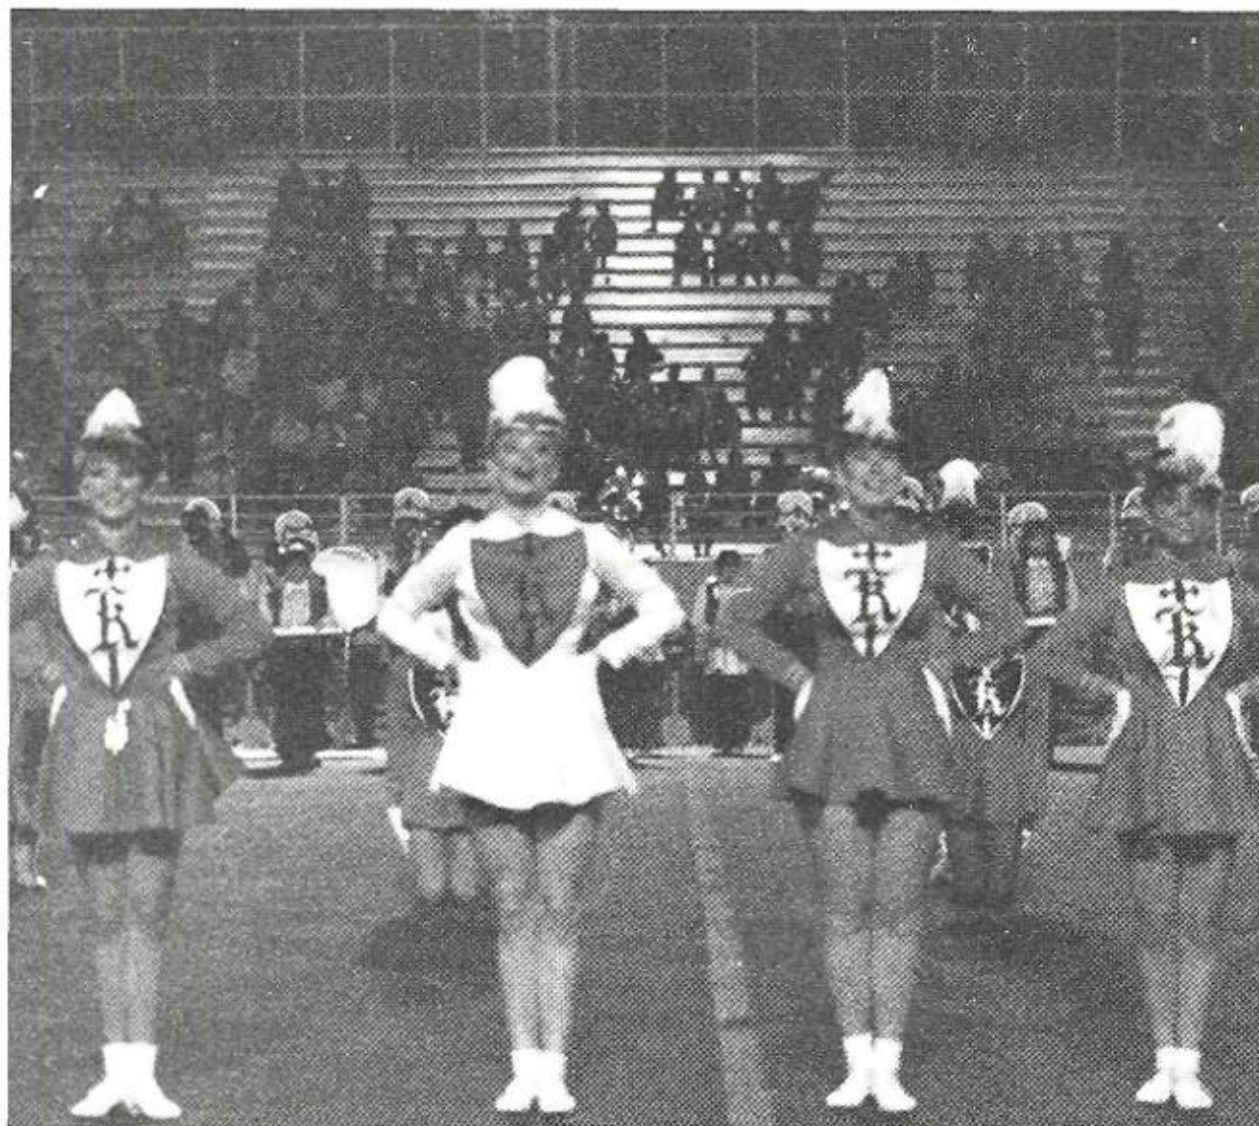

In order to raise money to sponsor these events and others, the Troubs spent their time selling hot dogs at Texas Stadium and served as boosters at Six Flags.

The Troub Sponsor, Dianne Everett said she has been pleased with this year's Troubs and their award winning performances.

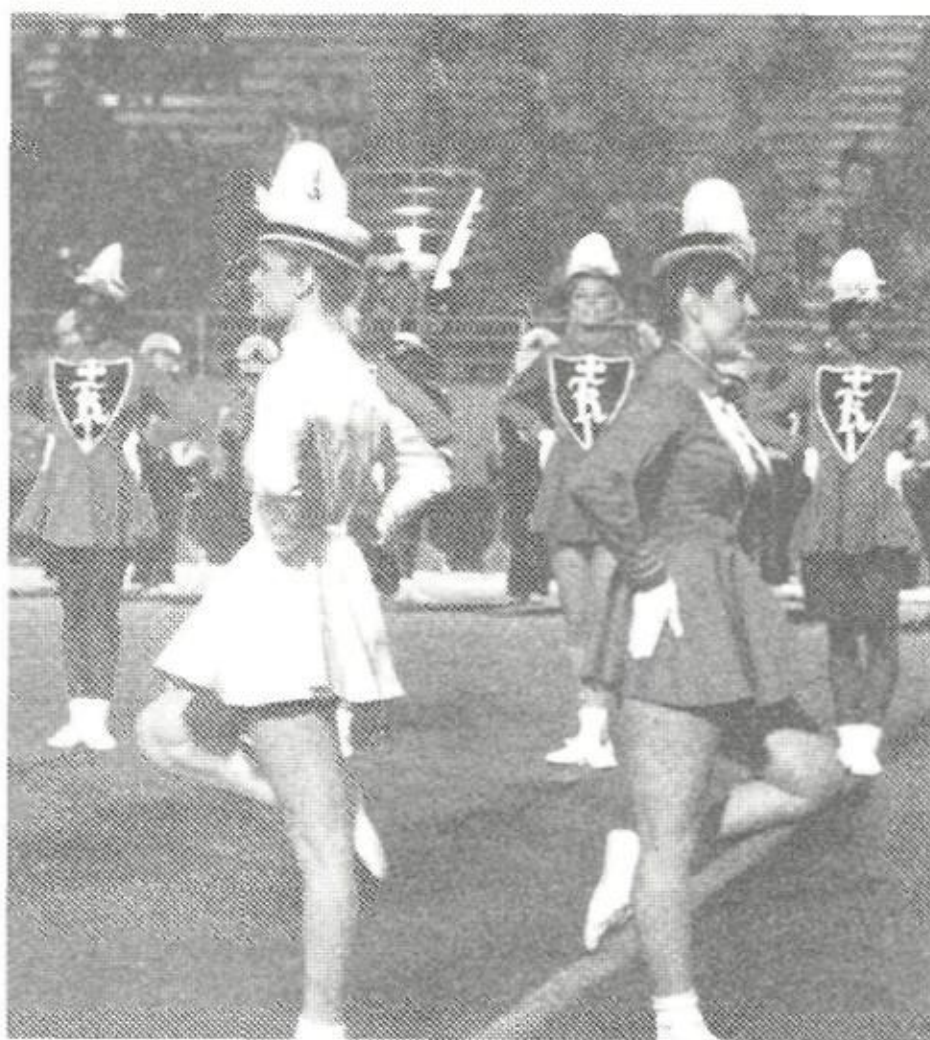

"I enjoy working with these girls who are dedicated to striving to become the best that they can possibly be," said Ms. Everett. "Being a Troub allows them to make friends with other girls who share a common interest — dancing and performing."

MARCHING BAND KEEPS PACE UP

Hard work and ability describe the Kimball Marching Band.

The 104 member band began its tiresome training beneath the hot summer sun, while changing its usual style of music to more popular tunes such as "Axel F" and "Rock Me Tonight."

The band is under the direction of Mr. Espinosa and assistant director Mr. Norris. On the field, the band is led by Drum Major Reggie Baker, assistant Drum Major Katrina Taylor, and Color Guard Captain Sandra Sechrist.

With the help of drum teacher Eric Hackslocker, the percussion section of the band learned their own songs and drill for a special drum feature performed during the halftime shows at the football games. The special attention given to these students resulted in a first division rating at contest.

Also, drum major Reggie Baker received an "Outstanding Drum Major" award at competition.

Although the number of band members dropped because of the "no pass, no play" rule, the Knight Band held up its pride by receiving an "excellent" rating at the UIL Marching Band Competition held at Loos Stadium.

Mr. Espinosa said, "The Knight Band has improved from last year and grown in size. I look for an increase in enrollment for next year, and an exciting conclusion to the year."

Knight Beats jazz it up

The Knight Beats is the Kimball jazz band made up of the more advanced band members.

It is designed for those students who are interested in further developing their musical talents.

These musicians learn various types of music, but more emphasis is placed on the field of jazz.

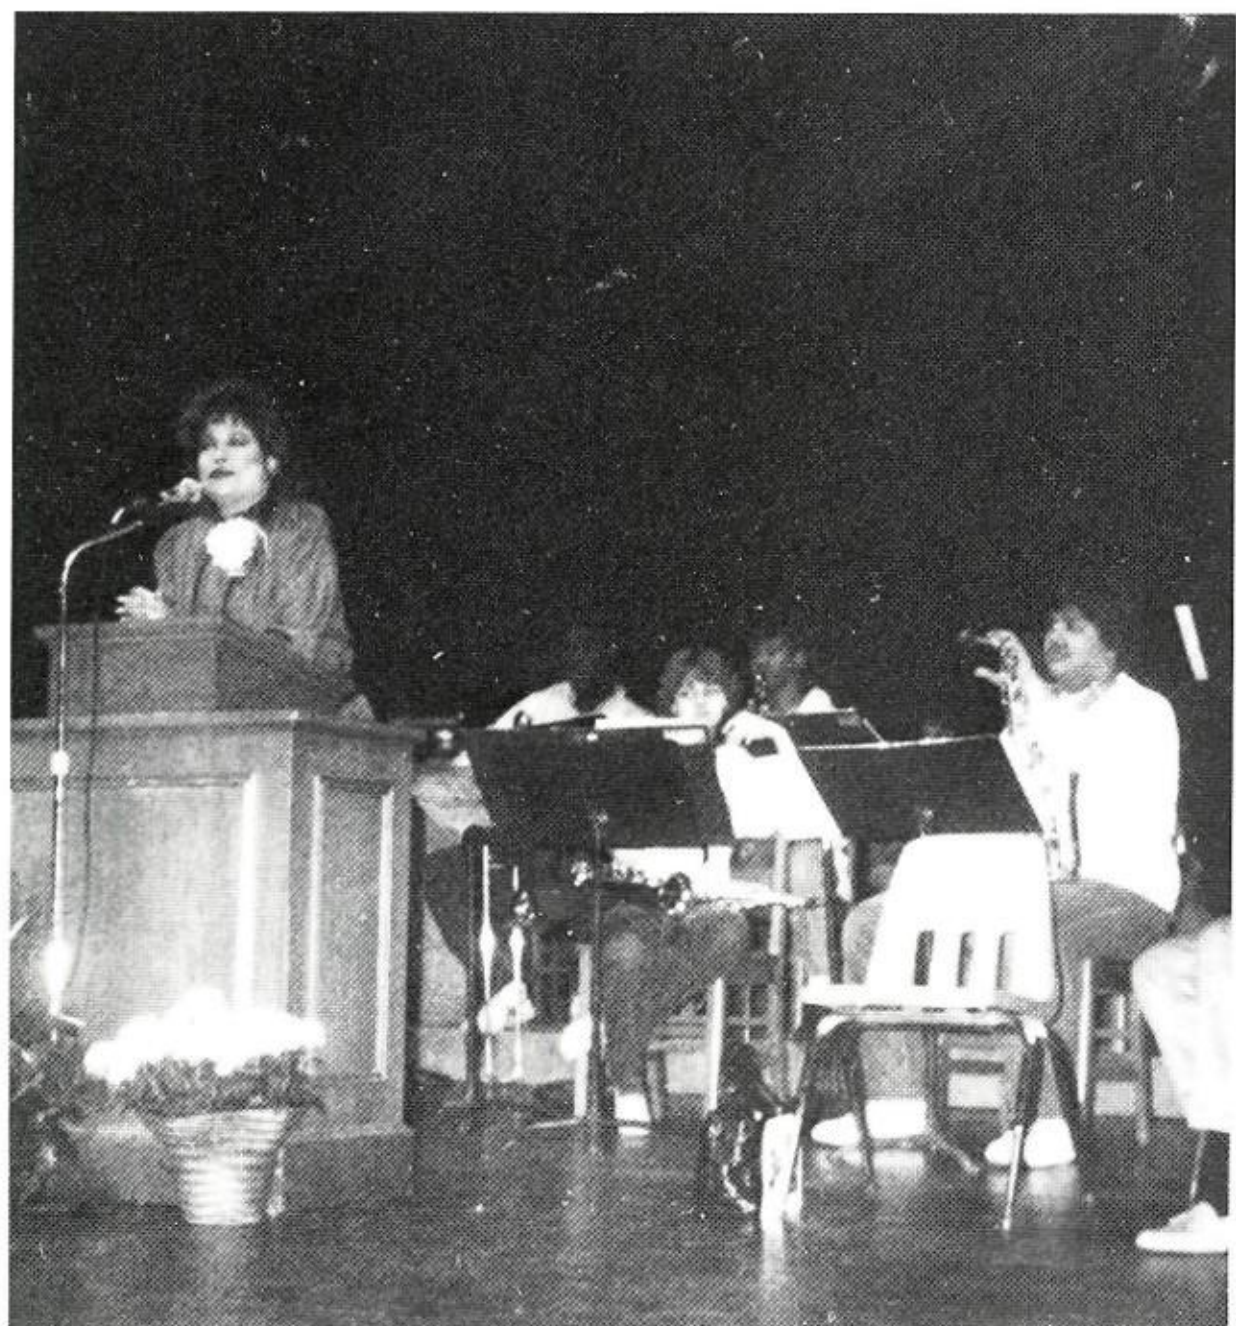

The Knight Beats participated in various competitions throughout the year in which they did exceptionally well.

The Squires are the Kimball stage band made up of beginning jazz band members. The Squires serve as a training band whose members advance to the Knight Beats.

Being a Squire member allows a student to be introduced to jazzy rhythms and other musical techniques.

The Squires give students a chance to gain experience in a stage band. This experience helps them to practice and gain knowledge about music in order to prepare them for their membership on the Knight Beats.

Allied Youth spent another year spreading the word about alcohol and drug use and abuse.

The members spoke at the feeder junior high schools to make students aware of the dangers of alcohol and drug abuse. By speaking to the students on a personal level, the Allied Youth members tried to persuade them not to abuse these substances.

Allied Youth members later returned to the schools and provided a training course for the science classes. It was a busy year, and their service was well appreciated.

Mrs. Dianne Stansberry summarized her feelings about the Allied Youth program by saying, "The Allied Youth organization will benefit the present members because it gives these members more knowledge about drugs and how it can affect a person's mind and body. The students are eager to go and talk to students, because if they can reach one student or ten students from their sessions, they have accomplished a goal."

Y-Teens find "service" to others rewarding

Y-Teens is a service organization designed to help girls grow into mature and responsible young women through a variety of activities.

This respected group of girls sponsored several activities, both in and out of school. In school, Y-Teens sponsor such activities as the "Legs" contest and the "Turkey of the Year" contest.

Outside of school, the girls devote their time to other worthy causes. One project involves making survival kits for nursing home residents. During the Holiday Season, the Y-Teens members spent their time and resources in helping with a day care center's Christmas party.

Ms. Fayette Laury and Ms. Cassandra Ashberry are the sponsors of the Y-Teens. Ms. Laury commented on the Y-Teens organization by saying, "The Y-Teens organization seeks to make this world a better place through emphasis on love, friendship, and service. It helps the young lady to grow as a person, to grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities, and to grow in the knowledge and love of God."

Science Club broadens aspects of unknown

The Science Club is an organization designed to encourage the learning and appreciation of science through participation in various activities. Members participated in activities ranging from field trips to sponsoring special campaigns for the improvement of human life.

Being a member of the Science Club enables a student to become more involved in the scientific aspects of life. This year, the members learned more about Haley's Comet through a visit to the planetarium. They also visited the Fort Worth Zoo and attended scientific tours at SMU.

In order to sponsor these events and others, the Science Club held a "boot contest" and also sold candy, pickles, and hot dogs after school.

At the end of the year, the Science Club planned a trip to NASA in Houston and a Sea-a-rama trip to Galveston.

Journalism Club gets involved

The Journalism Club is an organization designed for students interested in further developing their skills in journalism through a variety of activities. The members served as a support group for the student publications.

Throughout the year, the members participated in various activities to raise money.

They collected canned goods which were donated to the North Texas Food Bank. Members also sold popcorn and cookies after school.

During the talent show sponsored by the journalism department, members of the Journalism Club served as ushers.

At the end of the year, the Journalism Club sponsored their own special recreational activity.

Student Council receives new name

The Student Council received a new name this year. This leadership organization is now known as P-SAC (Principal's Student Advisory Committee).

These dedicated students performed many useful activities around the school.

During the day, P-SAC members could be found working on bulletin boards, the calendar in the front foyer, and the marquis in front of the school, as well as maintaining beauty in the courtyard.

For nighttime activities, P-SAC sponsored successful dances such as the ones after some of the athletic events and the Holiday Dance in December.

They also arranged special appreciation receptions for the faculty and the Kimball coaches and athletic teams.

As usual, this group of devoted students were a great help this year. Although the Homecoming Dance did not go quite as planned, Mr. Timpa had positive feelings toward the group with his response, "I am proud of the strong spirit of these students who showed genuine dedication through their efforts in helping maintain the true "classic style" of Kimball."

Knight Tymes keep in harmony

As Kimball continued its classic tradition, one group always remained on top. The Knight Tymes singers have continually been one of the most active and hardworking organizations at Kimball. Every day during fourth period, the students worked diligently, practicing and perfecting each musical arrangement.

"Working with the Knight Tymes this year is really exciting," says choral director Marion Chavez. "The singers read music well, and it is a well-balanced choral group."

The Knight Tymes displayed their talents at various functions such as at the PTA meetings and at the Oak Cliff Lions Club.

In order for the Knight Tymes to continue their tradition of excellence, the members must maintain a willingness to learn and the ability to strive for musical perfection.

Thespians experience dramatic life

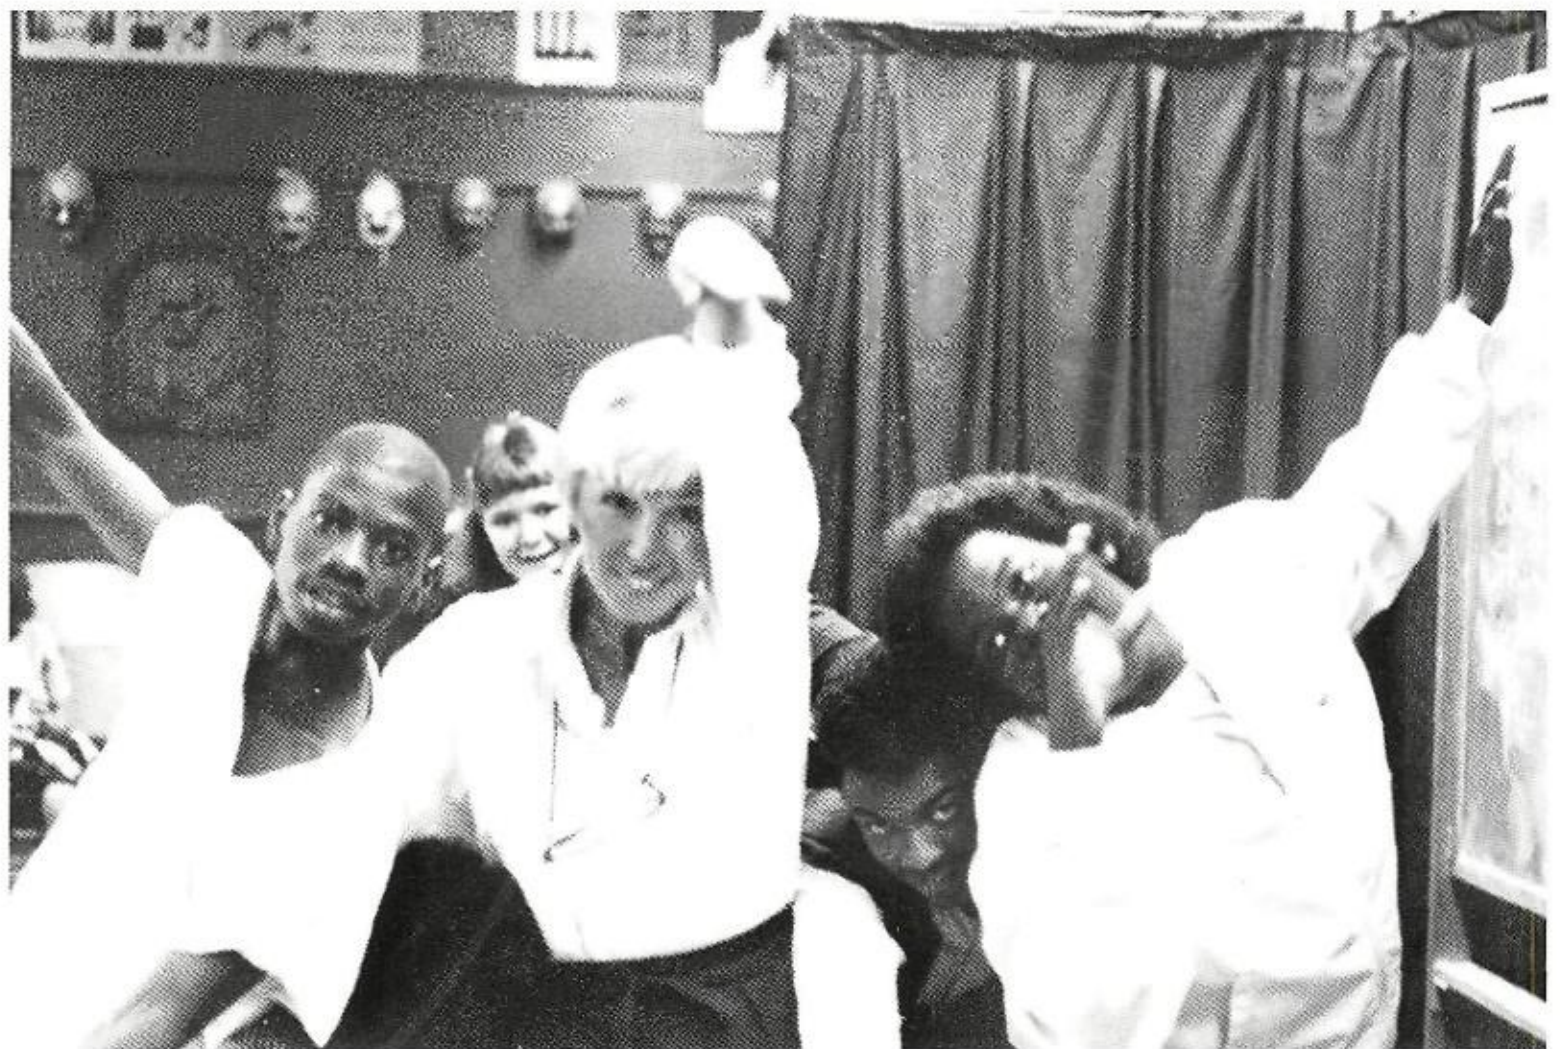

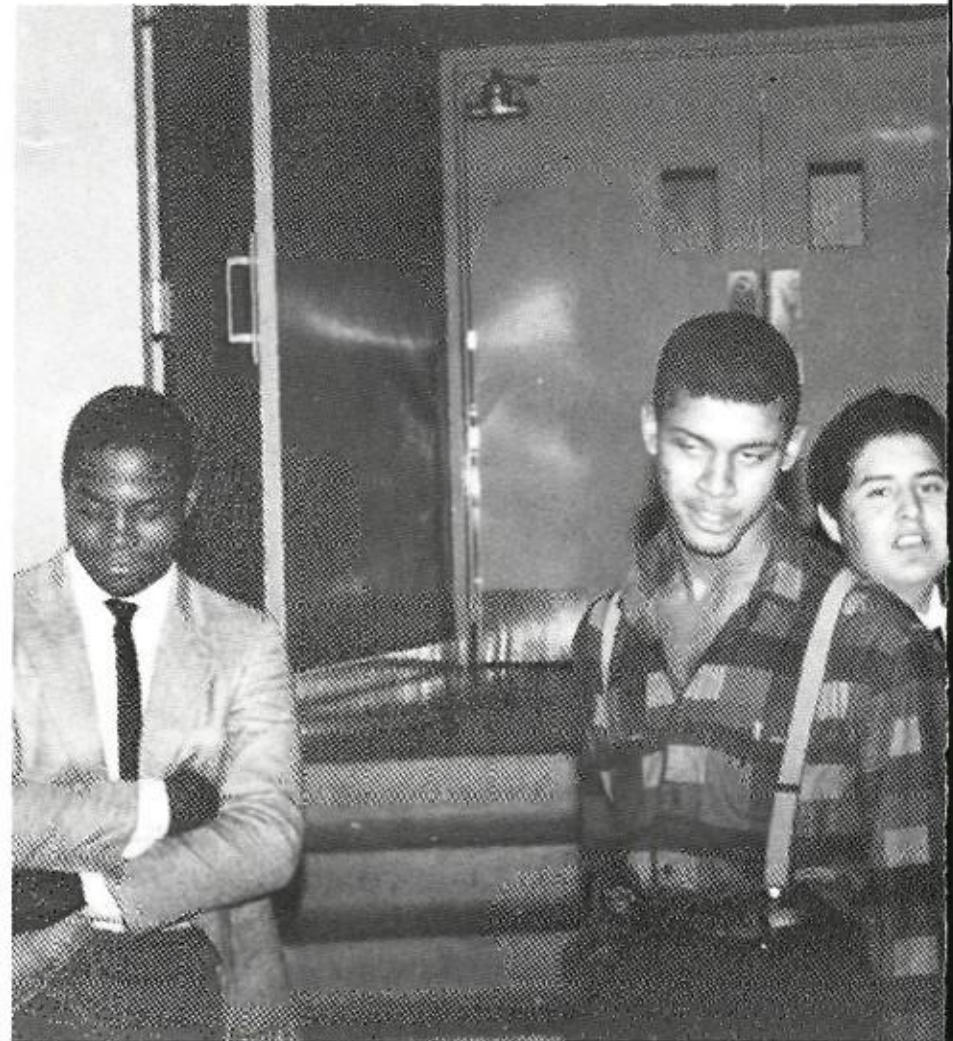

The Thespian Society is an organization designed to promote quality theatre at the high school level. This is accomplished through various activities.

Members of the Thespian Society learned different aspects of the theatre by attending such events as professional play productions. They also gained practical experience by working as crew members for visiting performers.

Thespians exhibited their own talents through performances in the Experimental Christmas show and the Brown Bag Theatre.

Ms. Brenda Prothro, the drama instructor, commented on the Thespian Society by saying, "It's an organization which requires continuous participation in theatre activities; therefore, a student has a place to contribute positively and constructively."

Fantasy Factory provides entertainment

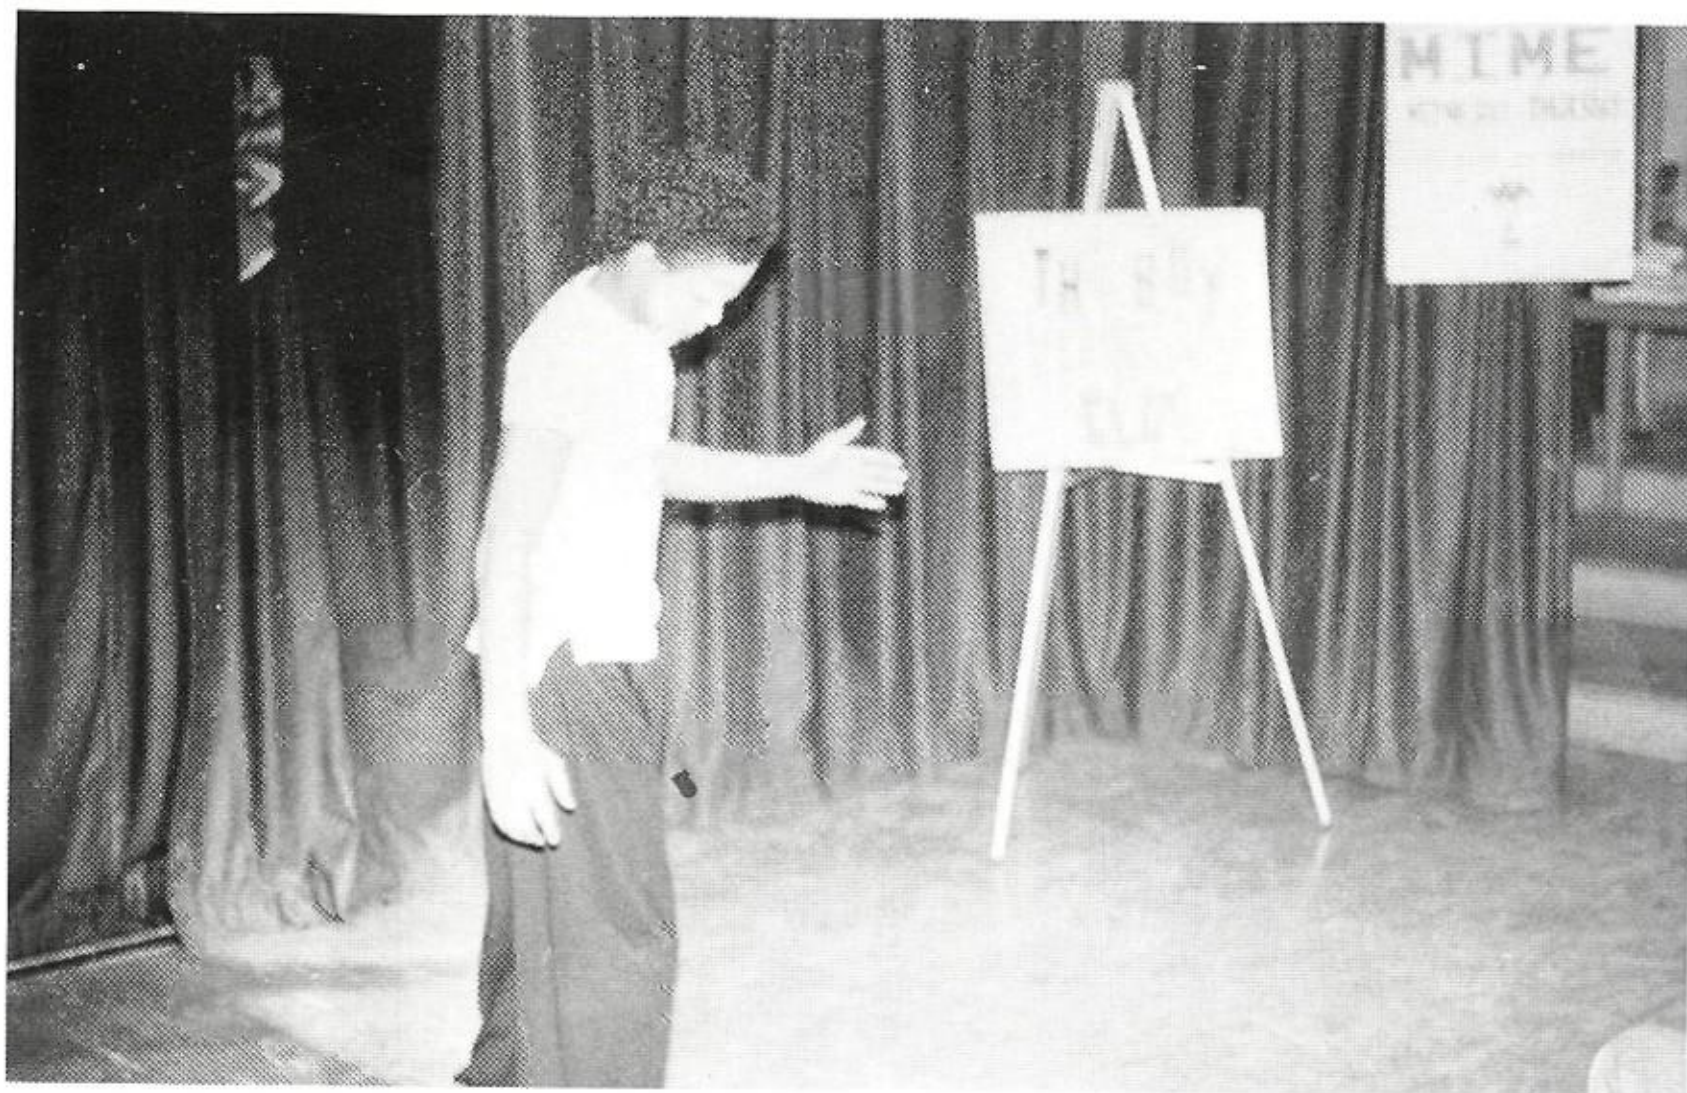

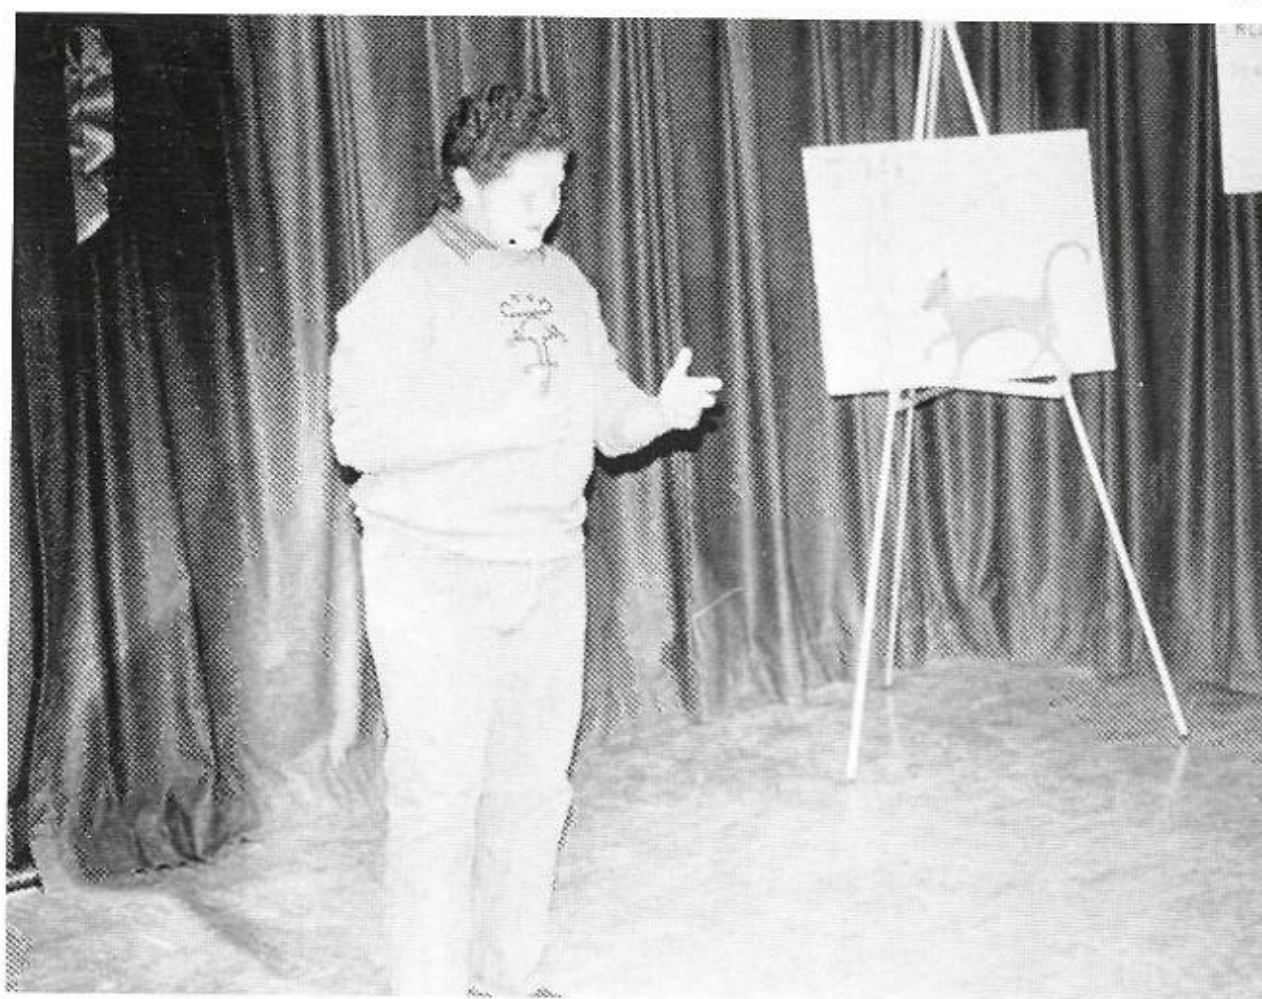

The Fantasy Factory is a performing troupe that exposes the student body and feeder elementary schools to the world of theatre. Being a member of the Fantasy Factory also gives the members the opportunity to perfect their own performance skills.

Fantasy Factory members displayed their acting abilities during such activities as the Lunchtime Mime and Lunchtime Theatre productions.

Later in the year, the Fantasy Factory produced a show called "Doing It Texas Style" which was a celebration of the Texas sesquicentennial birthday.

Ms. Prothro was very supportive of the Fantasy Factory. "It offers a unique experience for students to explore their potential."

Woods and Waters explores nature

Woods and Waters is an organization designed for students to build character and learn life skills through various outdoor activities. Not only do the students learn life skills, but they also gain knowledge about nature and the environment.

The members of Woods and Waters enjoyed the outdoors with such activities as horseback riding and white water canoeing. They also participated in fishing activities such as competing in bass tournaments. All of these activities were enjoyed while the members went on campouts in various locations around Texas.

Mr. Goodwin, the sponsor of Woods and Waters, enjoys working with the students. "Being the sponsor enables me to work with the members not just as a teacher, but as a friend. We all enjoy the outdoors and this club enables us to enjoy the company of others who have similar interests."

Pathfinders catch first place in bass tournament

Beating their way through the woods and finding ways to productively use nature are a part of the Pathfinders.

Pathfinders is an organization that encourages learning useful skills for life in the outdoors.

Members of Pathfinders went on various overnight trips throughout the year. On these trips members were given only a few items that could be used creatively. They went on their own to practice living in the wilderness without modern conveniences.

Besides their outings, Pathfinders took part in the Explorers Bass Contest in Waxahachie and came away as winners.

The Pathfinders took first place in the Largest Post Stringer. Individual winners were Eric Taylor and David Hale.

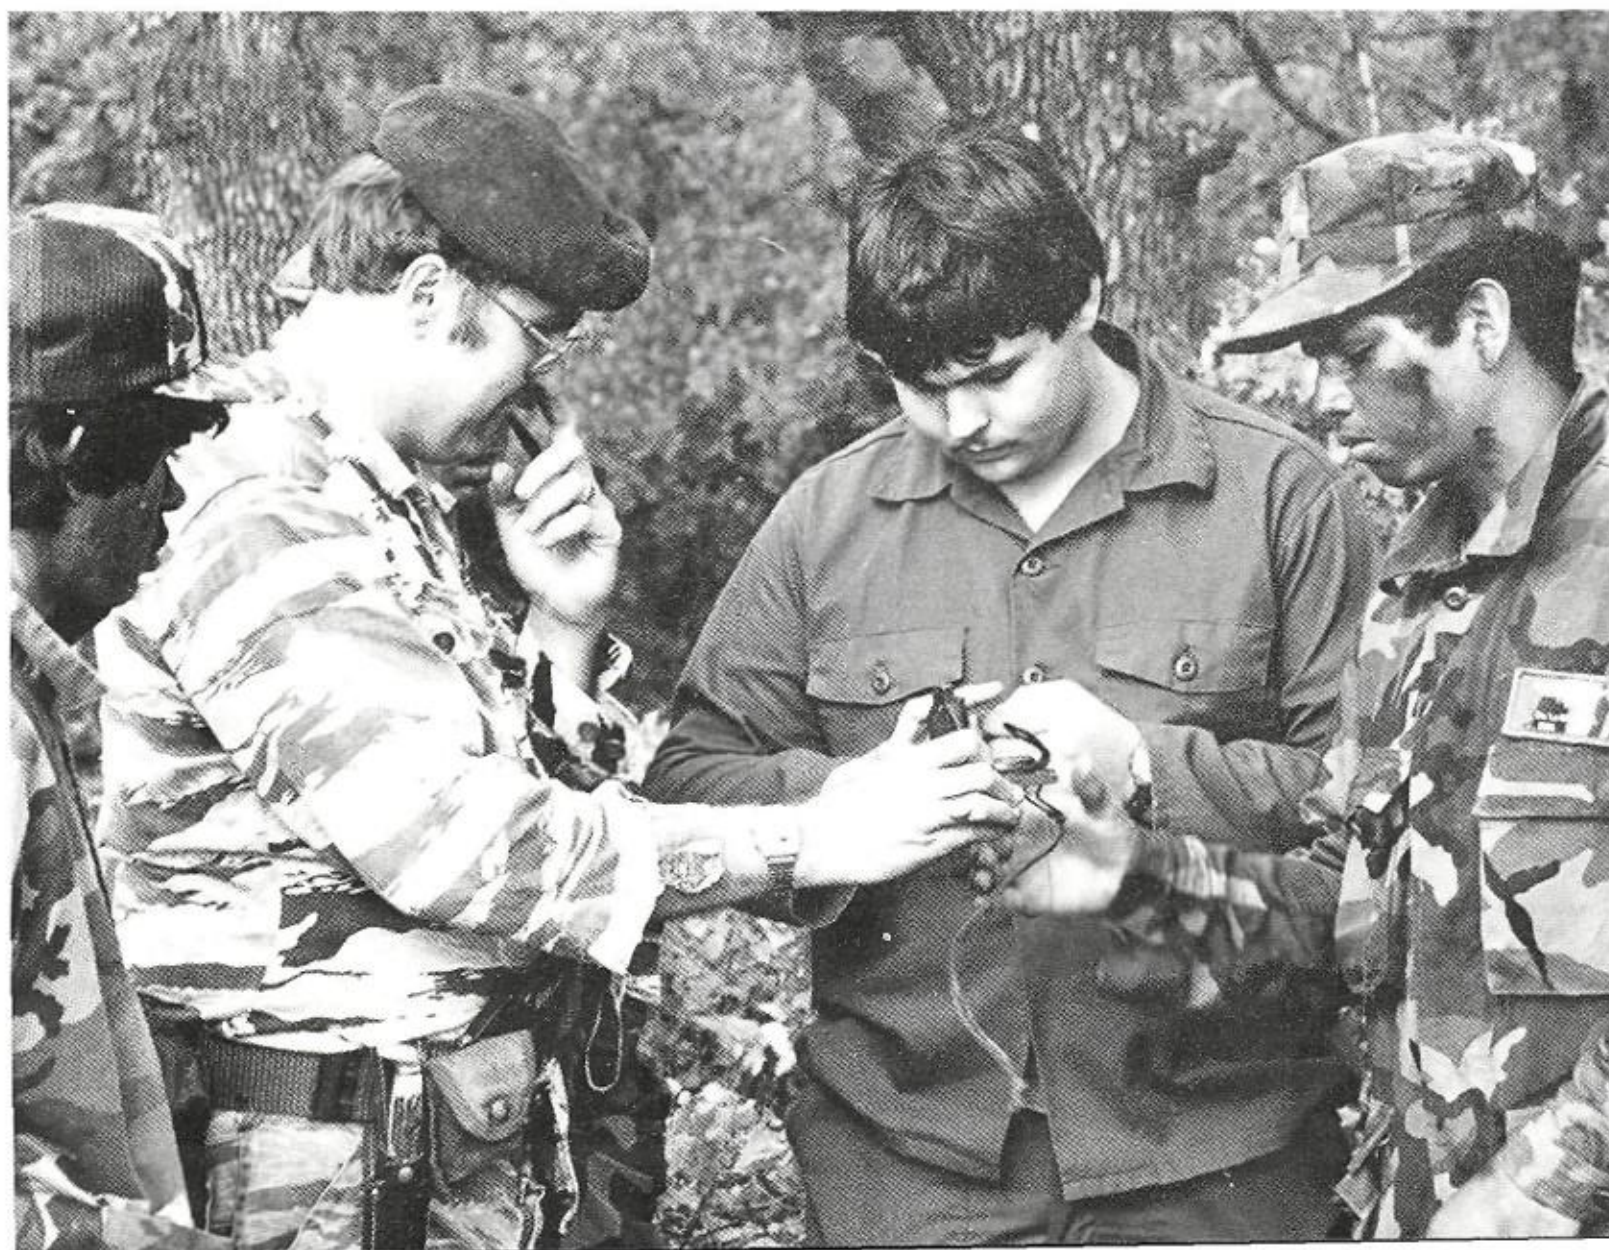

Eric Taylor won first place for the largest bass and largest stringer.

David Hale took second place for the largest stringer.

Choir strikes a happy chord

The choir classes offer students the chance to learn basic vocal techniques, fundamentals of music, and choral teamwork.

The concert choir performs classical choral pieces in various languages such as Latin, German, and Italian. Because the training choir is for beginning singers, they perform some contemporary tunes along with less difficult classical numbers.

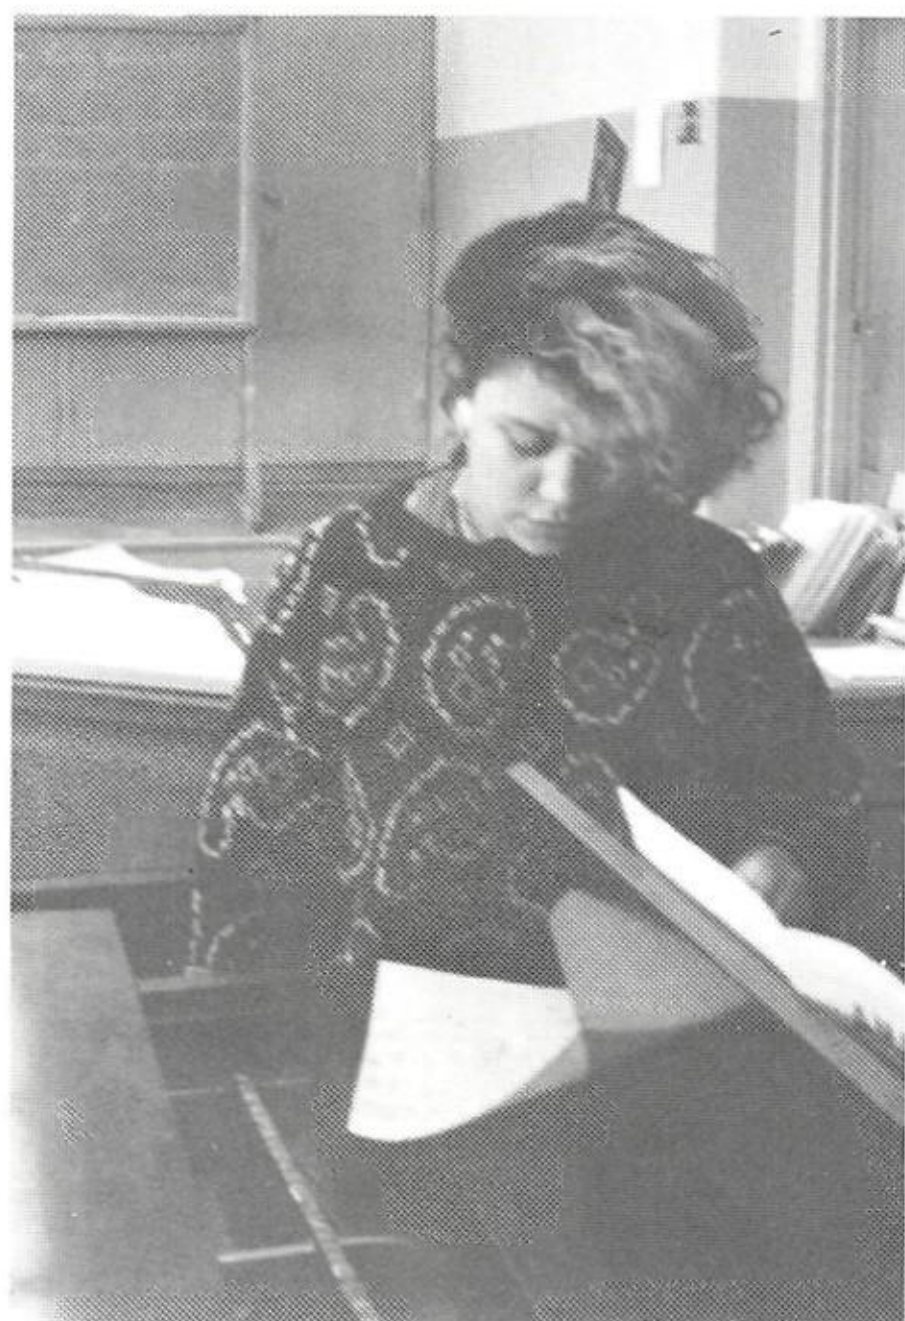

Although enrollment in the choir classes was down this year, the members were able to raise enough money to purchase new outfits.

Orchestra — in tune with classics

The Kimball Orchestra tuned the classic style of our school through its various performances of classical and other types of music.

The members began the year with the All-City Orchestra auditions held in September. Three students were selected to perform in this group. They are: Mark Mayben — cello; Mike Manriquez — violin, and Robin Burns — viola. Mark Mayben was also selected to play in the All-District Orchestra.

The orchestra continued its string of performances with the Christmas Program in December. Several members also entered the DISD and UIL Solo/Ensemble contests. The orchestra concluded the year by showing their talents in the DISD and UIL Concert/Sightreading Contests.

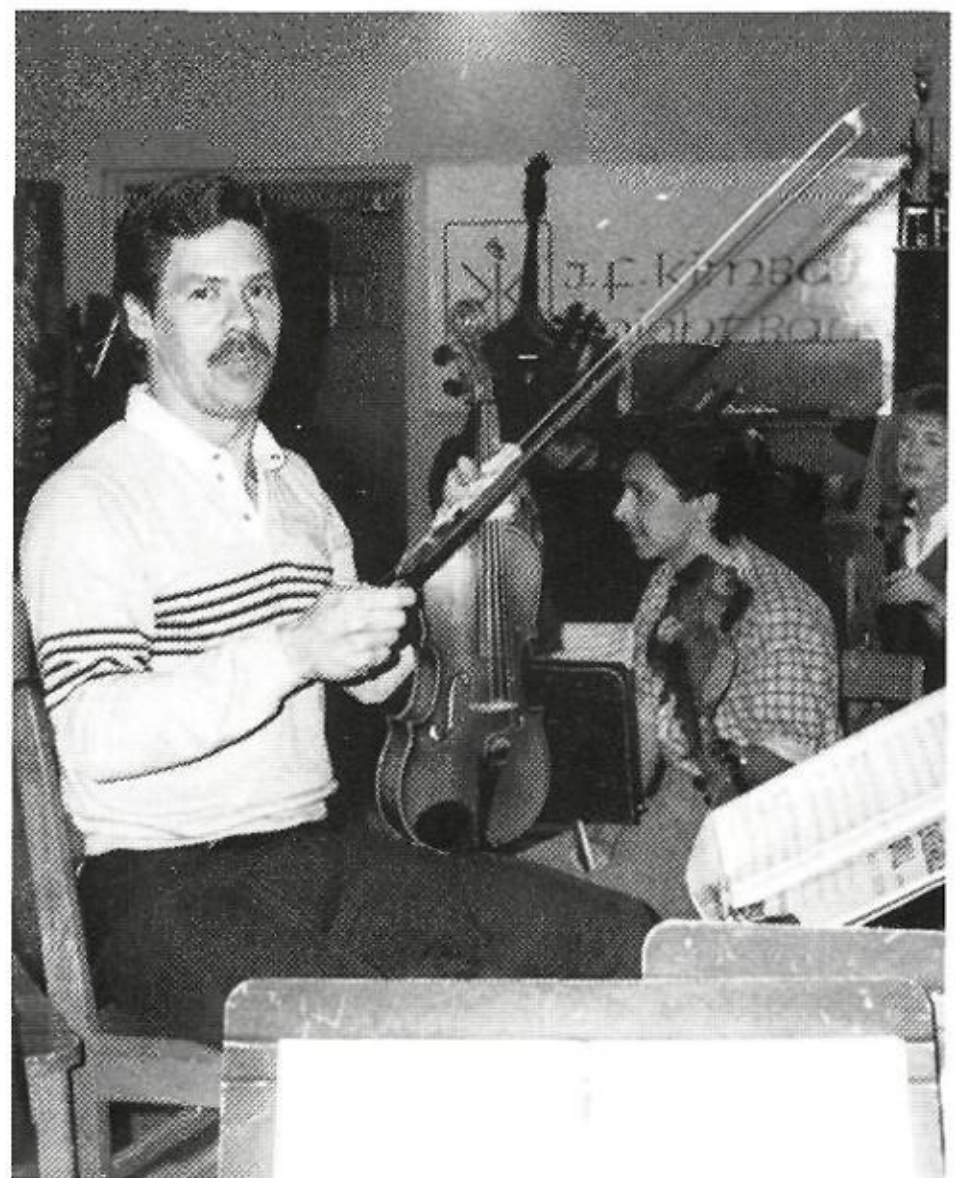

"The orchestra has been performing well this year," commented Mr. Mark Davenport, the orchestra director. "We tried playing harder pieces and with all of the practice, the orchestra kept up its high standards of playing traditional classical music, in the Kimball 'classic style'."

Excalibur staff works on "a classic"

The Excalibur staff put forth its best efforts in creating this year's Excalibur.

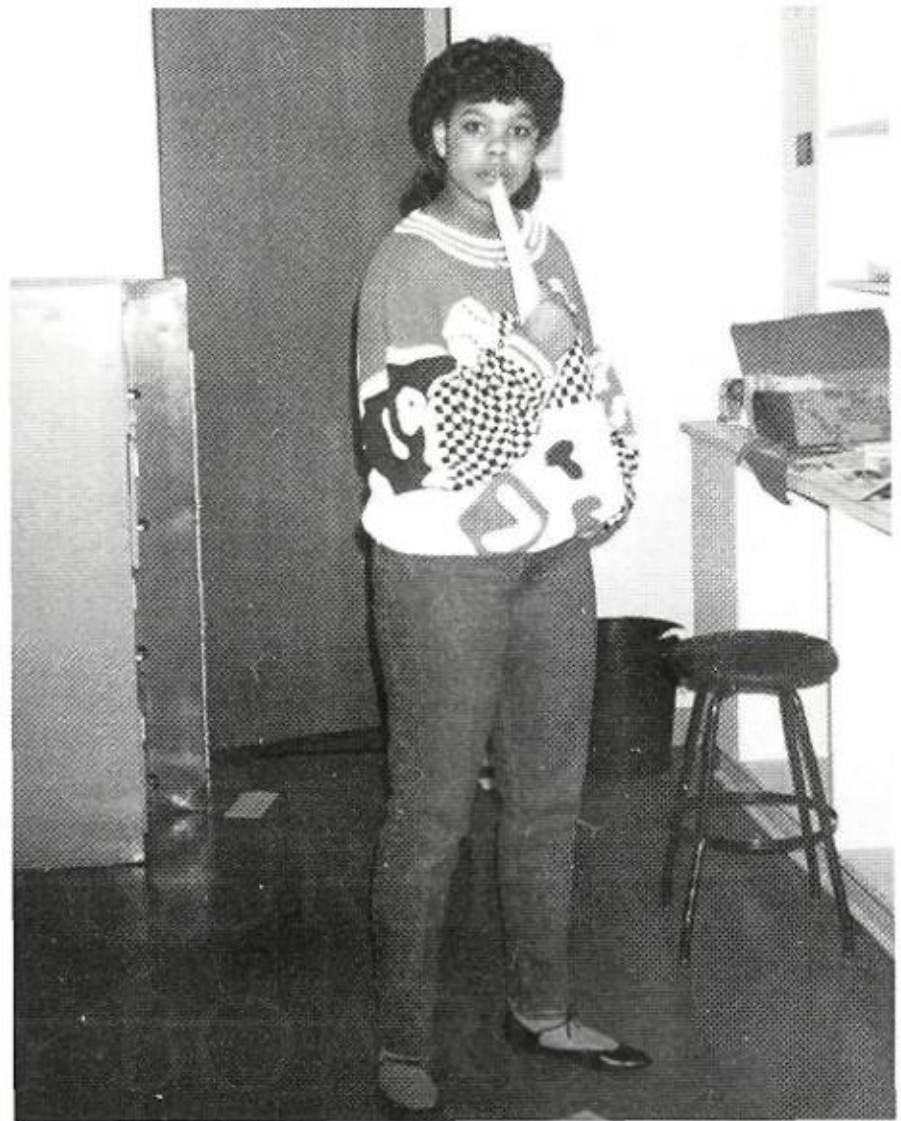

By starting early, successful ad sales provided the money to get started and the staff was put to work. This year's staff was less than half the size of last year's staff which made everyone work harder and the results show.

By working long hours in order to meet publication deadlines, the staff really proved its dedication.

The newly designed cover is completely different from past covers, thus breaking old traditions but still creating a new tradition to exhibit the true "classic style" of Kimball.

With everyone working together, the staff produced one of the most memorable Excaliburs to date.

Mrs. Washington, the Excalibur sponsor, shared her thoughts on the Excalibur and its staff by saying, "We're working to produce a quality yearbook and not a carbon copy of books past. We are faced with the same problems that seem to be facing many other schools and they are low sales and not enough dollars, but in the classic tradition of Kimball, we still strive for the best. We take what we have and make the best of it."

The National Honor Society is one of the most respected organizations at Kimball. It is composed of students who demonstrate the qualities of scholarship, service, leadership, and high moral character. It is both an honor and a responsibility to be a member of the NHS.

This year, the NHS participated in various activities. They raised money by grading papers and raking leaves for the Kimball faculty as well as sold candy after school. They used this money for a service project to help handicapped children.

They also distributed "good luck" pencils to the teachers for the TECAT. As part of a new award sponsored by former Congressman Jim Collins, NHS members selected the Teacher of the Year who was presented at the Teachers' Awards Assembly at the end of the year.

French Club discovers a different culture

The French Club is an organization designed to promote interest and friendship among students taking French. Through activities such as the French luncheon and writing to pen pals, the French students get to know one another better and make new friends around the world.

The French National Honor Society honors students who have taken French and maintained an A-average. They participate in such activities as writing to pen pals and enjoying French food at French restaurants.

FTA has a year of highlights

The year was full of highlights for the Future Teachers of America. Among the things that the organization is most proud of is having Kimberlyn Price elected to a district office. She was elected financial secretary.

Members also attended the state convention in Dallas.

Mrs. Rai Malone is FTA sponsor. She is assisted by Ms. Ruby Hodges.

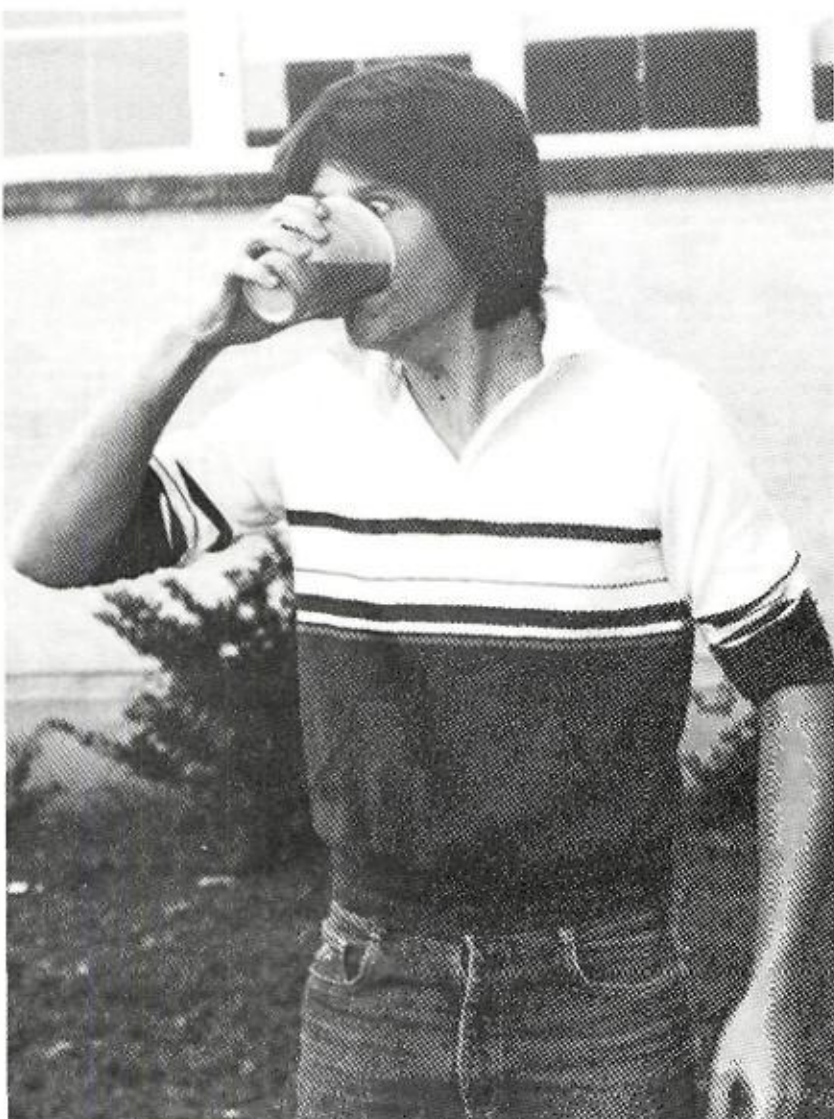

Although demands of the members' schedules made it difficult to do some of the activities that had been done previously, Mrs. Malone said the group had a busy year and looks forward to doing even more next year.

German Club places in Novemberfest

The German Club is an organization for those students who are taking or have taken German.

It is designed to help enhance what is taught in the classroom through a variety of activities.

One of the major activities of the year involved participating in the annual Novemberfest competition. Here, the members participated in various activities such as academic and sport competitions.

A major attraction of Novemberfest was the root beer guzzling competition. Students competed by drinking 16 ounces of root beer as quickly as possible. Then they turned the glass upsid-down on top of their heads in order to show that all of the root beer was, in fact, consumed.

The soccer team made a valiant effort, beating the first opponent despite being forced to compete with only nine players.

Two students did, in fact, place in several events. Jason Howard won second place in the root beer guzzling competition. Christina Stark placed fifth in the culture and grammar competitions and placed second in the vocabulary competition.

Frau Hankins was pleased with all of the members who participated in the event. She is already looking forward to next year and hopes that soccer players will study German. She summed up the entire event with the comment, "Maybe next year, Kai."

ROTC strives for the best

The ROTC (Reserve Officers Training Corps) is an organization that strives to train the leaders of tomorrow. The ROTC strives to teach leadership, citizenship, and responsibility.

Being a member of the ROTC enables a student to develop in various areas. It teaches self-discipline and control as well as builds physical condition. Qualities of pride and appreciation for the school, community, and country are also respected by the ROTC.

The ROTC department received numerous awards this year. They won first place in the Drill Team and Drill Team Commander and Individual Drill competitions at Wichita Falls. They also won second place in the Fancy Drill competition.

They also received a proclamation by the DISD School Board for outstanding performance of a drill team.

Overall, the ROTC does much to enhance Kimball. Everyone respects the ROTC and its purpose.

Col. White is very proud of the ROTC members. When asked about his opinion on the ROTC department, Col. White responded, "Outstanding. The best department in Kimball with the greatest value for students who want to develop leadership ability."

El Sol lends a hand to the needy

El Sol has continued to be one of the most active organizations at Kimball.

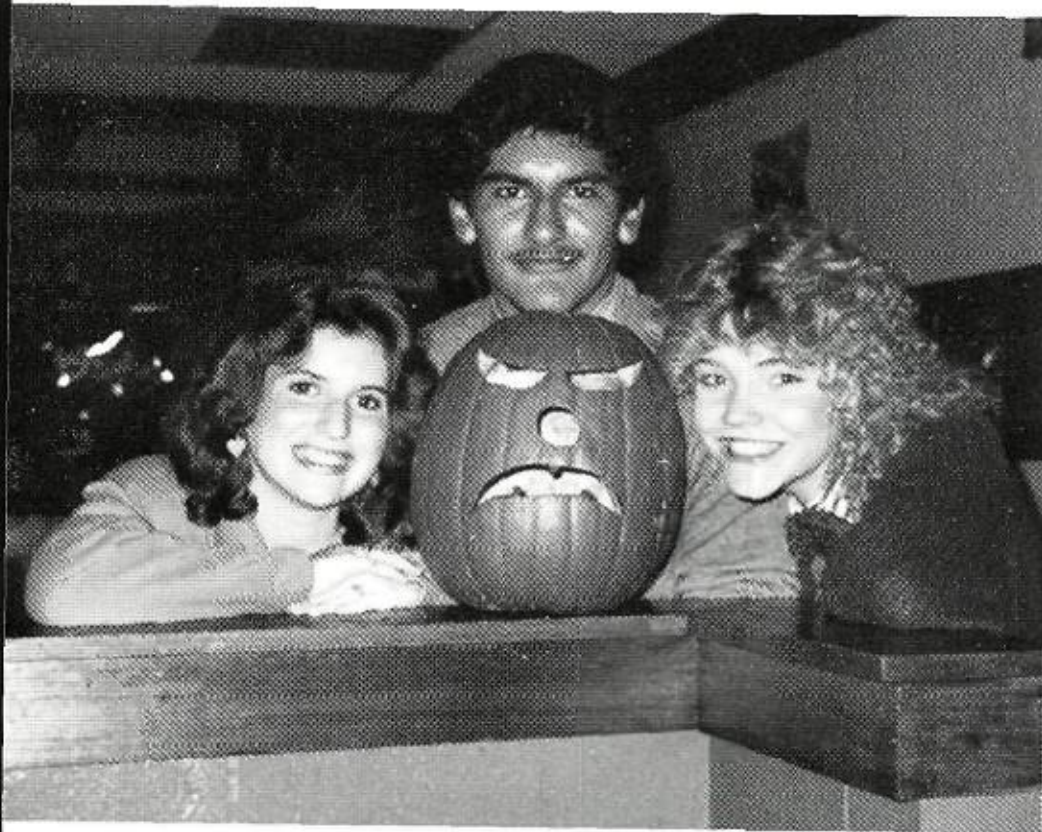

By holding bake sales and the popular "Dorito Day" for new members, El Sol was able to raise money for the earthquake victims in Mexico as well as for their own activities. One of the organization's major activities involves donating money to handicapped children.

At the beginning of the year, El Sol held its annual initiation at Benevides Restaurant. The students enjoyed an authentic Mexican dinner and received awards in such categories as most active member and member with the most merits.

Continuing a long-standing tradition, the members of El Sol ended their eventful year with a trip to the annual convention held in San Antonio.

"El Sol becomes a better club every year," said Ms. Suzanna Connally, El Sol sponsor. "The leadership is excellent and the members are very congenial. They work for good causes to better relations with Latin America and they have good times socially."

HERO

HERO (Home Economics Related Occupations) is an organization which helps students to develop leadership skills through participation in school and community activities.

HERO is an integral part of the total HECE program. Members prepared food to bring to the class and also took a field trip to Loew's Anatole Hotel to survey the different food service facilities.

Because many of the students work, HERO members make the most of their time in the classroom to gain maximum experience.

FHA is more than "Homemaking"

Future Homemakers of America (FHA) gives students practical experience in areas such as sewing and cooking.

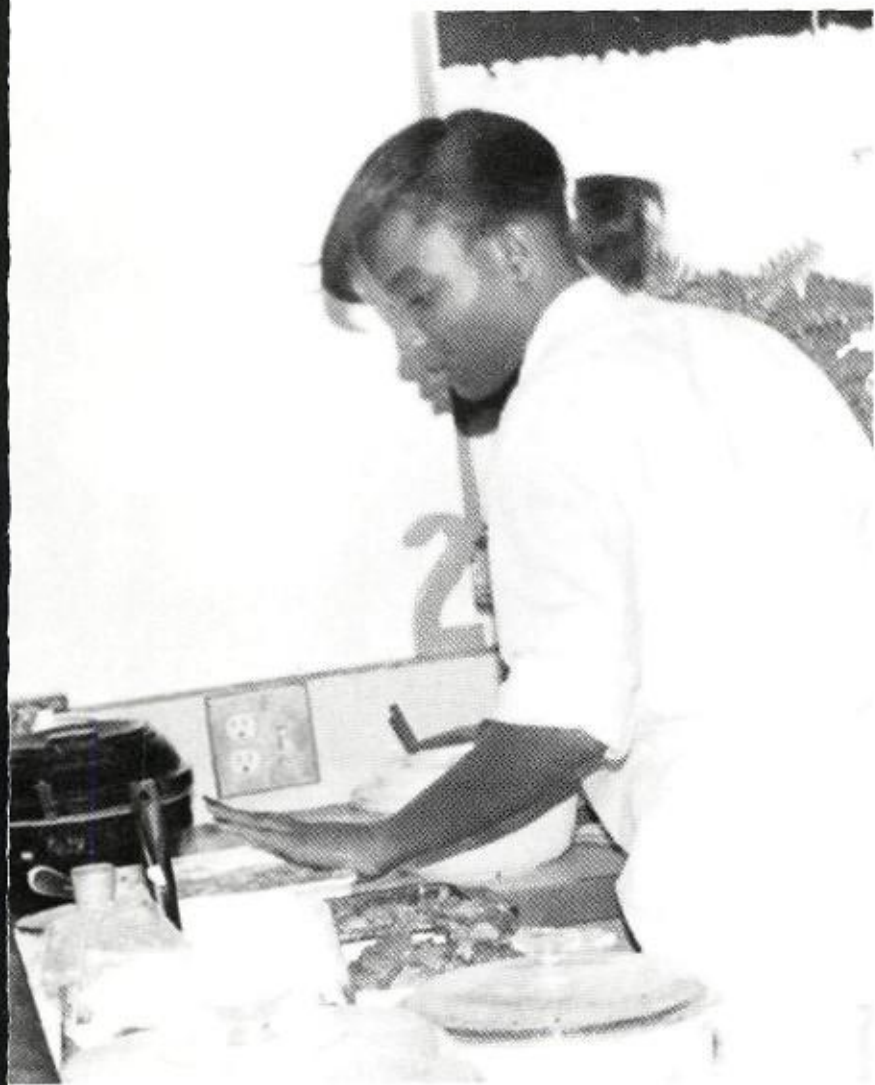

One of the highlights of the year was the reception for parents that FHA sponsored.

The reception gave parents the opportunity to visit the school, talk with teachers, and get a first-hand overview of the home economics department.

Classroom activities included a variety of food preparation projects, sewing and family management.

In these changing times, young men have discovered that FHA is not for "ladies only."

'KNIGHT LIFE' COMES TO LIFE

The reemergence of Knight Life, Kimball's newspaper, was another part of Kimball's traditional "classic style."

Being inactive for about three years, many thought the Knight Life would never return, but this year, it made a successful comeback.

With several editions planned, the new staff had to learn the procedures for creating a high school newspaper. Then they had to work hard in getting interviews, writing articles, and laying out the paper for publication.

The first edition, the Homecoming edition, gave the students a taste of what the newspaper is composed of.

A variety of activities were covered in Knight Life this year. News, sports, editorials, and features were just a part of the make-up of the Kimball newspaper.

Through the combined efforts of a small staff, the production of Knight Life provided an extra informative publication which made the readers aware of activities and important events concerning Kimball.

"We started on ground level and began a building process that's going to take several years to build the kind of publication we want," commented Mrs. Washington, the Knight Life sponsor, when asked for her thoughts about the new Knight Life. "As students get more experience, the product will improve. Besides a novice staff, we had the difficult task of selling ads to finance our project. I was encouraged when we put out one edition, delighted with two, and ecstatic over the others."

Speech and Debate Club enjoys first year

The Speech and Debate Club is an organization that has resurfaced after a long absence. It is an organization designed for students who enjoy public speaking.

The members participated in competitions in which they recited excerpts from poetry and prose selections as well as gave speeches of their own.

Another activity that the students were involved with was the debating program. These students entered competitions in which each team debated over various topics.

Although the members of this organization were beginners and entered competitions mainly to observe how the competitions are organized, some of the members did, in fact, reach the semifinals.

Ms. Jackie Love, the director of this new club is also enjoying her first year as a teacher at Kimball.

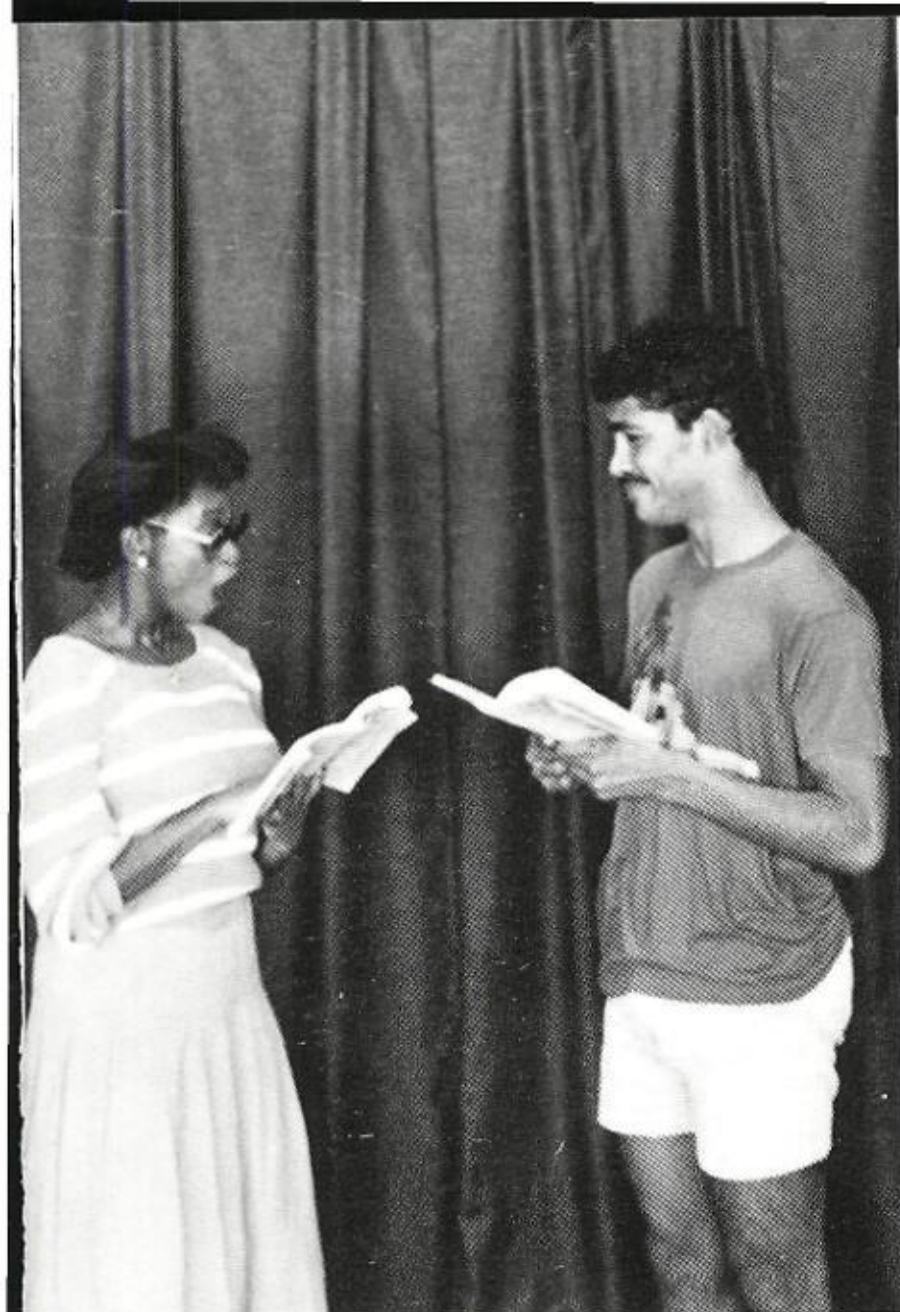

"I enjoy being both a teacher and an organization sponsor," replied Ms. Love when asked for her opinion on the year and the Speech and Debate Club as a whole. "The club allows me to work with these students on a more personal level. It gives me the opportunity to help them outside of class. The Speech and Debate Club will help these students to become better speakers, and I hope enrollment in the speech classes and membership in the club will increase next year."

Sports

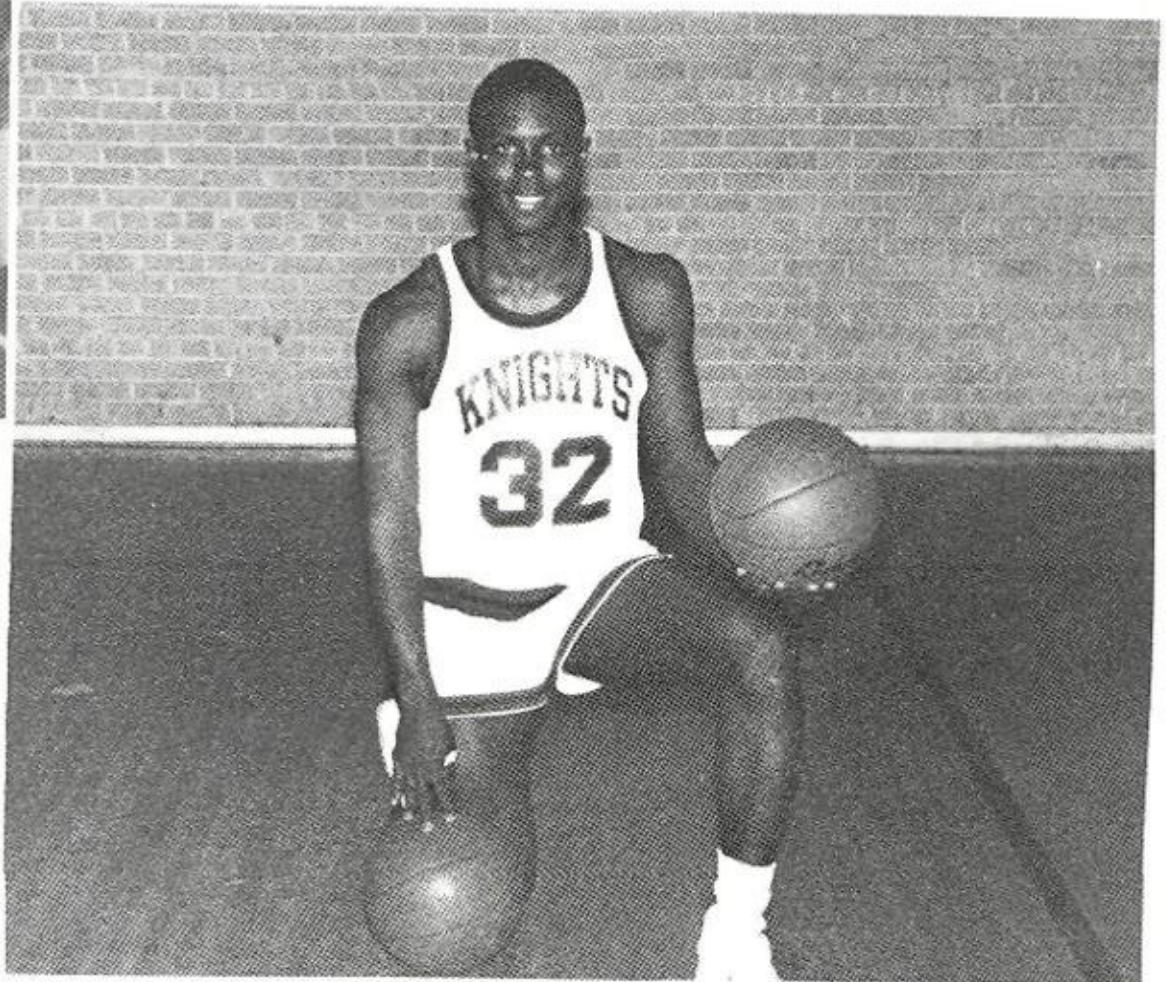

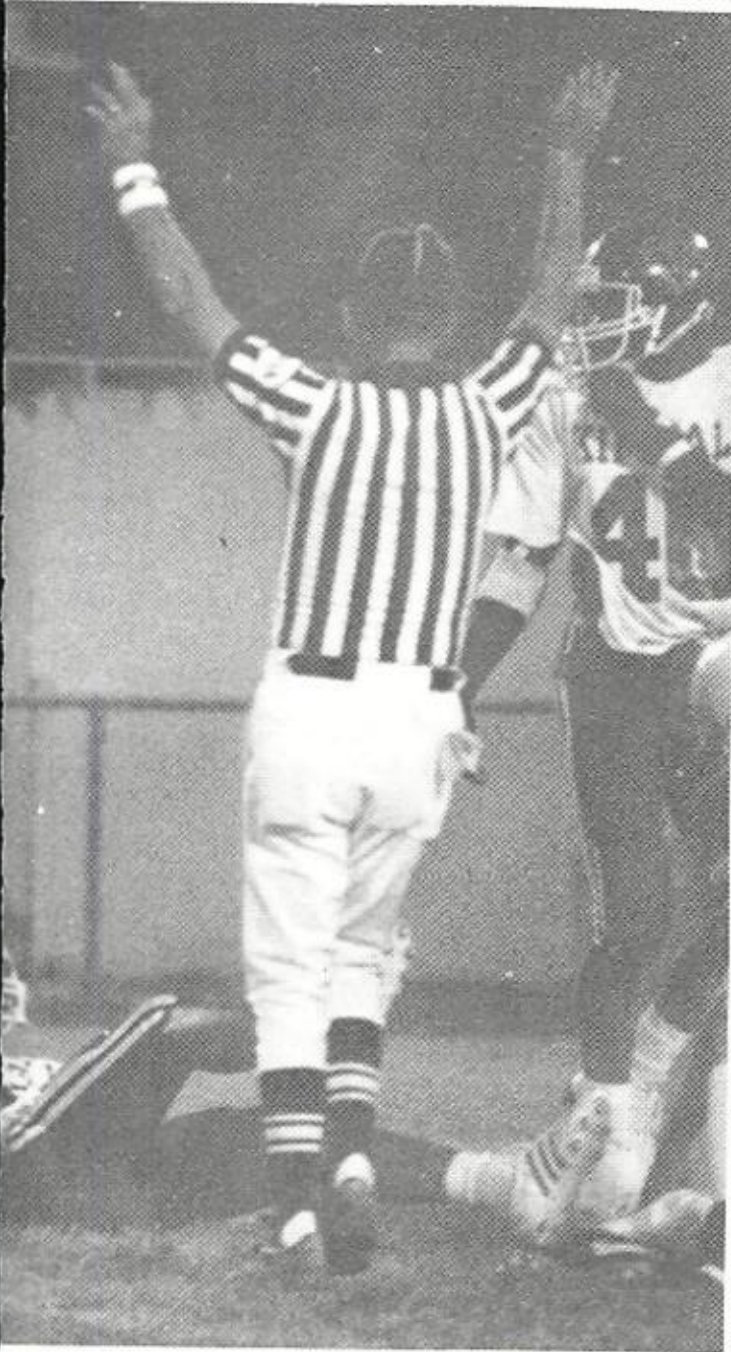

Knights athletes, proved themselves again with another successful year. The football team showed its classical Kimball tradition of winning the district title and advancing to the playoffs.

Whether dribbling a ball down the basketball court, kicking on the soccer field, hitting a homerun, or scoring an ace, the athletes exhibited distinct mastery of their game techniques.

The volleyball team had an eventful year as well as the swimmers. The cross country and track runners ran away with several victories.

Throughout the year each Kimball athlete was a winner!

Knights have a winning attitude

Once again, the Kimball Varsity Football team showed excellence on the field by winning the district championship.

The Knights ended the year with a commendable record of seven wins, three losses, and one tied game against Carter.

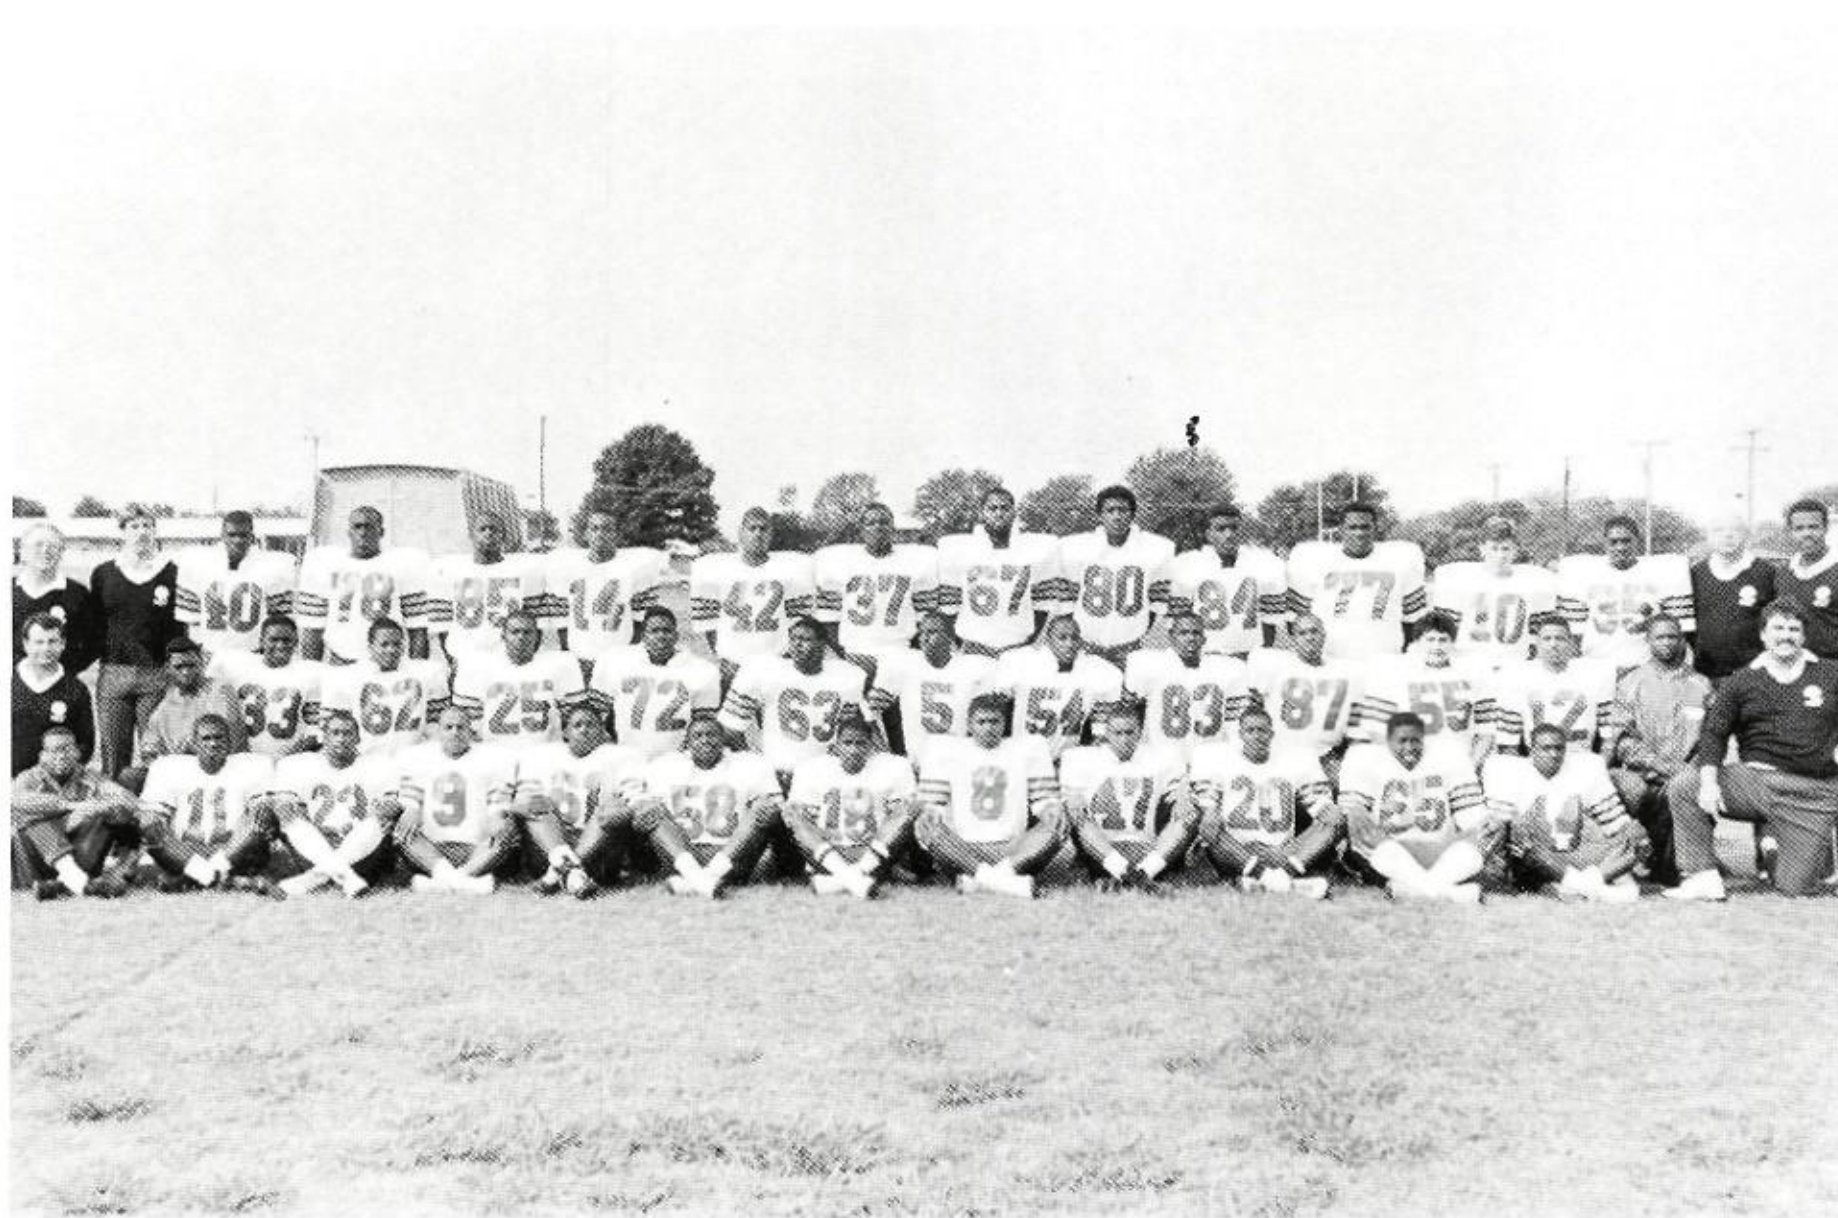

By practicing long hours in the summer and after school, the Knights were ready to begin the year with a victory. Their first victory against Jesuit was the start of a string of victories for the Knights.

The outstanding efforts contributed by all of the players and the strong support from the fans helped the Knights come away with the district title.

Because of their consistency on the field, several players were selected to the 11-A AAAA All-District Team. Players selected to the All-District team on offense were Marcus Blackburn, Alton Gillis, Teddy Potts, Michael Fulbright, Michael Blackburn, Kevin Wilson, and Craig Neal. The defensive team consisted of Sam Widemon, Chris Thomas, Anthony Partida, Rene Watson, Kevin Wilson, Craig Neal, Kerry Harper, and Anthony Harper.

Anthony Harper was also selected to the All Metro Team.

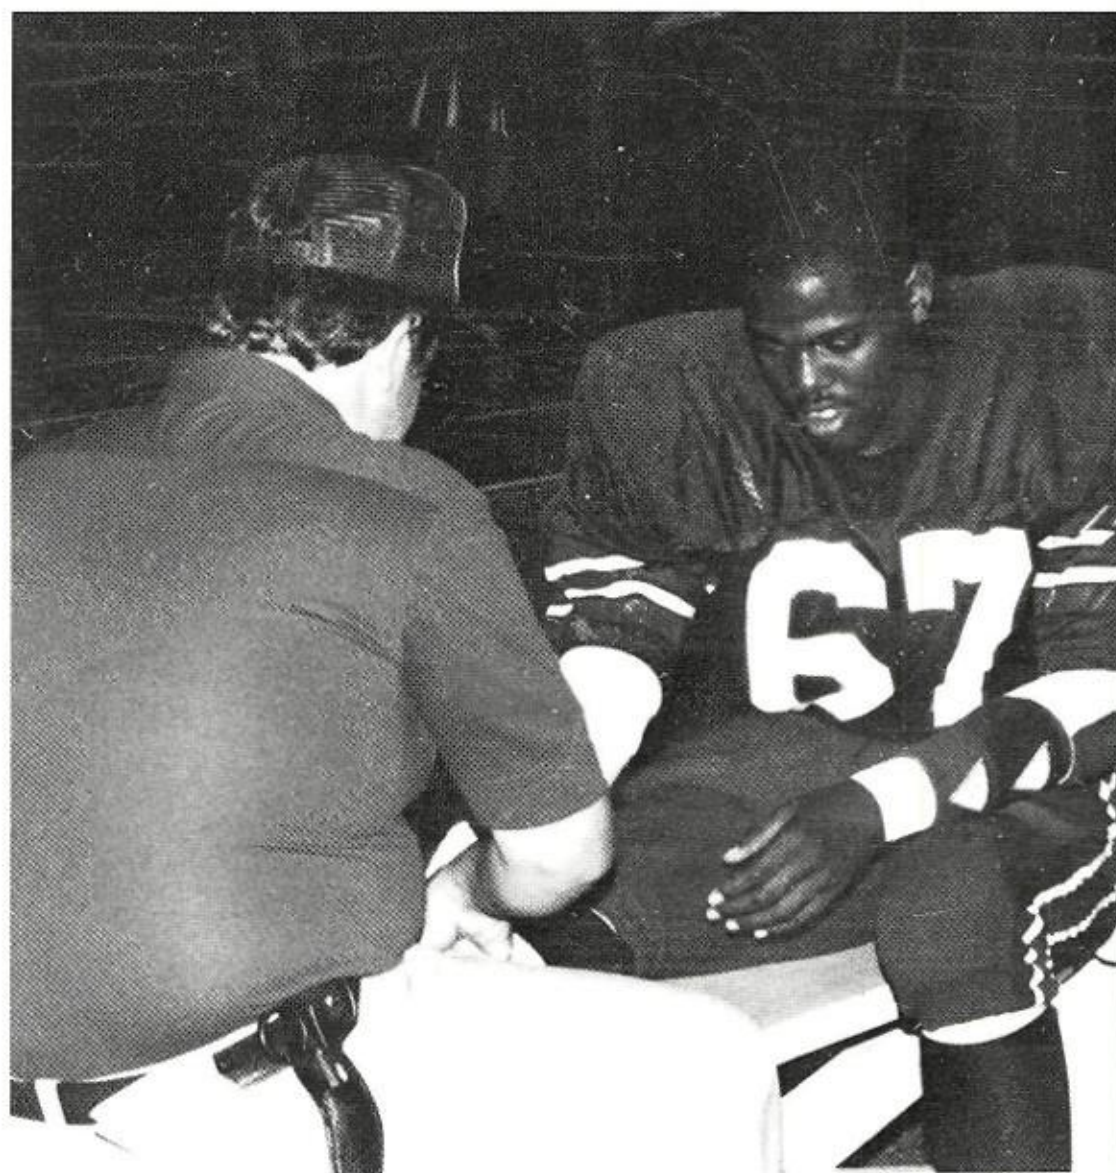

Coach Hitchcock was pleased with the outcome of the 1985-86 season. "The guys played well," commented Coach Hitchcock. "This enabled us to win or tie for the district championship four times in the last six years. This is one of the best records in the city. It's a compliment to the Varsity players and to the program itself."

JV Wins district title

The Junior Varsity football team clenched its seventh straight district championship by remaining undefeated in ten games.

During the entire season, the JV Knights allowed their opponents only 19 points. Out of the ten season games, seven were shut-outs.

Although all of the games were a challenge, the highlight of the season was a 7 to 6 victory over Skyline. Skyline became a rival team for the JV players when they became the only team to defeat the Kimball JV team last year.

The winning performances on the field this year were a result of the total cooperation and commitment of the entire JV team and its coaching staff. Several players were recognized by Coach Melvin Lark as exhibiting considerable efforts in helping to achieve the championship title. The players were: Bruce Gamble, Andre Phillips, John Ross, Travis Reed, and Micah Abram.

When Coach Lark was asked for his opinion concerning the JV football team, he replied, "They displayed very fine character and team unity throughout the ten game schedule . . . I am very proud of this team. As it has been in the past, next year's JV team will be challenged to uphold the tradition of winning the district championship."

Freshman Knights gain football experience

The 1985-86 Freshman Football team had another action-packed year. With a respectable record of seven wins, two losses, and one tied game, these young Knights gained further experience which will help them as they advance to the JV team next year.

The whole team participated in the season in one way or another. Whether on the field or on the sidelines, the freshman Knights displayed outstanding support for the team.

Coach Gray recognized several players whose efforts on the field helped the Knights throughout the season. These players were: Keith Abney, Jeff Houston, Eric Perry, Steve Brown, Cornelius Gibson, Luis Meyers, and Dyalan Beamon.

Coach Gray was happy about the team's record. "They showed much improvement throughout the season."

Knights became state runners-up

No one believed it would happen, but it did. The Kimball Varsity Basketball team went to the 5-A state tournament. Then to defy the odds even more, the Knights made it to the finals.

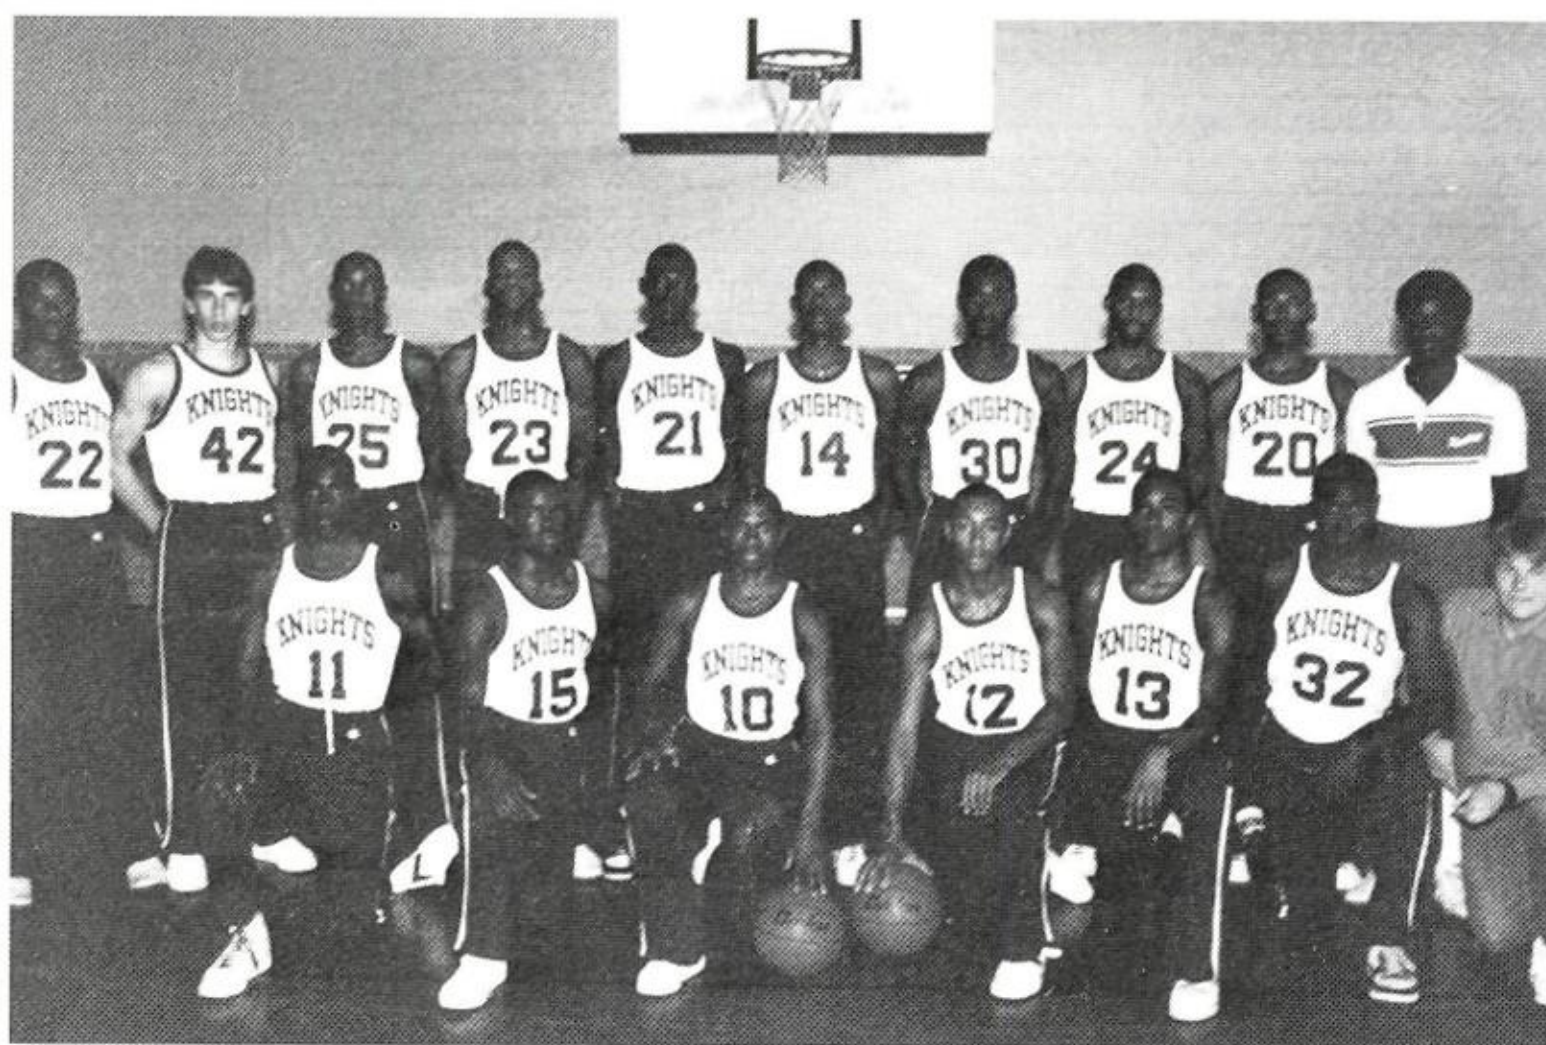

After a close game, the Knights eased past Wheatley of Houston. In the finals, Amarillo narrowly defeated the Knights 63-68.

Going to the state tournament was the climax of a successful year. The team proved that hard work and discipline pays off.

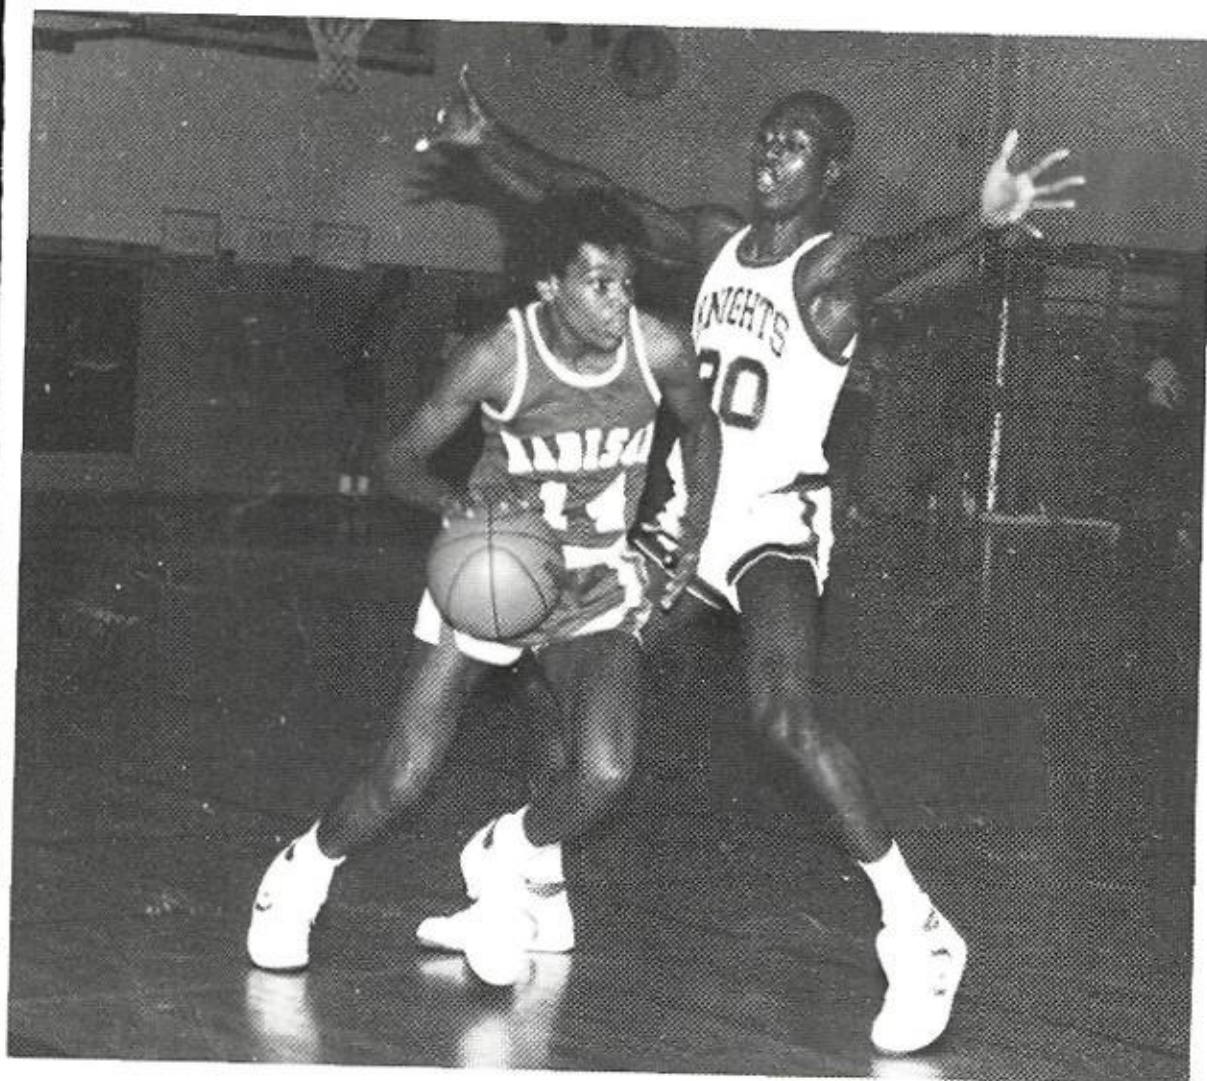

In the regular season, only two teams edged past the Knights. In district play in Waco, Kimball paved its way to state.

Coach Jimmy Tubbs was the nucleus of it all. The Knights pulled together and proved "when the going gets tough, the tough get going."

JV and Freshmen basketball

Junior Varsity

The JV Basketball team had a successful year with an overall record of fifteen wins and three losses and another district title.

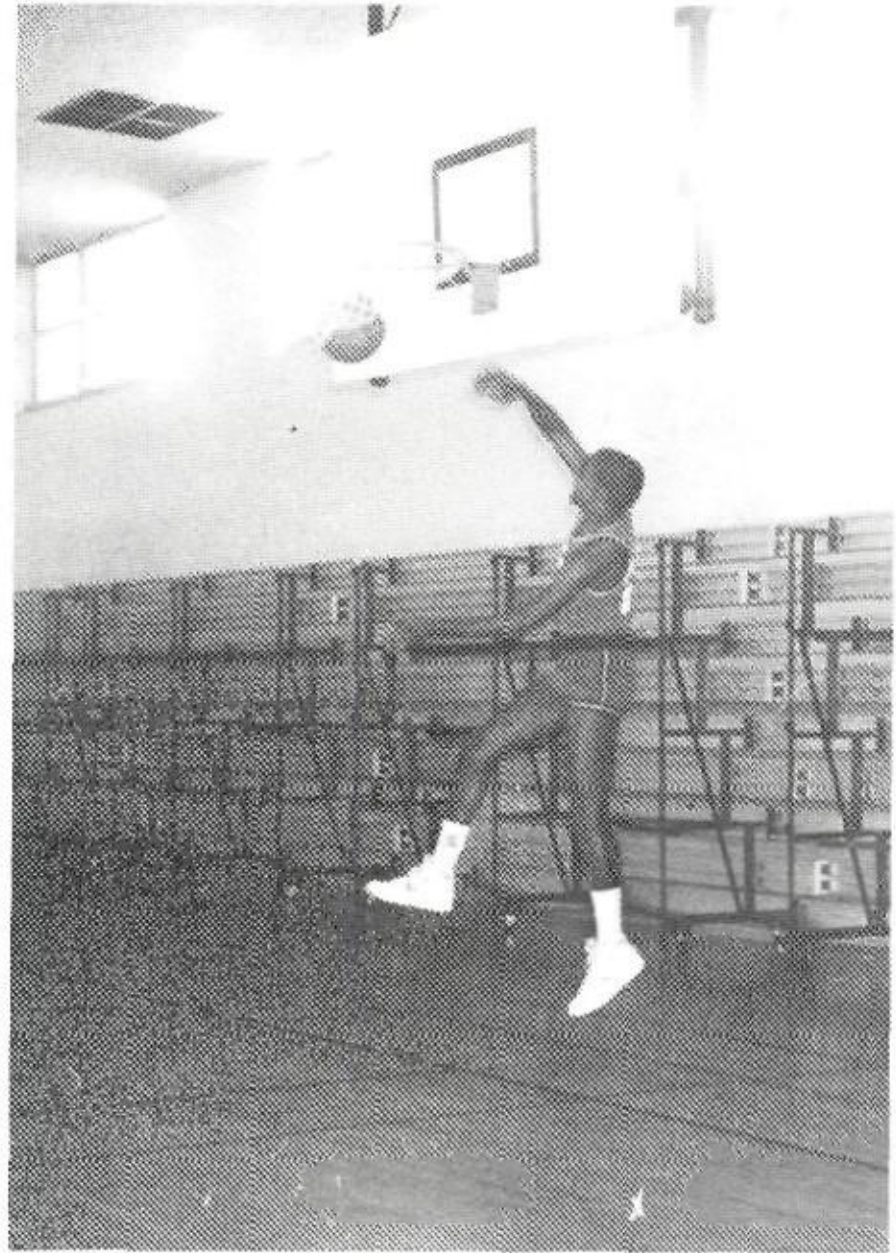

In order to get the most out of practice for this year and in preparation for next year, the JV Knights could often be found practicing after school in one of the gyms. These practice sessions helped the JV throughout the season by allowing them to defeat two of their toughest opponents.

The JV Knights defeated Pinkston twice this year with scores of 74-72 and 78-60. They also defeated rival team Carter by scores of 65-58 and 70-62.

Donnell Cherry, Bobby Hall, Gerald Wright, and John Scott were recognized by Coach Chris Dyer as outstanding players of the year.

Coach Dyer gave his opinion on the team by saying, "This team had a lot of character. They played well together and worked hard to win their district championship. I was very proud of them and their accomplishments."

Freshmen

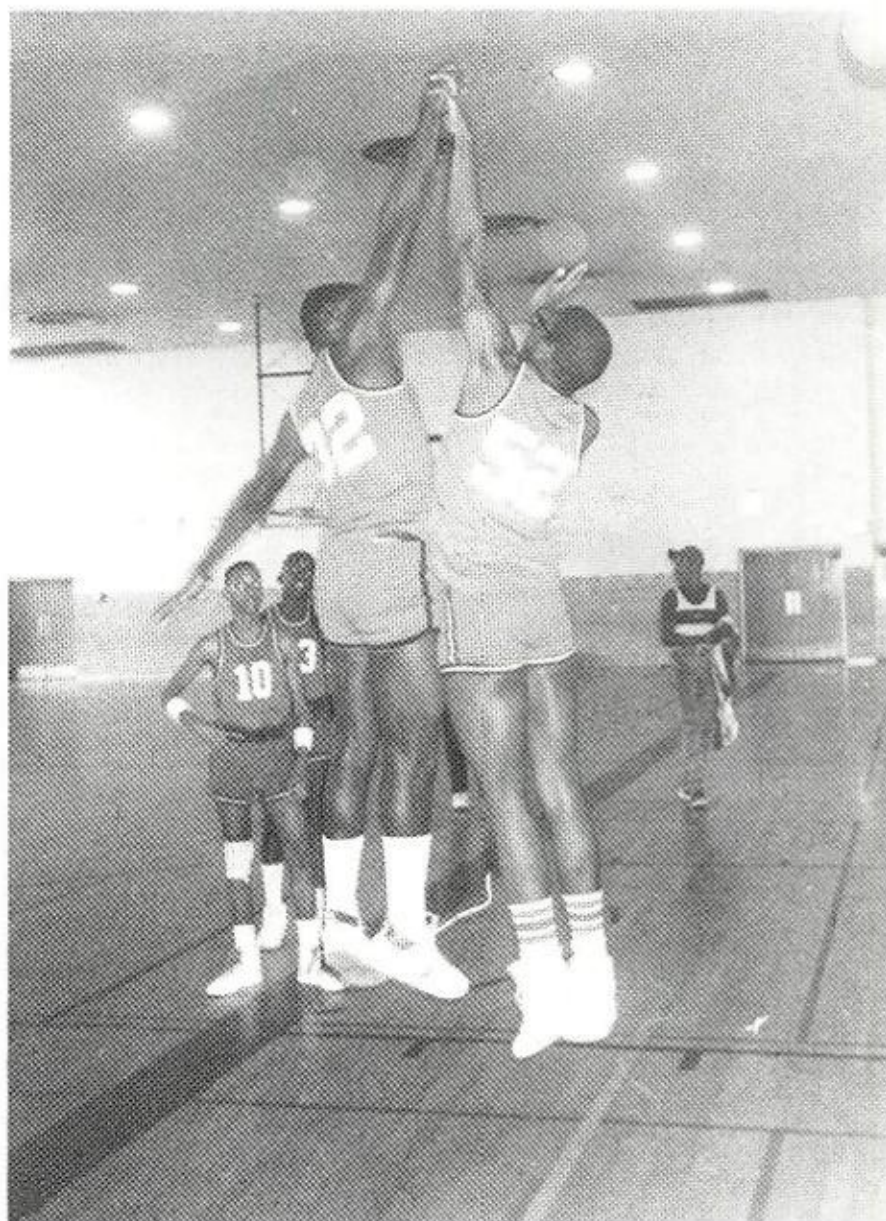

The Freshman Basketball team finished second in district play. The Knights' season ended with an overall record of fourteen wins and four losses.

Throughout the season, the Knights defeated many good teams. This season's wins include a victory over arch rival Carter. In pre-season play, the Knights defeated South Oak Cliff by a score of 49-47. This gave the Knights an extra push to become a better basketball team.

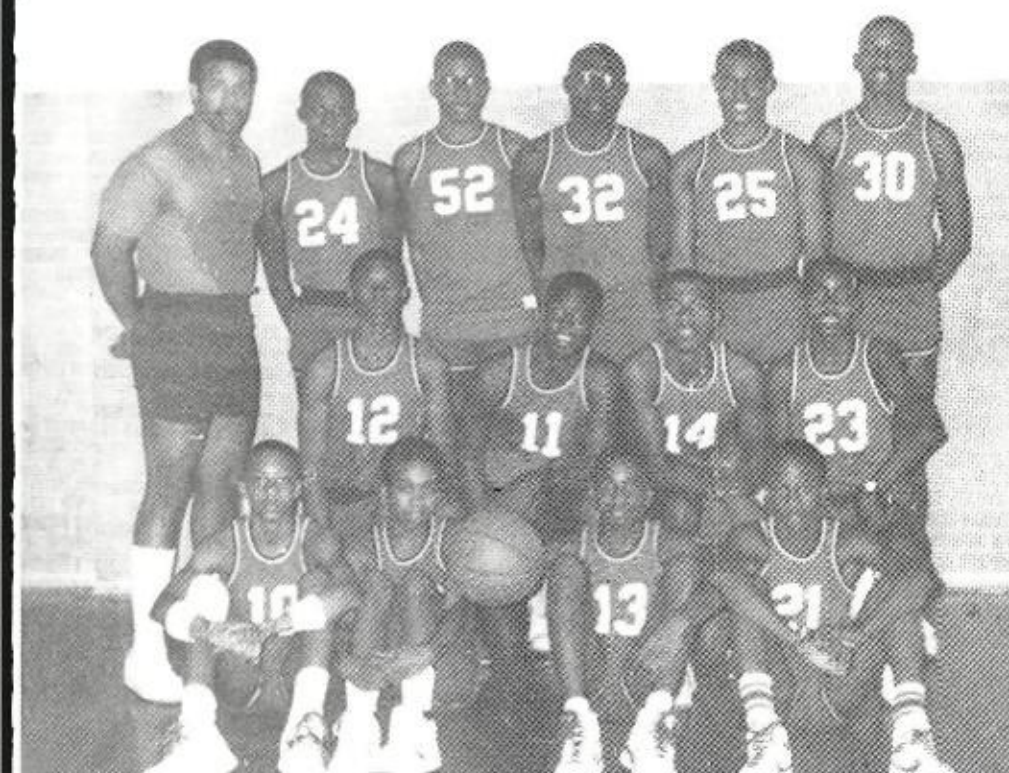

The freshman basketball team had many good players this year. Among those were: Mauria Crain, Samuel Moore, Roy Collier, Dennis Dabney, and Ray Shuford. These players averaged between six and twelve points per game, which is outstanding for freshman players.

Coach Lark was very proud of his team's efforts. "The season began on a sour note with a loss to Spruce. However, through hard work and training, the Knights had a fine winning season."

Varsity girls win district championship

The 1985-86 girls Varsity Basketball team enjoyed an outstanding season by winning the district title.

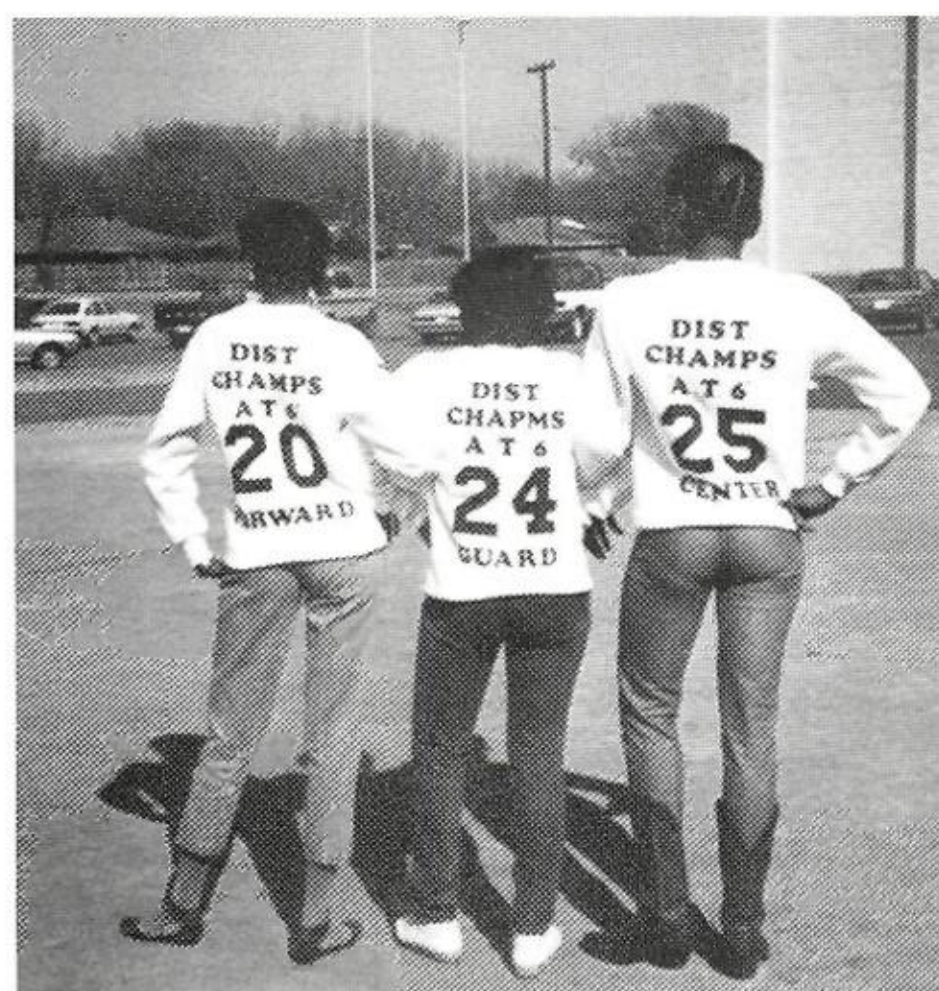

With an overall record of sixteen wins and nine losses, the team should be commended on their winning season.

In district play, the Knights ended the season with an overall record of eight wins and one loss. Although all teams were tough opponents, Carter proved to be the major rival.

Several players received special recognition for the efforts on the court. These players were: Paula Peteet and Charlesa Blake, 1st Team All-District; Bridgette Williams, 2nd Team All-District; Paula Peteet, Player of the Year; and Shetha Cokes, Honorable Mention.

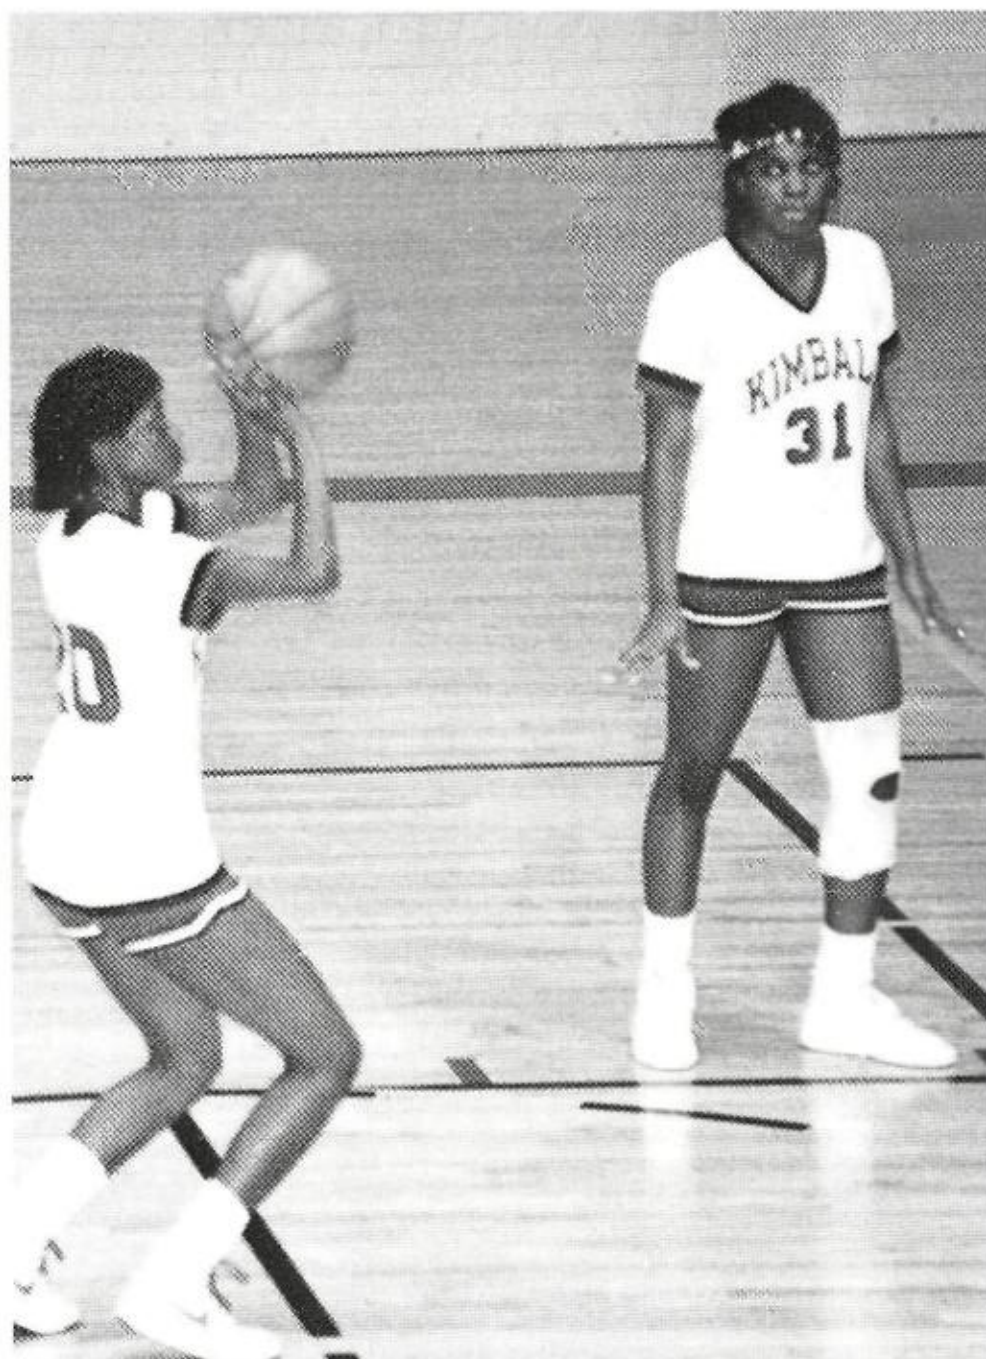

"I am pleased we won district," commented Coach Belinda Whitson, "but I am disappointed about the outcome of the bi-district playoffs."

JV girls go undefeated in district play

As the season progressed, so did the anticipation that this year's JV team would be successful.

With an overall record of fifteen wins and seven losses, this young JV team displayed tremendous talent on the court.

Coach Whitson was proud of the entire team but recognized three outstanding players.

They were: Darlene Moore, Stacie Sims, and Sonja Roberson.

"The JV girls played well," Coach Whitson said. "I am proud they went undefeated in district play. Next year will be a building year. They will be young and have a lot to learn."

Volleyball teams show their best

For the third year in a row, the girls Varsity Volleyball team advanced to the playoffs. With an overall of 15-8, the Knights were runners-up in district play.

Led by captain Paula Peteet, the team played well and advanced to the playoffs against Pearce.

Three players were recognized as outstanding players for the year. They were: Paula Peteet 1st Team All-District, Jarnetha Jackson 2nd Team All-District, and Nametrice Lampkin Honorable Mention.

Likewise, the JV Volleyball team was runner-up in its district.

Under the leadership of Captains Tiffany Stevens and Rhonda Hamilton, the JV girls put forth their best efforts to achieve a respected second place overall.

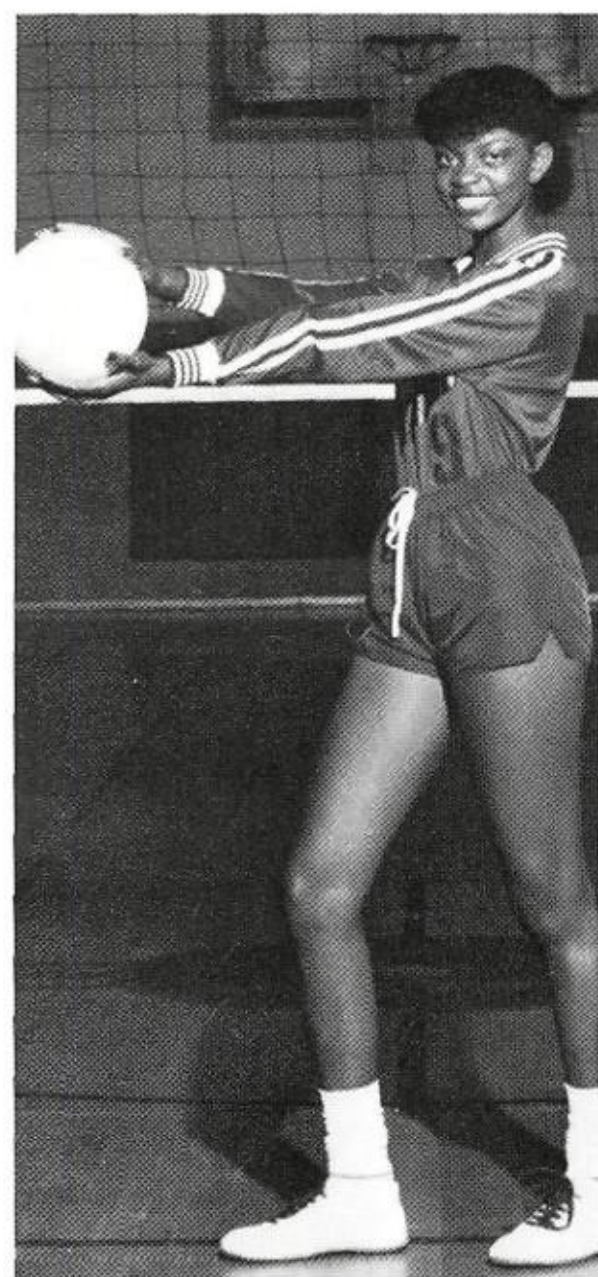

Rhonda Hamilton and Yolanda Perry, two major reasons for the girls' success, helped the team maintain its determination to finish second.

Coach Whitson summed up the entire volleyball teams' year with the comment, "The Varsity team should have showed a better performance. The team did well other than the fact we should have been first in district play. We started off to a good start and finished poorly. JV started out strong but grades hurt us in the end."

Girls soccer kicks into action

The girls soccer team continued their tradition in excellence this year.

The Knights ended their year with an overall record of six wins and four losses.

The major rival teams of the year were Sunset and Adamson.

Throughout the season, all of the girls helped to achieve the results of the season. Kristi Whitus and Denise Pearson were recognized by Coach Gail Runyon as being major contributors to the team.

Boys Soccer team makes playoffs

The boys soccer team had a great season and ended the year as runners-up in district play. After advancing to the playoffs, the Knights were defeated by W. T. White.

Afternoon practice sessions began shortly after school started. This enabled the Knights to gain more experience in order to prepare for the season.

Although the team brought back some of its veteran players, several new players were recruited. These new members will be the backbone of the team next year.

All of the members played an important part in competing against such teams as Sunset. Coach Hunter recognized several players who helped the team throughout the season. They were: Paul Hammon, Tara Payton, Doug Woodward, Gus Garrezales, Tony Gutierrez, Corey Fuller, Johnny Martinez, Ricky Longoria, Neil Smith, and Shannon Storey.

"We have the material to be good," commented Coach Hunter, "but, unfortunately, we ran into the 'no pass, no play' rule."

Swimmers splash for a good year

The 1985-86 swim team enjoyed another great year. The team finished the season with an overall record of five wins and three losses which gave them third place in district.

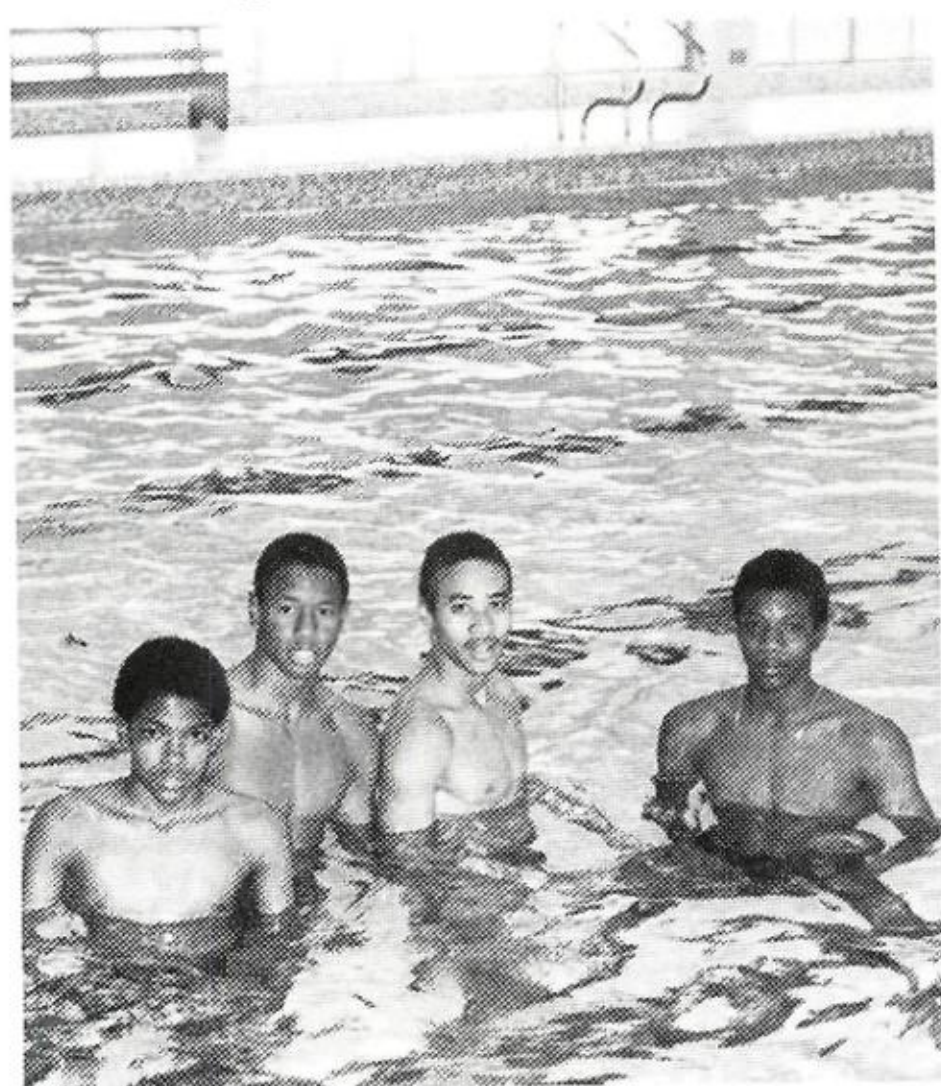

The swim team's toughest competition this year came from W. T. White and Thomas Jefferson high schools.

Returning swimmers who were a major part of the outcome of the season were Joe Bradish and Mark McManus.

Mark McManus won first place in the 50 yd. and 100 yd. free relay and second place in the 400 yd. free relay. Joe Bradish swam away with second place in the 400 yd. free relay, third in the 200 yd. freestyle, and fourth in the 100 yd. free relay.

Track Team Runs and Jumps to Victory

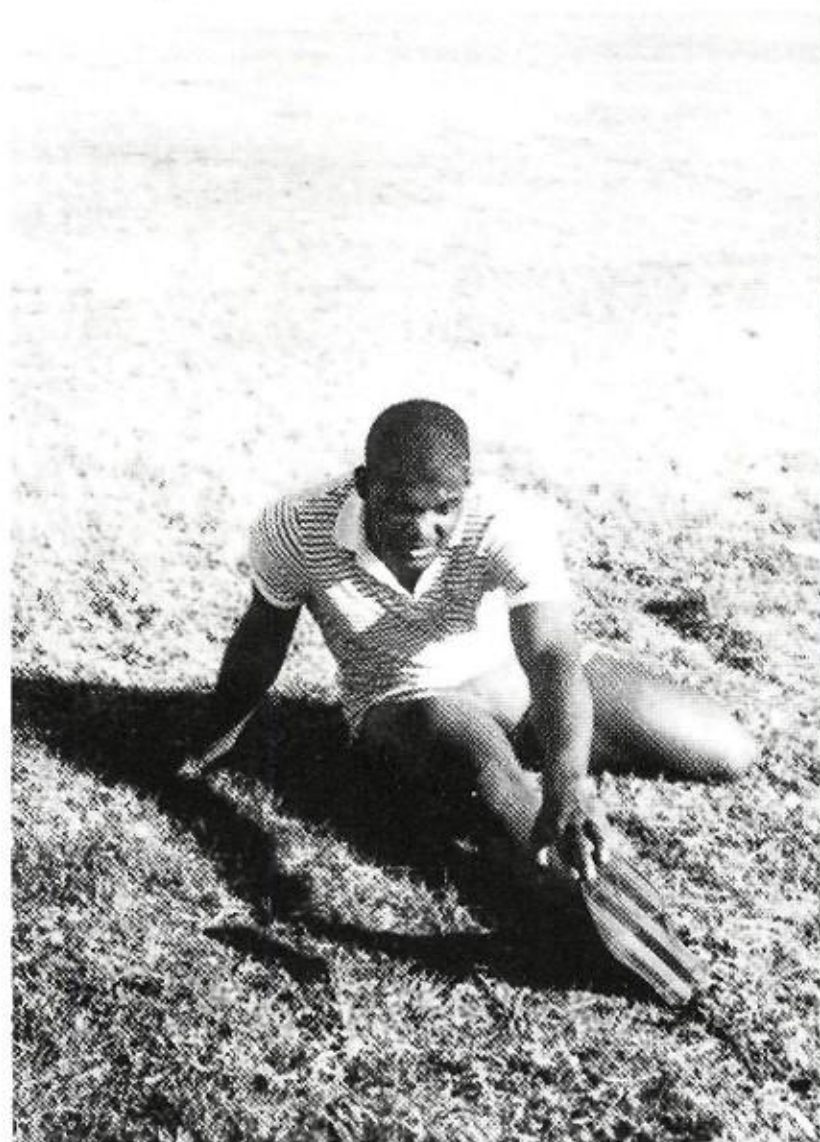

The 1985-86 boys' track team raced through another eventful year. The Knights participated in various events both as a team and individually.

Through practice and rigorous training, the Knights were able to place in many of the track meets throughout the year.

Several members of the team showed outstanding abilities in the track and field events. They were: Sam Widemon — hurdles, Micah Abram — pole vault, Maurea Crain — shot put and discus, and Keven Fegans and Kenneth Rose — 800m. run.

The boys' track team was under the leadership of Coach Rachel. Through his guidance and discipline, the Knights were able to enjoy another successful year.

Girls' track overcomes obstacles for fine year

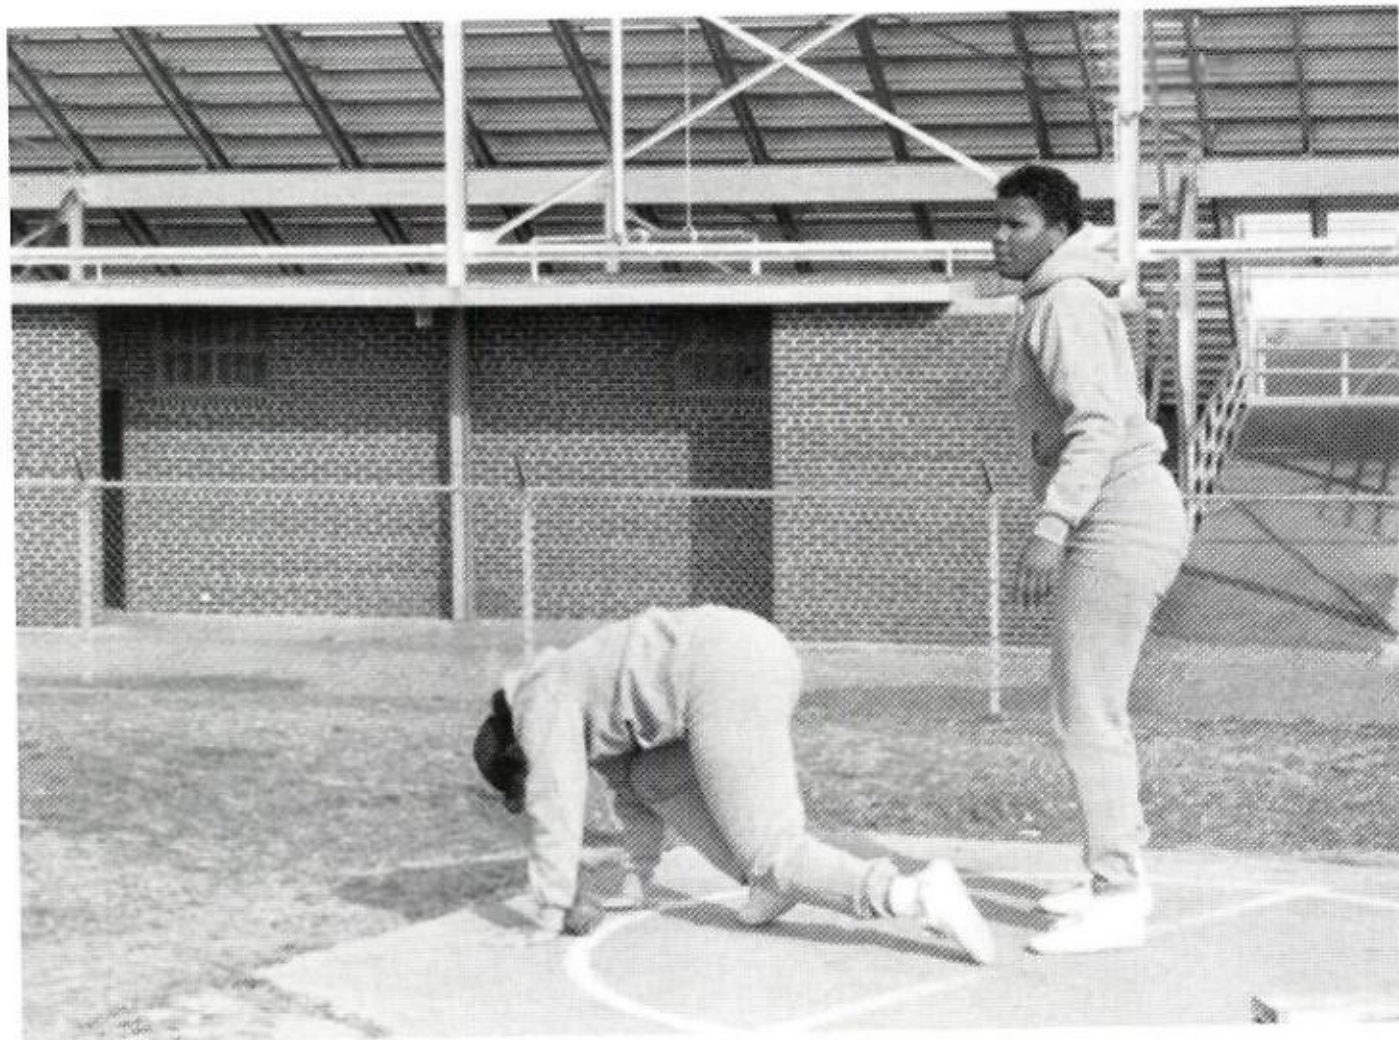

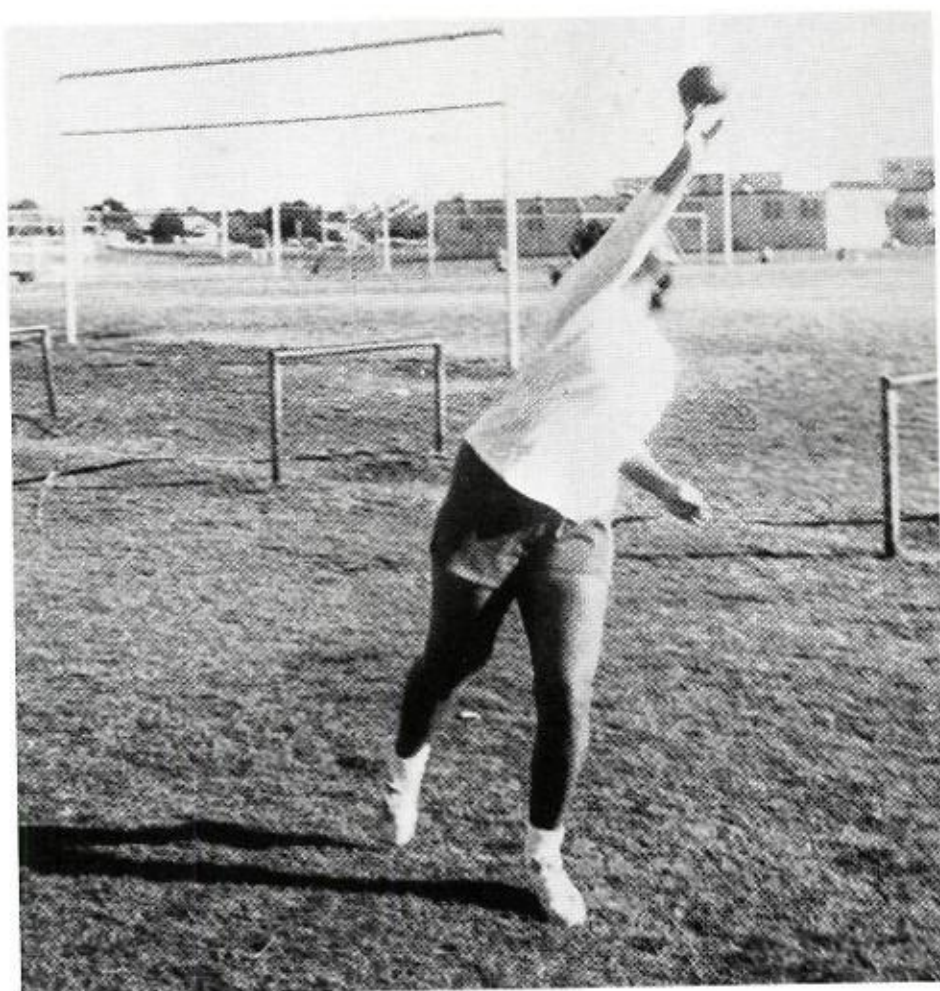

The girls' track team consisted of a group of especially athletic girls. Although the team did not place well as a team, many girls exhibited their talents in individual competitions.

Four girls won first place in their competitions. They were: Darlene Moore — 800 m. dash; Tez Wesley — 100 m. dash; Michelle Richard — 200 m. dash; and Paula Peteet — 100 m. hurdles.

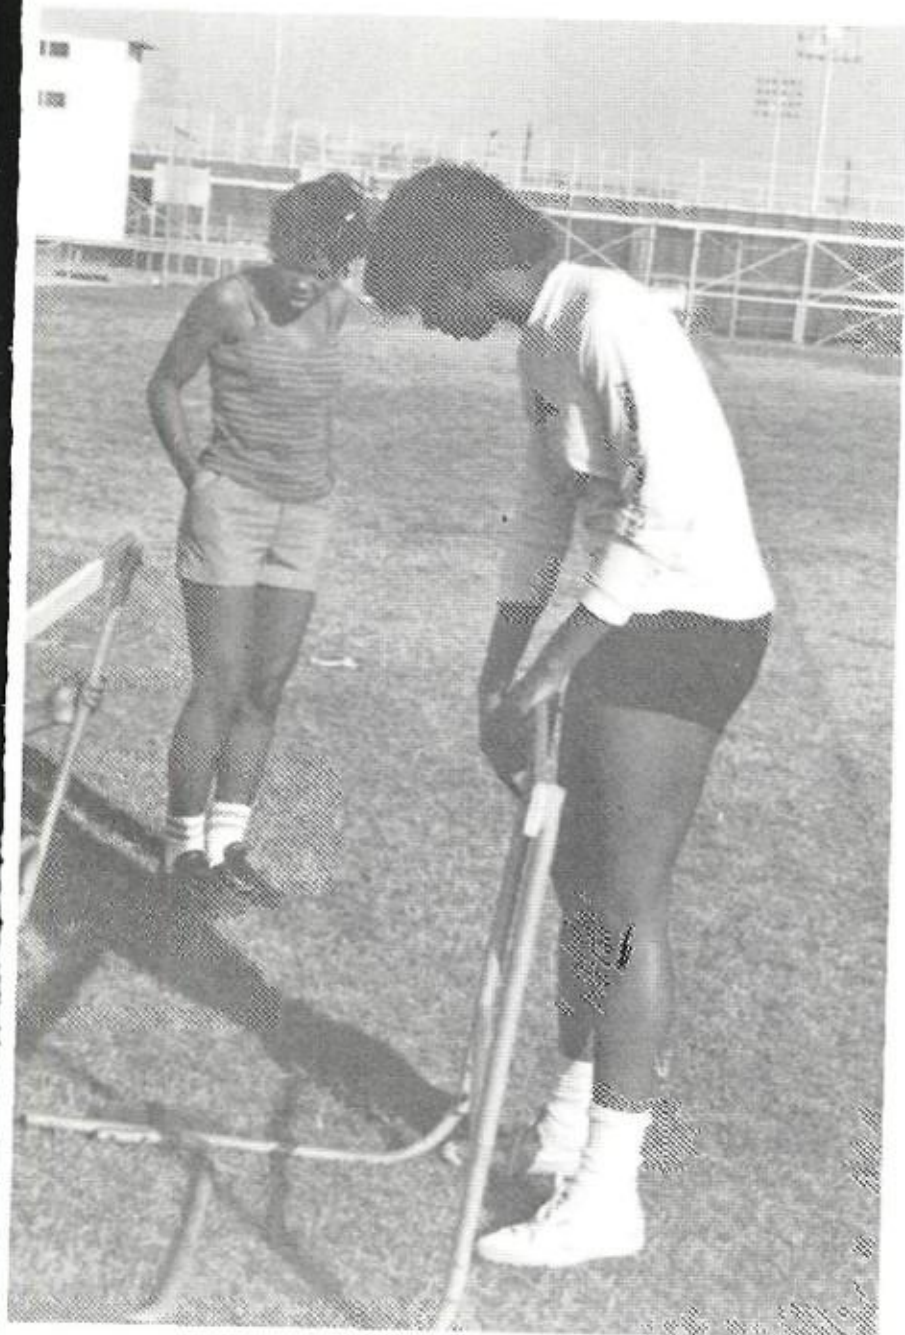

The girls also participated in other track meets. Among those were the Adamson, Weatherford, SOC, and North Dallas meets.

Coach Weems was satisfied with the outcome of the year. She commented by saying "We have a lot of improvements to make but this year's team will not be a disappointment. Due to the lack of number of girls participating, we may not place well as a team but will have several outstanding girls who will do extremely well individually."

Cross Country team runs for fun

The Kimball Cross-Country team ended the season by finishing fourth in district competition.

By practicing for many hours both before and after school, the team's members were ready to face such rival schools as Sunset and Carter.

Ramone Coleman, Joe Bradish, and Tim Brogdon proved to be the main factors in helping Kimball's cross-country team achieve success.

Baseball team catches another successful year

Experience and practice make a good baseball team. Kimball is no exception.

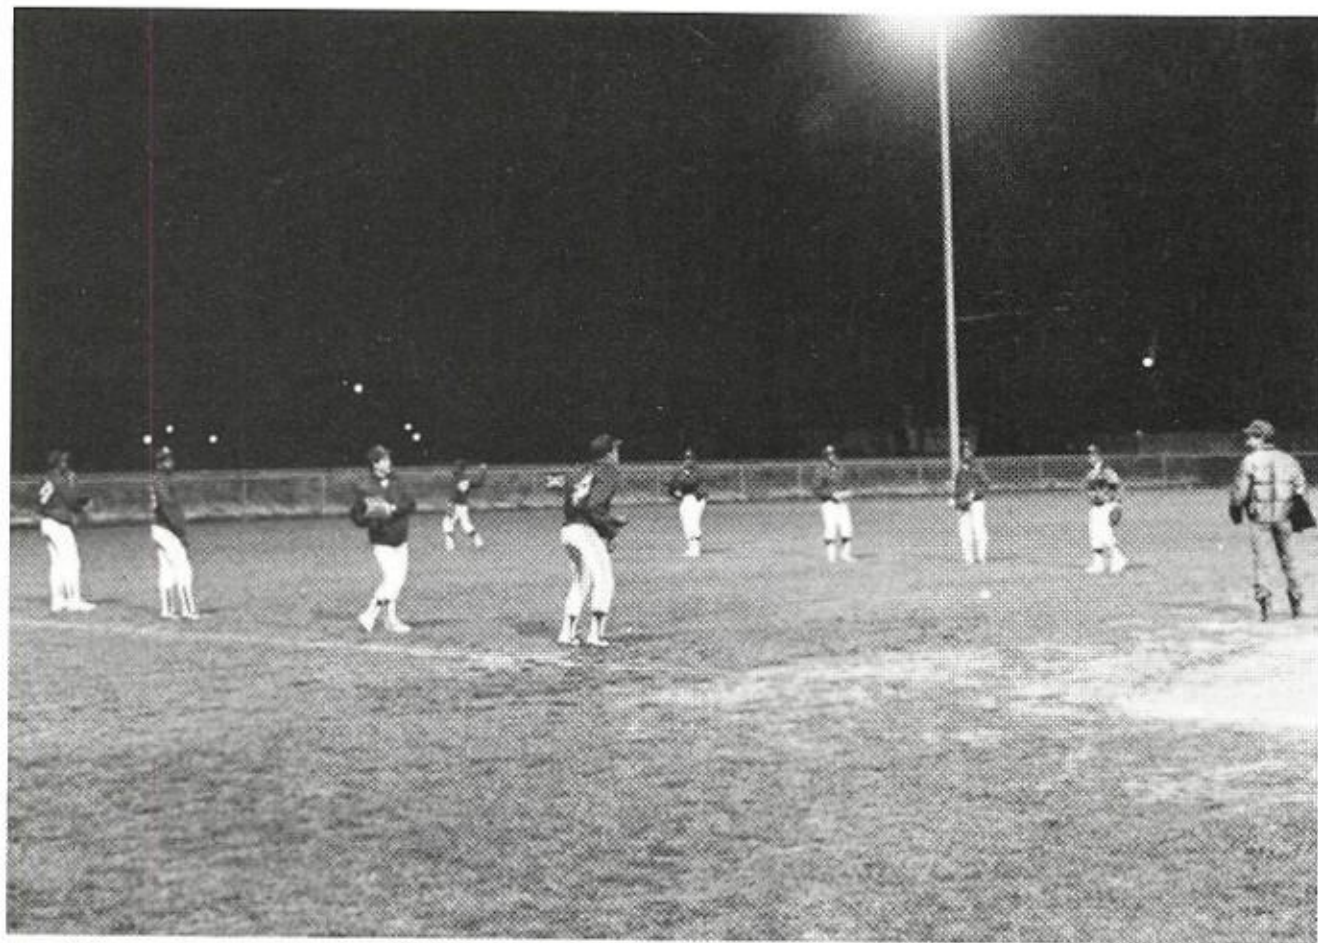

The 1985-86 baseball team held its own throughout the season. In spite of several defeats, the Knights came out victorious overall.

Late afternoon practices were a requirement in order to compete with tough competitors as W. T. White. The Knights practiced on perfecting their techniques in batting, catching, running, and stealing bases. Outstanding players this year included Paul Miranda, Bruce Gamble, Samuel Moore, and Claudio Castaneda.

Tennis team serves for success

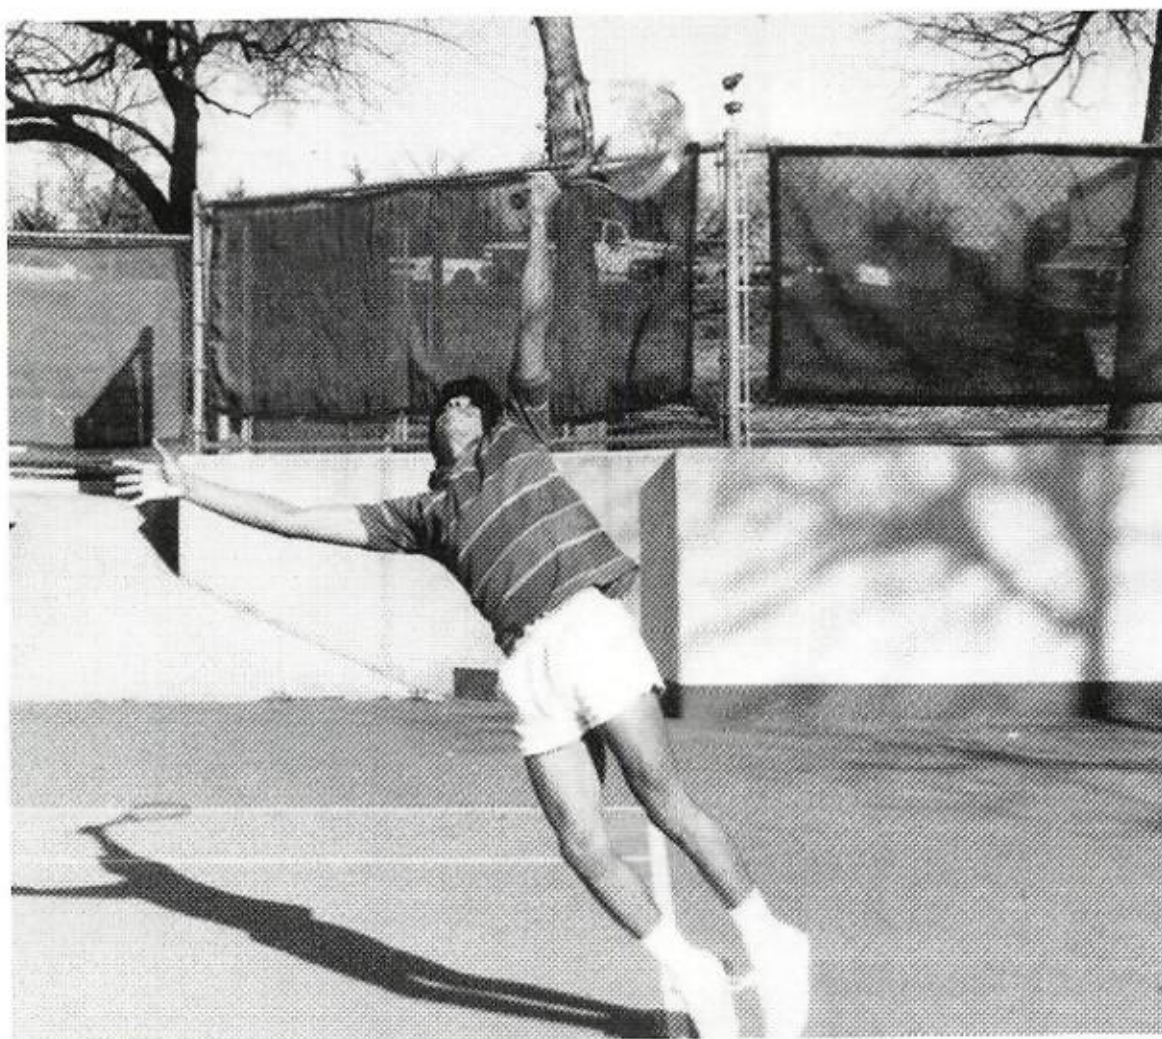

The Kimball Tennis team consisted of players who perfected their skills and some who learned the game while having fun.

Each day the tennis team practiced after school to prepare for matches against other area high schools.

The team defeated Pinkston, Carter, and Wilmer-Hutchins high schools but lost to the more advanced players at Thomas Jefferson.

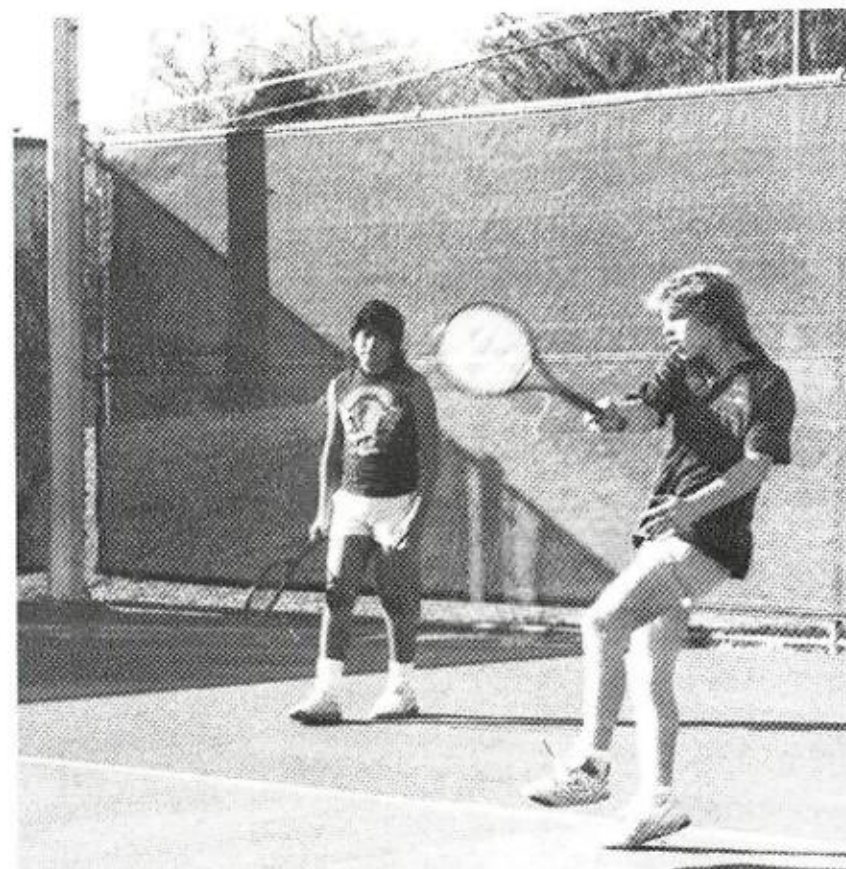

Part of the team's training includes special challenge days. These days allow players to challenge other players in order to move up in the ranks.

Golfers tee it up

Golf is often considered the "gentleman's game" and Kimball is no exception.

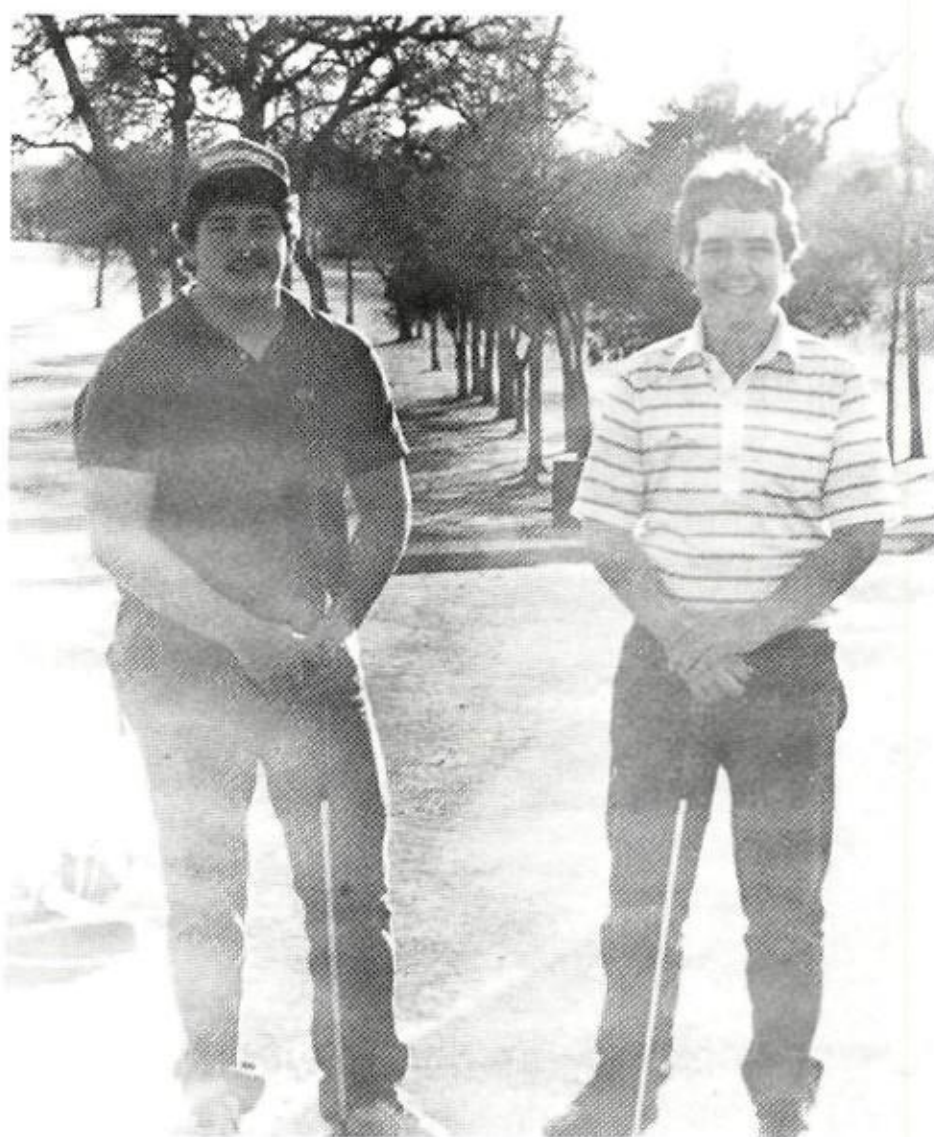

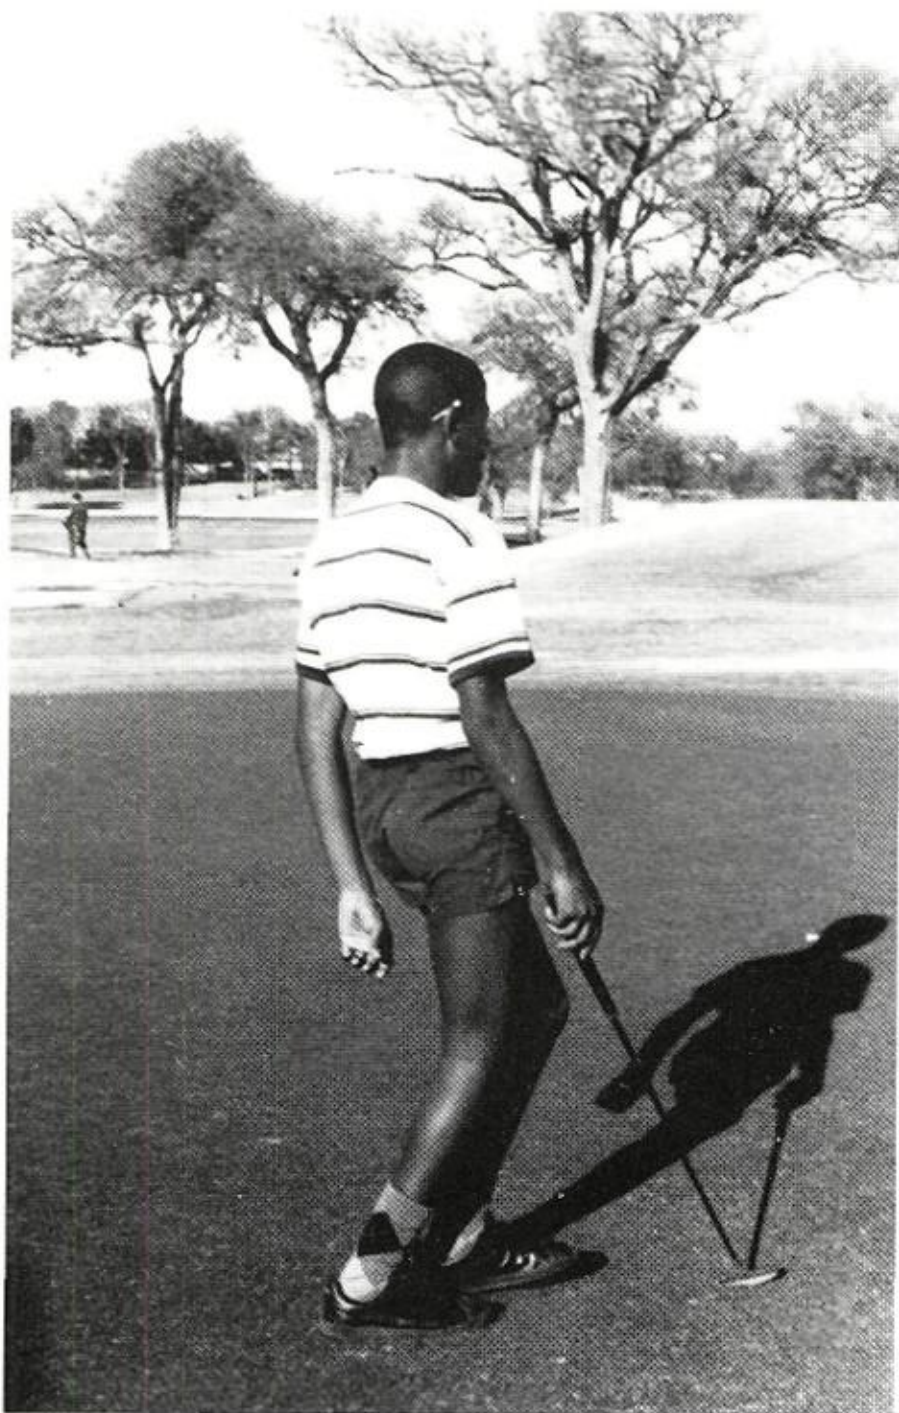

The all-male team is coached by Marcus Evans.

The season was a success. The year began with a series of victories and the trend continued throughout the year.

For some team members, the first exposure to golf was at school. They caught on rapidly and quickly developed a love for the game. Although the team was small, it had a big desire to win.

People

The album is usually the place most students look when they first receive their yearbook. The album section is where they will find their picture as well as those of their friends and classmates.

The album consists of the students and staff of the Kimball High School family. The album is basically divided into five sections. In the faculty section, one can find the teachers' pictures and a list of the subjects they teach.

The last four sections are composed of the students. They are divided into each grade classification with the picture and name of each student. In addition to the names and pictures, a listing of senior credits is also included.

The Administration . . .

Without a strong head, the body would be weak. Such is not the case at Kimball. The administration exerts strong leadership that encourages others — both staff and students — to follow the examples set.

Although Kimball has an enrollment of about 2,000 students, there is a family atmosphere and everyone knows that there are no lofty administrators. They are accessible and approachable.

Competent, capable and helpful describes each.

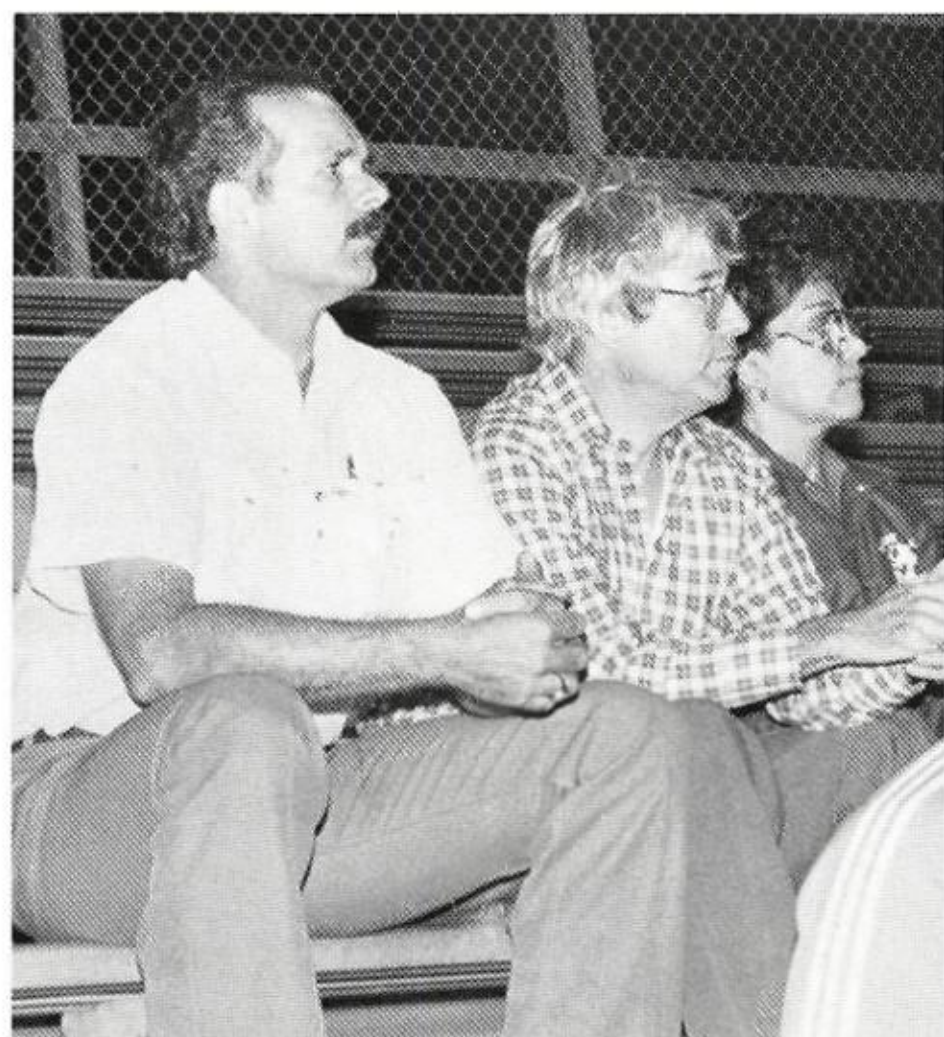

Despite a year of additional changes and adjustments and the controversy about the Texas Test of Current Administrations and Teachers (TECAT), everyone pulled together and pulled through.

Staff

The staff is the life blood of Kimball.

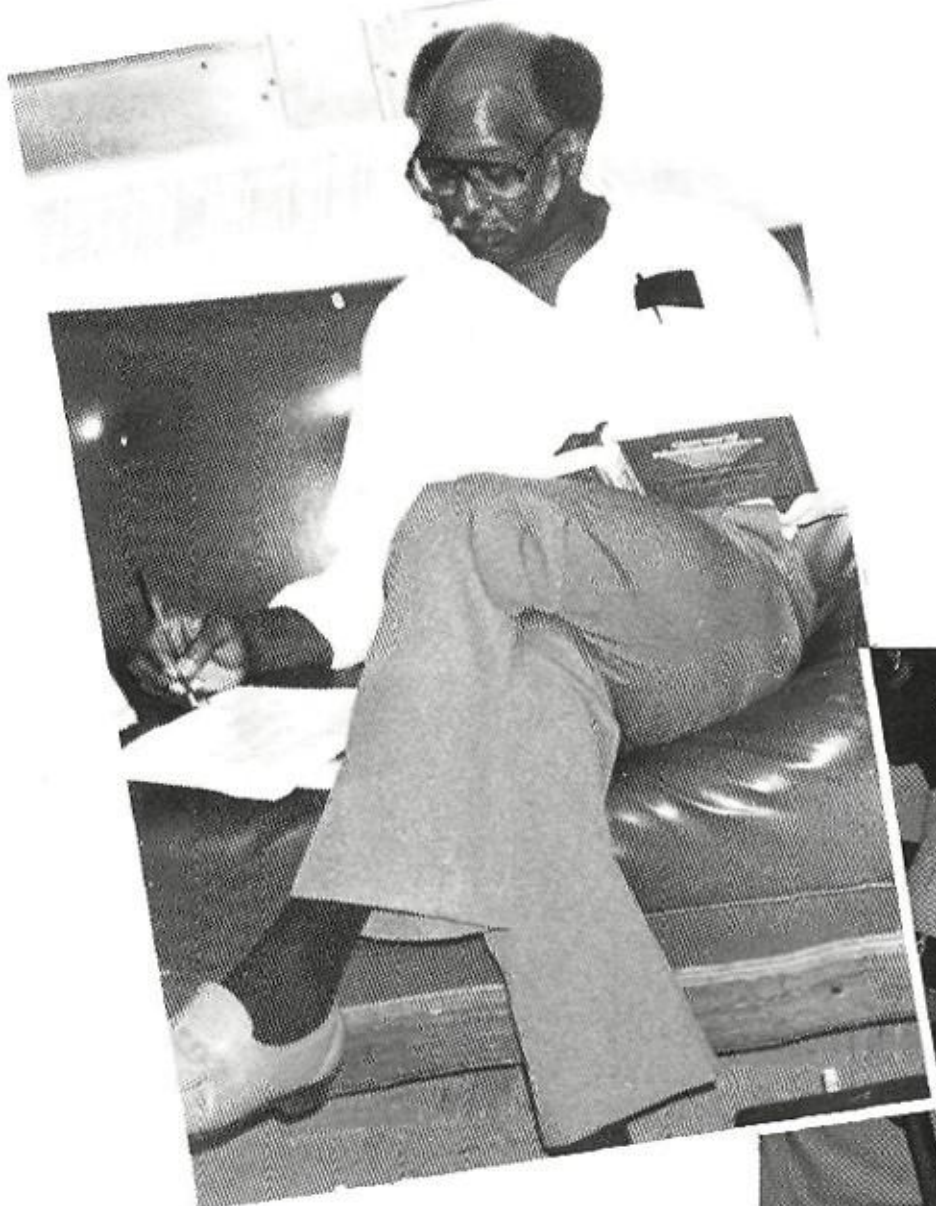

Whether administrator, faculty, or support staff — each person has a role that is vital to the daily operations of the school and the overall success of the Kimball academic and cocurricular programs.

The instructional staff has a particularly difficult job. The burden of proof is on them. They must implement programs as mandated, and carry on the day-to-day instructions.

The administration must plan the operations of the school as well as give guidelines from the board, state, and other agencies.

The support staff is responsible for a variety of duties including clerical, culinary, and janitorial.

Each person is an important link in the chain.

Knights of the

Each year 12 Kimball seniors are selected for the honor of being Knights of the Round Table. The students this year are representative of the high caliber of students named to the positions.

Being on the Round Table is an accomplishment in itself. All seniors with at least an 82 grade point average are eligible. Kimball staff members vote on the students based on their views of a well-rounded student.

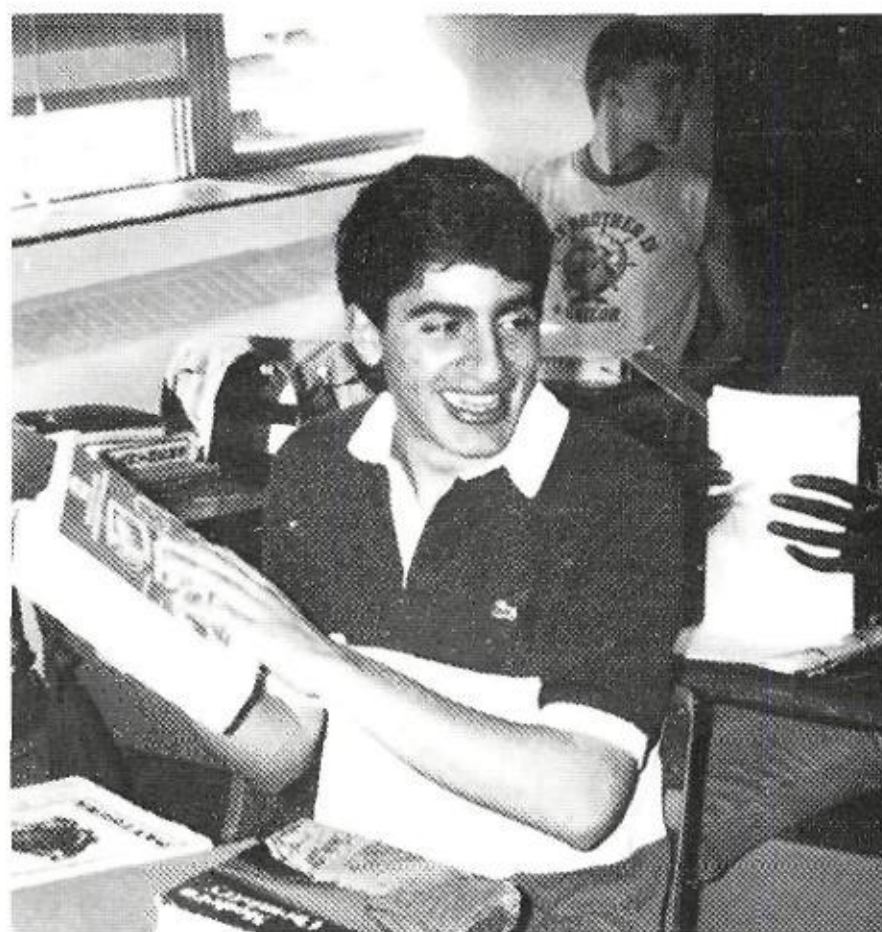

Because there can only be 12 named to the Round Table, it is truly an honor.

Fred Ghali

Besides being P-SAC president, Fred Ghali is senior class vice president, a member of the National Honor Society and on the Whiz Quiz team.

He was a steering committee member during his freshman, junior and senior years.

Fred is a member of Corona Eximia and Allerlei. He is also Troubadour and a member of German National Honor Society.

Laura Bragg

Laura Bragg was Homecoming Queen this year and was secretary for the National Honor Society. She was senior class treasurer and a lieutenant for the Troubadours. Laura also was active in El Sol and P-SAC.

She has sung with the Knight Tymes and with the Choral Union, Chorale and Choraliers.

Except for her junior year, Laura served on her class steering committee.

Douglas Woodward

Douglas Woodward wrapped up his high school career as a P-SAC member and as a Troubadour. He was also voted homecoming king.

Douglas has played football, baseball and soccer and sang with various choral groups at Kimball.

He was also on the steering committee his freshman, junior and senior years.

Round Table

Hope Hart

Hope Hart is a member of the National Honor Society, Entre Nous, El Sol and P-SAC. Her other activities have included Allied Youth, Y-Teens and Future Business Leaders.

She was a member of the steering committee her sophomore, junior and senior years and was in the band and wind ensemble.

She also has been a cheerleader for several years, starting with junior varsity and then to varsity.

Mark Mayben

Mark Mayben spent his senior year serving as Sir Justin. He was also a member of the National Honor Society and P-SAC.

Mark has been a member of the steering committee since his freshman year. He put his musical talents to work as a member of the marching band, orchestra wind ensemble and concert band. He also received all-city and all-region honors in orchestra.

He has also sang in the Chorale.

Melissa French

Melissa French led the Troubadears as captain this year. Among other things, she has played varsity tennis and was a member of the French National Honor Society.

Melissa was also a member of Entre Nous and Allerlei. She has been a member of the steering committee throughout high school.

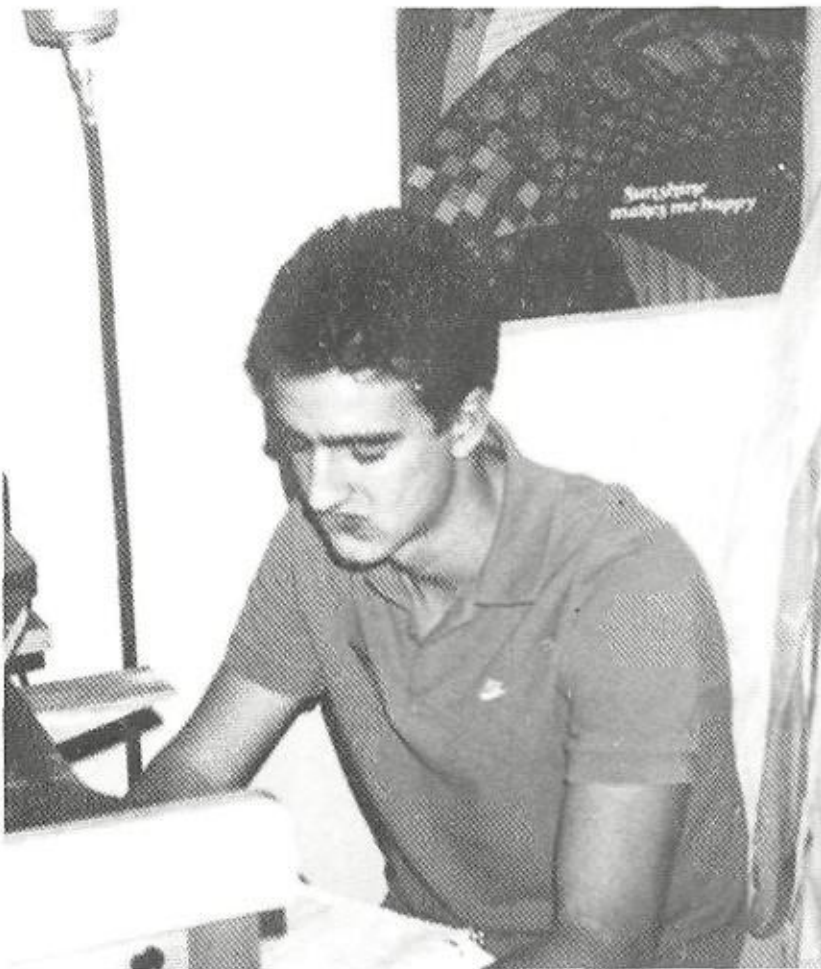

Stacy Lesley

Stacy Lesley has been actively involved in P-SAC and several other organizations. She was a member of Corona Eximia and Allerlei.

On the Troub squad she is Lieutenant Lesley.

Stacy played varsity tennis and was in the Choral Union. She was on the steering committee her freshman, through senior years and was a class favorite her freshman and sophomore years. Stacy was a homecoming princess her freshman and sophomore years.

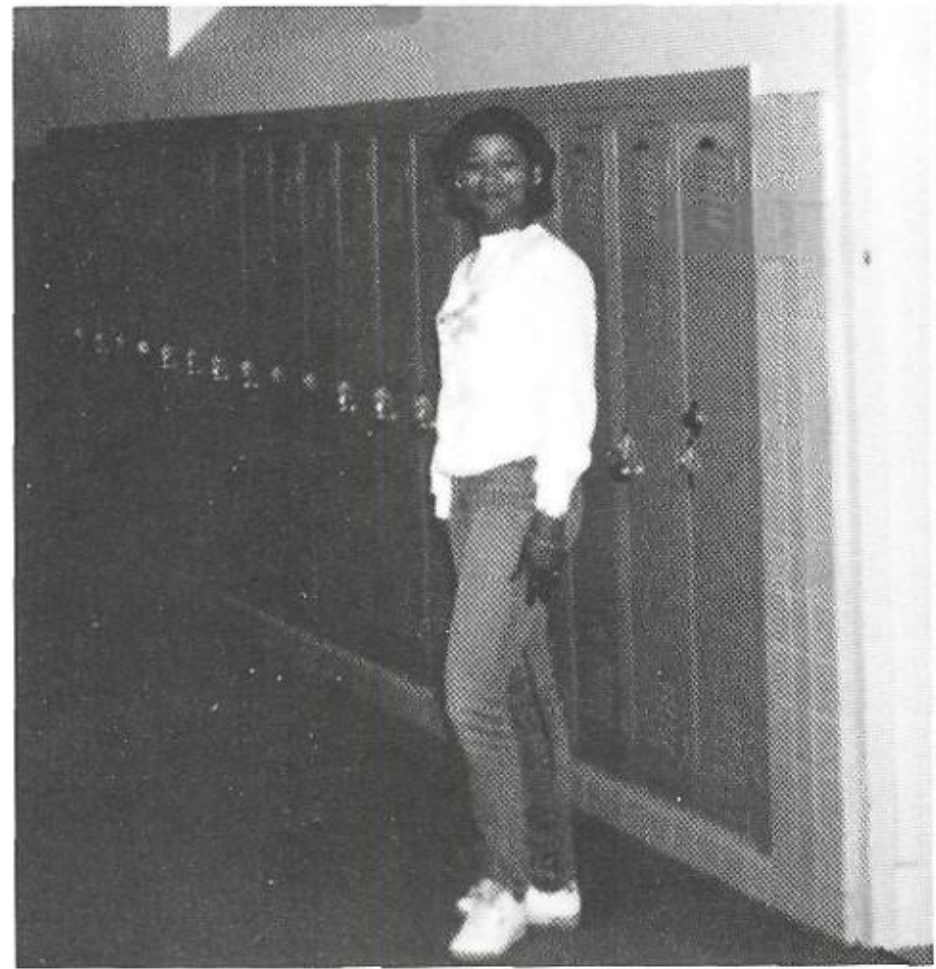

Stacy is a member of the National Honor Society.

David Pfeil

David Pfeil spent several weeks of his senior year playing soccer in Russia. Then it was back home to his jewelry making and art club projects.

David played JV and varsity soccer and has been named to the Parade All-American Soccer team for the second time.

Charlesa Blake

Playing basketball and volleyball are things that Charlesa Blake enjoys. She also likes to try her hand at cooking cakes — straight from the cake mix box.

While at Kimball she has been a member of Teens and she put her musical talents to work in the Chorale and Choral Union. She was also a member of the Choraliers.

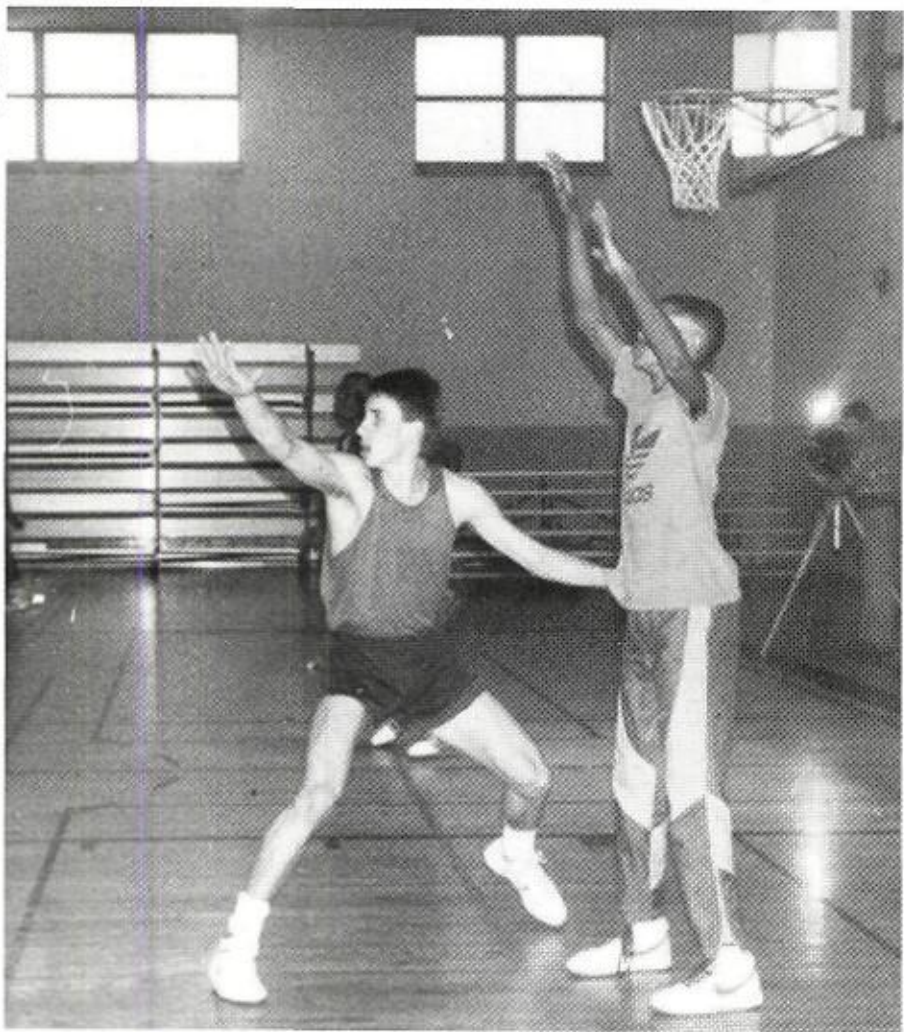

April Whitfield

April Whitfield is a member of the National Honor Society and vice president of P-SAC. She is also a National Merit Scholar semifinalist.

April is a member of the Whiz Quiz team, El Sol, Entre Nous and was a member of the science club.

She is president of the Thespians and on the Excalibur staff. April has been a steering committee member since she was a freshman.

Previously, she was a member of the marching band, wind ensemble and concert band.

Michael Sullivan mixes academics and sports. Besides maintaining a good average, Michael plays baseball and basketball.

This year he was a member of the first Kimball Varsity Basketball Team to go to the state UIL tournament. The team became state runner-up.

Paula Peteet

Paula Peteet was voted "Most Athletic" in the senior class. She has won numerous other sports-related awards and honors in basketball and track.

Paula also plays volleyball and is a member of the Spanish National Honor Society and Future Homemakers of America.

Seniors

When one finally reaches the senior year, it is often hard to imagine that it has actually arrived. Students must make important decisions about life and the future.

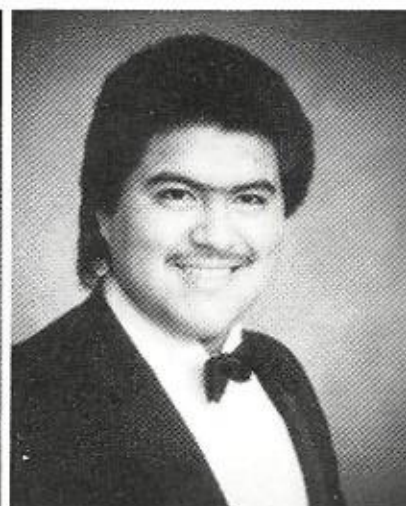

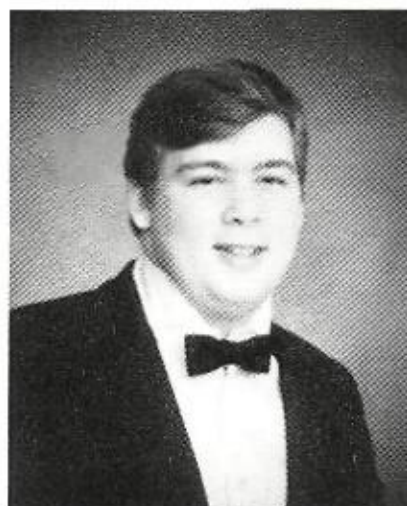

The seniors are the leaders of the school. They are the ones underclassmen look to for role models.

Students must finally make the decisions they've thought about in the previous years. It is a time of college and/or career planning. A student must decide whether he will go to college or go to work. He must really lay down the cards and plan for his future life after high school.

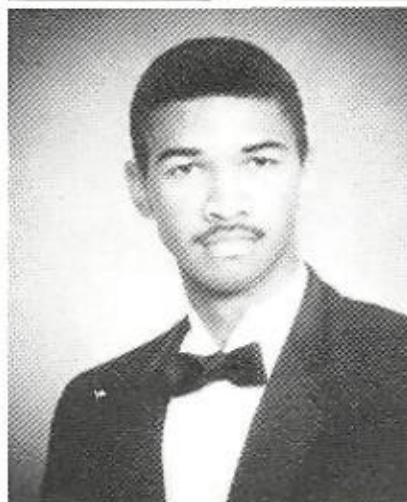

This year's seniors were able to view many changes that occurred at Kimball in the past four years. They were able to reflect on the past years which helped in their own personal development. Whatever path seniors decide to take, they will always be able to reflect on the years as a Kimball Knight.

We hope that once the seniors begin their new lives, they will always remember Kimball's motto and will always "seek the best" in everything.

Juniors

Once a student's junior year arrives, things start picking up. The classification "junior" already shows that one is nearing the end of the high school career.

The junior year is a time for thought. One must begin to put his goals and dreams into perspective.

Beginning with the junior year, it becomes apparent that most students have reached a point where their maturity level has risen. This is important because the juniors must prepare for the year when they will become the leaders of the school.

When the last day of the junior year comes, juniors are already waiting for the upcoming year where they will become the senior class at Kimball High School.

Sophomores

Sophomores are usually those students who are most proud because they can say they made it through the freshman year successfully. They no longer have to worry about the "freshman" label.

The sophomore year is usually the most relaxed. It is the year when each student becomes his own person and does not put much worry into what others think.

Sophomores have become adapted to the high school scene and are fairly comfortable with the high school atmosphere.

By the end of a person's sophomore year, he comes to realize that he is halfway through his high school life and only has two years remaining.

Freshmen

Freshman. The name says it all.

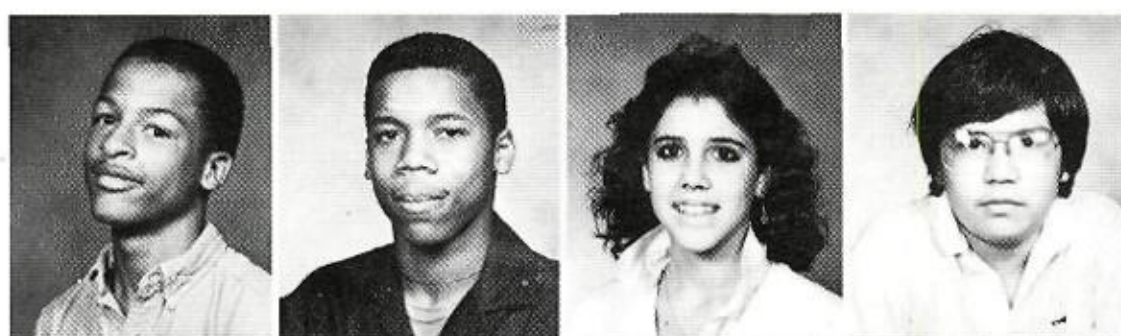

A student's freshman year will probably be the second most remembered, behind the senior year. But for some, it will be a year many will want to forget. It is a time of transition — a considerable contrast to the days of junior high school, where life was easy and worries were forgotten.

Entering high school requires a period of adjustment. Many students leave junior high and anxiously wait to enter high school, only to wish that they were back in junior high once again.

Many freshmen go through a trying period of wanting to fit in with everyone else. This period usually disappears once a freshman becomes accustomed to the high school atmosphere.

The freshman year is the beginning of the four most important years in a young person's life. It is here where he will develop his individuality and become set in his own ways.

Advertising

As with the production of any item, cost is a determining factor. It can make or break the creation of anything, especially a yearbook.

Many people do not realize how much money and expenses are involved in creating a yearbook. That is why each year the last pages of the yearbook are reserved for the people and businesses who show their support for Kimball High School by purchasing ads in our yearbook.

... from "The Editor"

This year has been both challenging and inspiring. As Editor-In-Chief of the yearbook, I had many responsibilities, and had several critical decisions to make.

One of these major decisions was to design the cover of the 1986 Excalibur. With careful thought, the decision to break away from the Kimball tradition and change the color and design of the yearbook was made. I knew that the student body would either be for or against the drastic change, but that did not discourage the decision. The theme of this year's Excalibur, "In Classic Style," came into existence after the decision to change tradition and be unique became final.

This yearbook is indeed a classic within itself, and I hope it will be remembered for being just that.

Putting together a yearbook takes hours of strenuous work. Getting pictures taken and cropped, drawing layouts and quad-pacs, and writing instructions, are just some of the things that must be done to complete each page of a yearbook. Staying late after school hours was one of the tiring things that had to be done to assure perfection.

The minute that the last page was completed came as a great relief. The long hours that were put out finally paid off.

I want to thank the yearbook staff for the part they had in the production of this yearbook, and I would like to add a special thanks first of all, to Mrs. Washington for going above and beyond her duties as the Excalibur sponsor to help make the yearbook possible, and second, to Christina Stark for doing more than her share, and also for staying late after school to meet our deadlines.

My parents should also be recognized for staying behind me and helping me through this entire year, and most of all for having faith in me.

This year has been full of failures and successes, and the results of all of the hard work can be seen inside the cover and throughout the pages of the 1986 Excalibur.

It's Been a Great Year!

Becky Rios
Editor-In-Chief

This year was full of . . .

. . . happiness
and . . . pain

Some participated . . .

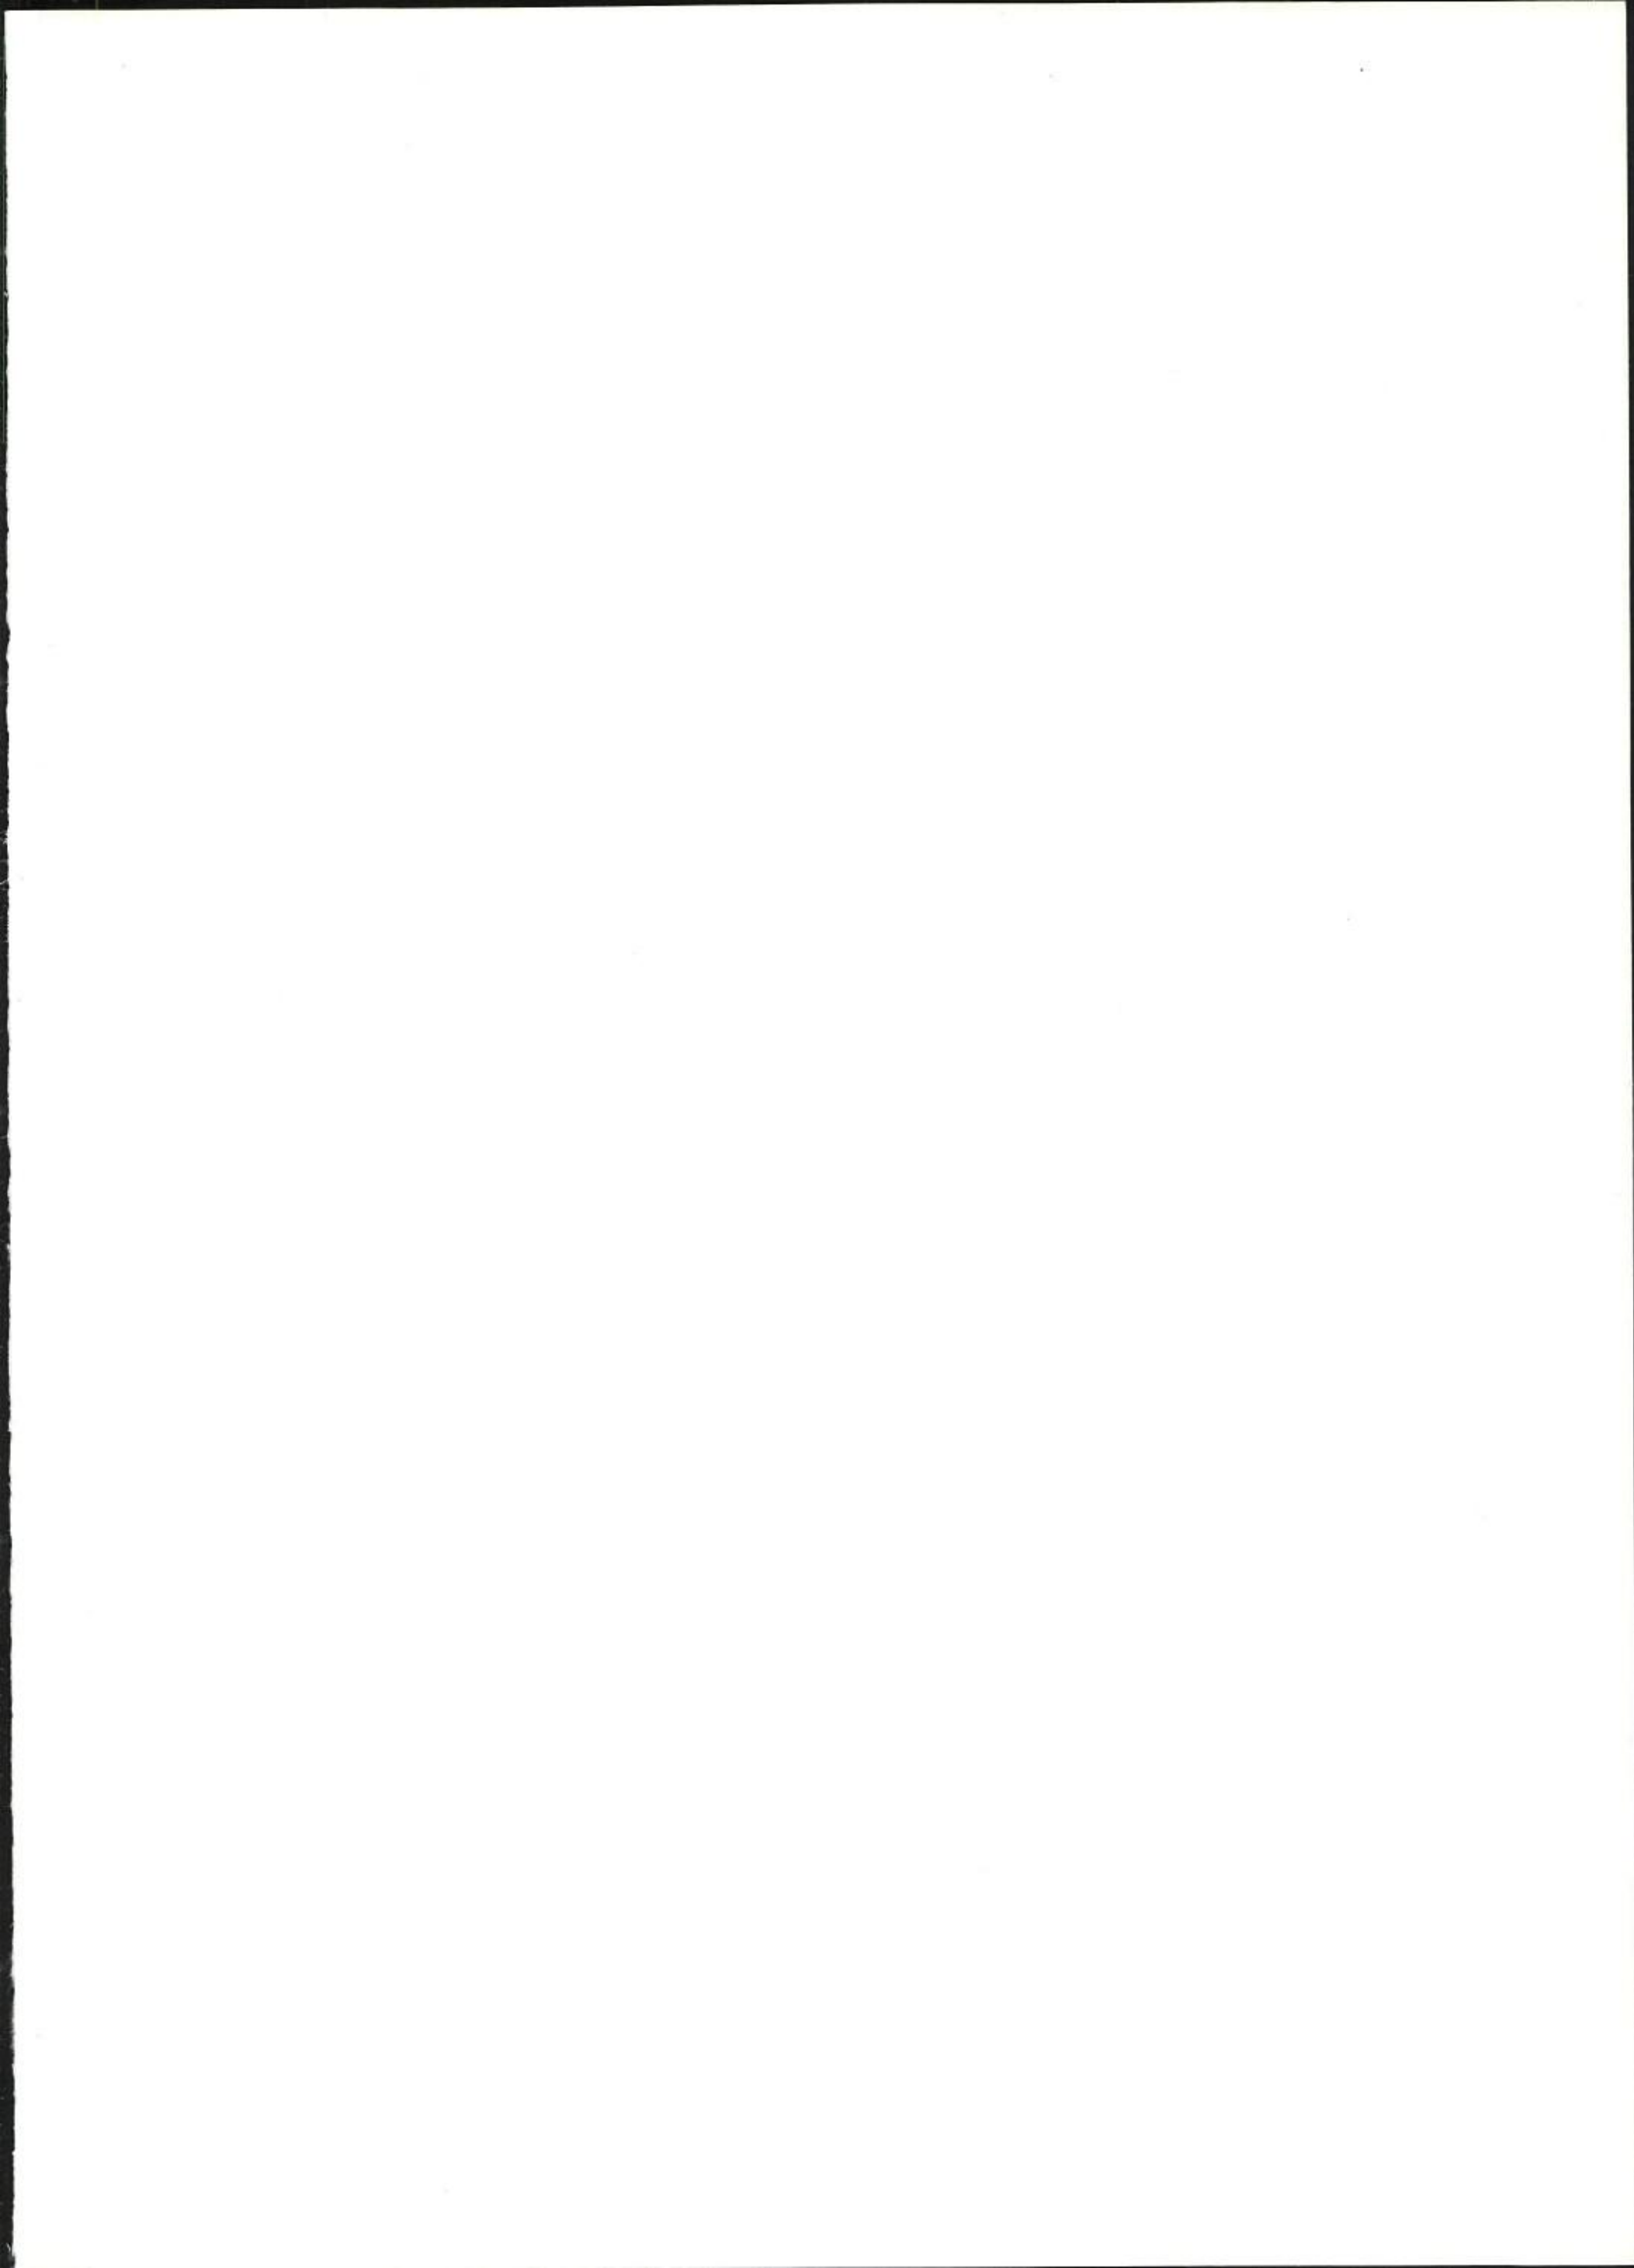

We finally figured it out and had . . . a "classic" year.

. . . while others waited their turn.
